Friday On My Mind A Frieda Klein Novel Book:

Friday on My Mind Nicci French, 2016-10-04 In Nicci's French's thrilling fifth book London psychotherapist Frieda Klein herself becomes the prime suspect in a murder. A bloated corpse turns up in the Thames throat slashed and the only clue is a hospital wristband reading Dr F Klein. Frieda is taken to see the body and realizes with horror that it is Sandy, her ex-boyfriend. She's certain that the killer is Dean Reeve, the man who has never stopped haunting her. But the police think he has been dead for years and Frieda is their number one suspect. With few options, Frieda goes on the run to save herself and try to uncover the truth. Praise for the Frieda Klein Mystery series: Fierce, fascinating and full of insight. Frieda Klein is irresistible. Val McDermid, bestselling author of Splinter. The Silence: Sophisticated, gripping, addictive. Crime novels that stand head and shoulders above the competition. Sophie Hannah, bestselling author of Woman with a Secret. Complex psychological suspense at its best. Booklist starred review.

The Last Days of Kira Mullan Nicci French, 2025-01-16 She thinks it was murder. But if she can't trust herself, can anyone else? Nancy North and her boyfriend Felix are making the move across London to Harlesden. A new flat, a new area, a new start. Because while Nancy is fine now, she wasn't fine before. But settling into the new flat and meeting the new neighbours isn't helped by Felix's hovering concern. She is all right. She is sticking to her breathing exercises and doctor-prescribed help. So when their new neighbour Kira Mullan is found dead by suicide, Felix is understandably worried about Nancy's frame of mind. But Nancy saw Kira the day before she died, and she didn't strike her as someone who was suicidal. She was upset and angry, yes, but was she upset and angry enough to take her own life? Nancy is the only one convinced that there's more to Kira's death than has been discovered. But all the police and the neighbours see is a vulnerable woman who isn't sure of what she saw and might even be imagining things. Is Nancy imagining things, or are there more questions that should be asked about the last days of Kira Mullan? A heroine you'll be rooting for on every page and a forensic study of gaslighting. Pure literary adrenaline. Erin Kelly.

Thursday's Children Nicci French, 2016-03-29 First published in Great Britain by Michael Joseph, an imprint of Penguin Books Ltd 2014

Blue Monday Nicci French, 2012-03-01 The stunning first book in a new series of psychological thrillers introducing an unforgettable London psychotherapist. Frieda Klein is a solitary, incisive psychotherapist who spends her sleepless nights walking along the ancient rivers that have been forced underground in modern London. She believes that the world is a messy, uncontrollable place, but what we can control is what is inside our heads. This attitude is reflected in her own life, which is an austere one of refuge, personal integrity and order. The abduction of five-year-old Matthew Farraday provokes a national outcry and a desperate police hunt. And when his face is splashed over the newspapers, Frieda cannot ignore the coincidence: one of her patients has been having dreams in which he has a hunger for a child. A red-haired child he can describe in perfect detail, a child the spitting image of Matthew. She finds herself in the center of the investigation, serving as the reluctant sidekick of the chief inspector. Drawing readers into a haunting world in which the terrors of the mind have spilled over into real life. Blue Monday
