Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1895 Understanding Bible by Design G. Brooke Lester, 2014-11-01 Today's seminary and religious education instructors are expected to design and redesign their courses more nimbly than in the past. We have to adapt our courses to novel learning environments for more diverse learners toward more diverse vocations. At the same time, institutional rewards for time invested in course design are fewer than ever. Understanding Bible by Design introduces the reader to Understanding by Design, an approach to course design that is proven, time efficient, and grounded in the instructor's most closely held convictions about her subject matter's big ideas and essential questions. This book's contributors, one in Old Testament, one in New Testament, and one in Jewish Studies, demonstrate the value of Understanding Bible by Design for the Biblical Studies instructor, whether at seminary or university, face to face or online, from the intimate seminar to the massive MOOC. Lester's synopsis of course design and suggested action is followed by a collaborative dialogue with Jane S. Webster and Christopher M. Jones. Webster and Jones provide practical commentary regarding the successful implementation of Lester's proposed approaches. As a group, Lester, Webster, and Jones create a text that extends pedagogical innovation in inspiring but practical ways. Essays in Humanistic Mathematics Alvin Murray White, 1993 Jsl Vol 14-N1 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 2004-01-20 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts. We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations. The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors, authors from traditionally marginalized populations, and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world. Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice. Teach courses on school leadership and policy; use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement. Reason and Nature Morris R. Cohen, 2018-12-14 First published in 1931, this volume represents the culmination of twenty years of the study on the principles of science. Noticing a widespread craving for philosophical light at a time of scant such offerings, Morris R. Cohen aimed to demonstrate here the fundamental and ancient connection between nature and science, between hearts and minds, in an attempt to salve the developing mutual hostility between the two. In the 1920s, the volume bears particular relation to George Santayana's Life of Reason and Bertrand Russell's Principles of Mathematics and explores areas including the character of the insurgence against reason and reason in the contexts of the natural and social sciences. Love Strong as Death Ronald Walls, 2000 Love Strong as Death is a fascinating account of a life dedicated to love. Ronald Walls is a Scotsman born in Edinburgh. He spent his early adult life as a minister in the Presbyterian Church of Scotland. In 1948, with his wife and three sons, he converted to the Catholic Church and faced both personal and job crises for this unpopular decision. After his wife's tragic death in 1974, he worked through his grief to find himself called to the priesthood His autobiography relates the long journey of this burning desire for truth his happiness in ministry and marriage his thoughts on the conflict between the two and the love that led him to run the risk of losing everything Educational Times ,1887 Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain.
