Factors That Contribute To Successful Schools A Caribbean Perspective:

Factors That Contribute to Successful Schools: A Caribbean Perspective Eulalie Daley Semper, 2014-10-17 This book explores various factors that contribute to successful schools in the Caribbean Based on my own personal and professional experience I define successful schools as those schools where high quality teaching takes place in a supportive environment In these schools spiritual leaders seek to work with educational stakeholders to develop and facilitate a culture of excellence Therefore I have decided to examine teacher development community involvement spiritual leadership servant leadership and an established culture of success as additional factors that can contribute to successful schools in the Antiguan context However this study can yield valuable information that can be used to assess educational practices within different types of schools regionally and globally since one of its main aims is to explore stakeholders perceptions on the contributing factors to schools academic success In this book educational practitioners policy makers and institutional leaders will find principles of success that will affect principal leadership classroom learning and student achievement Successful School Leadership Petros Pashiardis, Olof Johansson, 2016-02-25 Successful School Leadership identifies the characteristics behaviours and practices of successful and effective school leaders through the adoption of a systemic view of the quality of school organizations Edited by Petros Pashiardis and Olof Johansson chapters explore the similarities and differences between successful and effective school leaders and across various socioeconomic contexts Capitalizing on the experiences of the international contributor team this book will inform the preparation and further development provided to school leaders in an era where ministries of education universities and multinational organisations such as the OECD are increasingly interested in the leadership of our schools Systematic analyses of multi perspective data provided from around the world and offers the readers a comprehensive picture of the key behaviours and practices central to successful and effective school leadership An original contribution to the theoretical perspectives on the subject is derived through insights from empirical research case studies and bibliographical literature from the field Black and Ethnic Minority Achievement in Schools Feyisa Demie, 2025-03-31 This eminently timely volume explores the successful practice and effective intervention strategies in schools to drive school improvement and close the achievement gap for Black and minority ethnic students Representing a seminal publication in the literature this book collates 20 years of original research into race achievement and educational equality in schools in England to find out what s really working in education and identify the key areas for improvement Looking at leading issues such as the curriculum school exclusions and language barriers chapters focus on the lived experiences of headteachers teachers parents pupils and other school staff obtained through focus groups and interviews Presenting longitudinal evidence from school surveys and the National Pupil Database the book considers The scale of the achievement gap and educational inequality The barriers to learning for Black and ethnic minorities The experience of raising achievement in successful multicultural schools Strategies and success factors to drive improvement in schools

Targeted intervention to tackle inequality The international experience to close the achievement gap Lessons learned from successful schools to inform policy and practice Ultimately tackling educational inequality head on the book demonstrates concrete strategies for how to close the achievement gap for Black and ethnic minority students and will therefore be essential reading for academics policymakers and school staff involved with multicultural education education policy and politics and school improvement and effectiveness as well as race and ethnicity studies more broadly Resources in Education ,1997

The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education Peter A.J. Stevens,A. Gary Dworkin,2019-07-05 This authoritative state of the art reference work builds on its first edition to provide a cutting edge systematic review of the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality Studying 25 different national contexts drawn from every inhabited continent on earth and building upon material from the earlier edition the work analyses educational policies practices and research on minority students immigrants and refugees The editors and contributors explore principal research traditions from countries as diverse as Argentina China Norway and South Africa examining the factors promoting social cohesion as well as considerations regarding the use of international test score data Seamlessly integrating findings of national reviews the editors and contributors analyse how national contexts of race ethnic relations shape the character and content of educational inequalities and deftly map out new directions for future research in the area Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of education sociology race and ethnicity studies and social policy Chapter 20 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4 0 license at SpringerLink https://link.springer.com/chapter/10.1007/978-3-319-94724-2_20

Understanding the Causes and Consequences of School Exclusions Feyisa Demie,2022-07-19 This book outlines a study of the causes and consequences of school exclusions It explores the experiences of schools teachers parents and governors and includes a focus on the experience of Black and minority ethnic students and those with special educational needs and disabilities The book presents the results of detailed empirical research from English schools that studied teachers school leaders parents governors educational psychologists and school staff experience with school exclusions The book examines the scale of the problem and underlying factors the disproportionality of exclusions for SEND and minority ethnic students comparative international literature on exclusions and implications for policy practice and research Providing a comprehensive overview of the factors affecting school exclusions the book will be of great interest to researchers academics and students in the areas of education policy inclusion and special education needs in education It will also be of interest to policy makers and education professionals including special educational needs coordinators and headteachers

Stevens,A. Dworkin,2014-01-22 This comprehensive state of the art reference work provides the first systematic review to date of how sociologists have studied the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality over the last thirty years in eighteen different national contexts Resources in Education ,1996 Perspectives on Student Behaviour in Schools Mere Berryman,Ted Glynn,Janice Wearmouth,2007-05-07 The authors of this comprehensive text discuss the root causes of disruptive behaviour tackle assessment issues and develop effective intervention strategies that will be of practical use to teachers and other educators Whilst theorising behaviour management from a range of perspectives psychodynamic behavioural and socio cultural the authors remain firmly focused on practical issues of policy making assessment and intervention and address a wide range of related issues such as policy in relation to behaviour in schools at local authority national and international level cultural concerns race gender school discipline and exclusion medical perspectives of topical interest such as ADHD autism and diet assessment at district community classroom and individual level and how these underpin theory This book will appeal to anyone for whom behaviour in schools is a key concern such as student teachers teacher educators senior school managers and practising teachers undertaking further study in the field Global report on teachers International Task Force on Teachers for Education 2030,UNESCO,2024-02-24 Recent Research on the Achievements of Ethnic Minority Pupils David Gillborn,C. V. Gipps,1996 OFSTED has commissioned a limited number of brief but authoritative reviews of research aimed principally to support teachers and those training to be teachers This review concentrates on the achievement of ethnic minorities It argues that since the mid 1980s issues of race and equal opportunity have tended to slip from policy agendas and that this should be reversed It focuses on differences in levels of achievement between different ethnic groups and factors such as social class and gender are also addressed as influencing factors to achievement The Education of Diverse Student Populations Guofang Wan,2008-06-19 This book takes up the challenge of examining the thorniest educational issue from a global perspective It contributes to the evidence based conversation among policy makers educators and researchers around the world about what works to improve the education outcomes and what can make a bigger difference for the education of diverse students The eleven countries included the United Kingdom Austria Canada the United States South Africa Ghana China Singapore Malaysia Australia and New Zealand are unique and yet overlap in the sense that they all face similar challenges of teaching diverse students The authors being education and cultural insiders discuss country specific policies efforts and best practices in the education of diverse students share stories of success and failure and explore current best practices from global social political and economic perspectives Built on previous theories and research it describes diverse students experiences in the global and information age and searches for effective policies and practices that help these students to perform better in school and in life Readers are forced to step outside of their own experiences and commonly held beliefs about education Conscious recognition that there are other ways of doing things may result in new approaches that we have not explored before We hope the insights lessons and conclusions drawn from examining this pressing education issue from a global perspective will help nations to better understand and deal with it in their own educational system

No Quick Fixes Louise Stoll, Kate Myers, 2002-11-01

The challenge of school improvement for failing schools is a complex and much debated issue This text attempts to help those working in or working with failing schools and aims to contradict the notion that there are no quick fixes for schools in difficulty The issue of failing schools is looked at from a number of viewpoints Section one contains policy perspectives section two contains three schools perspectives section three contains chapters written by three external facilitators section four addresses the issues from three prominent school effectiveness researchers and section five gives international perspectives from the co ordinator of the OECD Combating School Failure initiative
