Friday 7 November 2014 Mark Scheme Foundation:

The World Disorder Luiz Alberto Moniz Bandeira, 2019-01-23 This book offers a historical analysis of the geopolitical and geoeconomic competition between the USA and Russia which has recently heated up again due to the eastward expansion of NATO The analysis departs from an exploration of the USA's foreign policy and geopolitical ambitions by illustrating the influence of Wall Street and the military industrial complex on the country's political decision making The historical review covers a wide timespan from the Second World War and the birth of NATO to the wars against Iraq and Afghanistan to the rebellions that erupted in Eurasia Northern Africa and the Middle East in the 2010s as well as the wars in the Ukraine and in Syria By doing so it reveals the influence of US neocons the US intelligence services and the military complex on the Arab Spring the Color Revolutions and the armed conflicts in Ukraine and Syria Ultimately the book depicts a new era of worldwide instability and disorder dominated by violence and arbitrariness Corruption Risks in Nigeria's Defence and Security Establishments Jude Uddoh Ph.D., 2016-02-05 This work attempts to assess corruption risks in five key areas of Nigeria's defence and security establishments namely political financial personnel operations and procurement Using a simple and straightforward question and answer format the assessment draws from interviews with key players in the industry as well as from secondary sources The scope of the work includes the last few years of President Goodluck Jonathan's administration and the threshold of the administration of President Muhammadu Buhari a truly epochal period in the history of Nigeria's fight against corruption but also reflects policy gaps inherent in the transition in government The work contributes to an area of literature which is both scanty and characterized by much secrecy It is hoped therefore that this contribution will not only stimulate more frank and open discussion on the subject of corruption risks in Nigeria's defence and security sector but would also act as both a template and benchmark on which policy makers can embark on genuine and meaningful reforms Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh, 2014-04-22 Post-Liberal Peace Transitions Oliver P. Richmond, 2016-01-18 Why is it that states emerging from intervention peacebuilding and statebuilding over the last 25 years appear to be failed by design This study explores the interplay of local peace agency with the neo liberal peacebuilding project And it looks at how far can local peace formation dynamics can go to counteract the forces of violence and play a role in rebuilding the state consolidate peace processes and induce a more progressive form of politics By looking at local agency related to peace formation Oliver Richmond and Sandra Pogodda find answers to the pressing question of how large scale peacebuilding or statebuilding may be significantly improved and made more representative of the lives needs rights and ambitions of its subjects At the Dawn of Belt and Road Andrew Scobell, Bonny Lin, Howard J. Shatz, Michael Johnson, Larry Hanauer, Michael S. Chase, Astrid Stuth Cevallos, Ivan W. Rasmussen, Arthur Chan, Aaron Strong, Eric Warner, Logan Ma, 2018-09-24 China has always viewed itself as a vulnerable underdeveloped country In the 1990s it began negotiating economic agreements and creating China centric institutions culminating in the 2000s in numerous institutions and ultimately the Belt and Road Initiative The authors analyze China s political and diplomatic economic and military engagement with the Developing World and discuss specific countries that are most important to China Lending Power Howard E. Covington Jr.,2017-10-19 Established by Martin Eakes and Bonnie Wright in North Carolina in 1980 the nonprofit Center for Community Self Help has grown from an innovative financial institution dedicated to civil rights into the nation s largest home lender to low and moderate income borrowers Self Help s first capital campaign a bake sale that raised a meager seventy seven dollars for a credit union may not have done much to fulfill the organization s early goals of promoting worker owned businesses but it was a crucial first step toward wielding inclusive lending as a weapon for economic justice In Lending Power journalist and historian Howard E Covington Jr narrates the compelling story of Self Help s founders and coworkers as they built a progressive and community oriented financial institution First established to assist workers displaced by closed furniture and textile mills Self Help created a credit union that expanded into providing home loans for those on the margins of the financial market especially people of color and single mothers Using its own lending record Self Help convinced commercial banks to follow suit extending its influence well beyond North Carolina In 1999 its efforts led to the first state law against predatory lending A decade later as the Great Recession ravaged the nation s economy its legislative victories helped influence the Dodd Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act and the formation of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Self Help also created a federally chartered credit union to expand to California and later to Illinois and Florida where it assisted ailing community based credit unions and financial institutions Throughout its history Self Help has never wavered from its mission to use Dr Martin Luther King Jr s vision of justice to extend economic opportunity to the nation s unbanked and underserved citizens With nearly two billion dollars in assets Self Help also shows that such a model for nonprofits can be financially successful while serving the greater good At a time when calls for economic justice are growing ever louder Lending Power shows how hard working and dedicated people can help improve their communities Islamic State in Translation Balsam Mustafa,2022-07-28 Offering an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of Arabic and English language narratives of the Islamic State terrorist group this book investigates how these narratives changed across national and media boundaries Utilizing insights and methodologies from translation studies communication studies and sociology Islamic State in Translation explores how multimodal narratives of IS and survivors were fragmented circulated and translated in the context of the terrorist action carried out by Islamic State against the people and culture of Iraq as well as against other victims around the world Closely examining four atrocities the Speicher massacre the enslavement of Ezidi women execution videos and videos of the destruction of Iraqi cultural heritage Balsam Mustafa explores how the Arabic and English language narratives of these events were translated developed and fragmented In doing so she advances a socio narrative theory and reconsiders translation in the new media environment within a broader socio political field of inquiry Management Behaviours in Higher Education David Dunbar,2021-02-02 Management

Behaviours in Higher Education explores the traits and behaviours of higher education leaders that are associated with staff management. It sets out beneficial management qualities and techniques which can be applied and suggests the need for a behavioural standard for senior managers in universities. The book showcases the importance of creating a supportive motivational climate and culture for greater psychological security in higher education. It proposes the idea of an agreed behavioural framework for those in and being considered for staff management positions to provide an improved motivational climate. Chapters evaluate current business management practice and human resources advice and compare these to research evidence on the management of higher education staff. This book will be of great interest for academics, researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of higher education, educational leadership and management studies. It will also appeal to those interested in business studies and the suggested parallel role topic of sports coaching or similar.

Bihar and Mithila J. Albert Rorabacher, 2016-09-13 The world has become obsessed with the Western notions of progress, development and globalization, the latter a form of human and economic homogenization. These processes through the aegis of the United Nations are comparatively monitored. Those nations deemed to be lagging behind are then provided with foreign aid and developmental assistance. For nearly seventy years India has sought its place in this global endeavour, yet even today abject poverty and backwardness can be observed in districts in almost every state, with the highest concentration of such districts found in the state of Bihar and a cultural enclave known as Mithila. Development in India has been elusive because it is difficult to define and because the Western concepts of development and progress have no absolute equivalents within many non-Western settings. As a consequence, development programmes often fail because they are unable to ask the right questions, but equally important is the political economy derived from foreign aid. For politicians, there is no long-term benefit to be derived from successful development. In general, foreign aid only serves to corrupt governments and politicians, and in the end does very little for those who need help. The struggling states of Bihar and Mithila serve as extreme examples of India's problems. Development here has been thwarted by a hereditary landed aristocracy supported by religion, casteism, custom, social stratification, tradition and patterns of behaviour that can be traced back millennia. In turn, all these have been masterfully manipulated by co-opted politicians who have turned politics into a veritable art form, as this volume comprehensively demonstrates.

Obama on the Home Front John D. Graham, 2016-08-08 The best comprehensive review of the Obama administration's policies available by the author of Bush on the Home Front. Daniel P. Franklin, author of Pitiful Giants: Presidents in their Final Term. Barack Obama came into office as the economy was careening into the worst downturn since the Great Depression. On the political front, he would be challenged by the same intense congressional polarization faced by Bill Clinton and George W. Bush, now exacerbated by the rise of the Tea Party movement. In this comprehensive assessment of domestic policymaking, John D. Graham considers what we may learn from the Obama presidency about how presidents can best implement their agendas when Congress is evenly divided. What did Obama pledge to do in domestic policy and what did he actually accomplish Why did some initiatives succeed and others fail Did Obama's policies contribute to the losses experienced by the Democratic Party in 2010 and 2014 In carefully documented case studies of economic policy health care reform energy and environmental policy and immigration reform Graham asks whether Obama was effective at accomplishing his agenda Counterfactuals are analyzed to suggest ways that Obama might have been even more effective than he was and at less political cost to his party As with the author's acclaimed Bush on the Home Front this book elaborates and applies a theory of presidential effectiveness in a polarized political environment

Empires of Sustainability Joseph Murphy, 2024-06-07 Focussing on the greening of imperialisms and empires Empires of Sustainability analyses the shift around the world from denial of the environmental crisis to action to prevent catastrophe and the resulting implications Evidence of this shift is clear in widespread and purposeful social change which is gathering momentum The book explains how globalisation accelerated us towards the crisis and today even as its own legitimacy is being questioned is evolving through solutions and responses to it Looking ahead and as the environmental crisis worsens two possible futures are discerned and explored One is that through universal actions to save the planet shaped by interweaving political and economic forces the hegemony of globalisation is restored albeit in a green form The other is that the world reorganises into competing spheres of influence with politics economics and the environment interwoven differently in each case In these ways we face the prospect of one or more Empires of Sustainability emerging over the decades ahead unless we build a better alternative society The author presents an alternative a more diverse World of Caring Places This accessible book will appeal to students and scholars of international political economy sustainability and environmental studies and analysts policy makers campaigners and others concerned about the future of relations between people and planet

Achieving sustainable management of tropical forests Professor Jürgen Blaser, Mr Patrick D. Hardcastle, 2020-10-27 Explores the broader economic political and environmental context in which management of tropical forests needs to operate Particular focus on management structures and techniques to achieve sustainable forest management SFM on the ground Includes case studies of practical experience of managing tropical forests in South America West Africa and Southeast Asia The Mining Journal, Railway and Commercial Gazette, 1907

External Powers and the Gulf Monarchies Jonathan Fulton, Li-Chen Sim, 2018-09-03 The Gulf monarchies have been generally perceived as status quo actors reliant on the USA for their security but in response to regional events particularly the Arab Spring of 2011 they are pursuing more activist foreign policies which has allowed other international powers to play a larger role in regional affairs This book analyses the changing dynamic in this region with expert contributors providing original empirical case studies that examine the relations between the Gulf monarchies and extra regional powers including the USA Russia China India Brazil Turkey Japan South Korea France and the United Kingdom At the theoretical level these case studies explore the extent to which different international relations and international political economy theories explain change in these relationships as the regional political and security environment shifts Focusing on how and why external powers approach their relationships with the Gulf monarchies contributors ask what motivates external powers to pursue deeper involvement in an unstable region that has seen three major conflicts in the past 40 years Addressing an under analysed yet important topic the volume will appeal to scholars in the fields of international relations and international political economy as well as area specialists on the Gulf and those working on the foreign policy issues of the extra regional powers studied Health Inequalities Katherine E. Smith, Clare Bambra, Sarah E. Hill, 2015-11-26 Informed by a wealth of available research between 1997 and 2010 the UK Labour government introduced a raft of policies to reduce health inequalities Despite this by most measures the UK's health inequalities have continued to widen This failure has prompted calls for new approaches to health inequalities research and some consensus that public health researchers ought to be more actively involved in public health advocacy Yet there is currently no agreement as to what these new research agendas should be and despite multiple commentaries reflecting on recent UK efforts to reduce health inequalities there has so far been little attempt to map future directions for research or to examine what more egalitarian policies means in practical terms Health Inequalities Critical Perspectives addresses these concerns It takes stock of the UK's experiences of health inequalities research and policy to date reflecting on the lessons that have been learnt from these experiences both within the UK and internationally The book identifies emergent research and policy topics exploring the perspectives of actors working in a range of professional settings on these agendas Finally the book considers potential ways of improving the links between health inequalities research policy and practice including via advocacy With contributions from established international health inequalities experts and newer up and coming researchers in the field as well as individuals working on health inequalities in policy practice and civil society settings Health Inequalities Critical Perspectives is a must buy for researchers postgraduate students policymakers practitioners and research funders

Federal Register, 2013-11

Kenya and the Politics of a Postcolony Wanjala S. Nasong'o, 2024-08-06 This book sets out to probe explore and evaluate the betrayal of anticolonial nationalism in Kenya Contemporary Kenya's emergence is rooted in the colonial enterprise its deleterious effects and the subsequent decolonization spearheaded by a fierce anti colonial nationalism that was embodied in freedom struggles at the cultural political and military levels As a settler colony the colonial settlers hived off millions of hectares of the best land in the highland areas of Kenya and appropriated them for themselves thereby generating a large mass of the landless This land alienation constituted one of the most deeply felt grievances which together with the exclusivist exploitative and oppressive colonial system inflamed anti colonial nationalism that undergirded the struggle for independence The expectation on the part of the masses was that independence would bring about social justice restitution of the stolen lands and a government based on the will and aspirations of the governed Political developments soon after independence however demonstrated the extent of betrayal of the cause of anti colonial nationalism which has remained the reality to date This book covers the extent of this sense of betrayal from the time of independence to the present It begins by locating contemporary Kenya within the colonial context then proceeds to thematic issues of betrayal including the fall out between President Kenyatta and Vice President Odinga over ideology and issues of development which constituted the first betrayal the scourge of bureaucratic corruption and rent seeking the question of land and associated historical injustices and electoral malpractice since the return of multiparty politics in 1992 to the most recent elections of 2022 The implications of these dynamics for the future of the Kenyan polity are delineated and discussed
