Handbooks for Language Teachers Edward de Chazal,2014-04-10 Gives an up to date overview of the research into English for Academic Purposes and discusses key concepts Becoming a Reading Teacher Jane Spiro,Amos

Paran,2023-04-10 This book encourages readers to think about reading not only as an encounter with written language but as a lifelong habit of engagement with ideas We look at reading in four different ways as linguistic process personal experience collective experience and as classroom practice We think about how reading influences a life how it changes over time how we might return at different stages of life to the same reading how we might respond differently to ideas read in an L1 and L2 There are 44 teaching activities all founded on research that explores the nature value and impact of reading as an authentic activity rather than for language or study purposes alone We consider what this means for schools and classrooms and for different kinds of learners The final part of the book provides practical stepping stones for the teacher to become a researcher of their own classes and learners The four parts of the book offer a virtuous join between reading teaching and researching It will be useful for any teacher or reader who wishes to refresh their view of how reading fits in to the development of language and the development of a reading life The Future of Teaching English for Academic Purposes

Tijen Akşit,Hande Işıl Işık,2020-12-01 As a result of current global and international forces teaching English for academic purposes EAP is going through the most dynamic period in its rather short history The internationalization of higher education English further solidifying its role as the lingua franca every single day and the increasing number of higher education institutions around the globe opting for instruction in the medium of English EMI are all contributing forces behind this book The text disentangles the conflicting views and beliefs regarding the standards provision and practices of EAP Across its chapters it closely looks at the world of EAP through the lenses of academic practice learners curriculum development program implementation and teaching and assessment practices This book will guide all stakeholders of EAP settings to better understand ways in which research and teaching interact and inform each other from a number of vital and relevant perspectives

Educational Reciprocity and Adaptivity Abe Ata, Ly Tran, Indika Liyanage, 2017-12-22

Educational Reciprocity and Adaptability challenges the common belief that adapting to new educational settings is the responsibility of international students alone The book argues that reciprocal responses are required by students and stakeholders alike for an efficient and equitable accommodation of international students in educational settings Considering how international students negotiate academic challenges and social tensions it presents both theoretical frameworks and practical tools to work around the tension regarding ethical academic practices Crucially exploring these issues across a range of geographical and institutional contexts and therefore offering critical insights into significant developments in international education across the world the much needed research in this edited collection explores institutional educational policies regarding international students and stakeholders institutional practices and how they are received educational adaptability and responses from different stakeholders the experiences of international students and institutions in negotiating academic and social tensions This important contribution to research on the experiences of international students in different geographical and educational contexts is of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of international education comparative education sociology of education youth studies intercultural studies migration studies and TESOL
