Alleyne,2017-11-13 This book provides a diagnosis of the central economic and financial challenges facing Caribbean policymakers and offers broad policy recommendations for promoting a sustained and inclusive increase in economic well being The analysis highlights the need for Caribbean economies to make a concerted effort to break the feedback loops between weak macroeconomic fundamentals notably pertaining to fiscal positions and financial sector strains and structural impediments such as high electricity costs limited financial deepening violent crime and brain drain which have depressed private investment and growth A recurring theme in the book is the need for greater regional coordination in finding solutions to address the Caribbean s shared and intertwined macroeconomic and structural challenges The analysis suggests that strengthening regional and global market integration of Caribbean economies would provide an impetus to sustained growth in incomes and jobs Greater regional and global economic integration would also facilitate structural transformation and a shift toward new economic activities resulting in more diversified and less vulnerable economies A central challenge for the Caribbean is thus to come together as a region overcome the limitations posed by size and garner the benefits of globalization Efforts should build on existing regional arrangements accelerating progress in implementing these agreements would stimulate trade Policymakers could also promote deeper integration with Latin America and the rest of the world by pursuing new trade agreements leveraging current agreements more effectively or deepening them to include areas beyond traditional trade issues and developing port and transport infrastructure

The Global Market for Investor Citizenship

Jelena Džankić,2019-05-10 This book presents a systematic study of the history theory and policy of investor citizenship and residence programmes It explores how states develop new rules of joining their community in response to globalisation and highlights the tension between citizenship policies aimed at migrant integration and those such as the sale of passports which create long distance citizens Individual chapters offer insights in the historical relationship between citizenship money and property discuss arguments that support and counter the practice of the sale of citizenship and examine the interests and strategies of the different actors states companies individuals that constitute the supply and demand sides of the burgeoning citizenship industry The book provides a global overview of the market for investor citizenship as well as a separate policy analysis of the sale of citizenship and residence in the European Union
