Joseph Of Copertino:

St. Joseph of Copertino Rev. Fr. Angelo Pastrovicchi, 1994-06 An incredible Franciscan saint 1603 1663 most famous for his miracles levitations and severe penances He spoke with animals and could smell the stench of sin in penitents The devil said of him Friar Joseph is the worst foe we have      St. Joseph of Copertino Angelo Pastrovicchi, Rev Angelo Pastrovicchi Omc, 2013-10 Some persons derive most benefit from reading the Lives of the Saints in which the supernatural and the extraordinary abound They delight to see the wonderful display of the power of Divine grace in so frail a creature as man These biographies that are written more for our admiration than for our imitation strengthen our faith in the supernatural and inspire us with a great confidence in the goodness and power of God And certainly in these days we need to stimulate and strengthen the life of faith and trust in Providence The rapturous flights of St Joseph of Copertino have hardly a parallel as to frequency and duration in the lives of the saints What is related of Christina Mirabilis who lived 1150 1224 has been suspected of exaggeration but our saint having lived in more recent times this his miraculous characteristic could easily be established in an authentic manner Father Pastrovicchi wrote his life of St Joseph on the occasion of the beatification of the saint 1753 Pope Benedict XIV to whom the work is dedicated wished that for each fact related the episcopal and apostolic processes should be cited This was done Father Suyskens remarks that the caution of citing the official documents was well employed Since the words of the Psalmist God is wonderful in His saints Ps 67 36 were verified in a singular manner in the life of St Joseph it was fitting that the extraordinary facts of his life should be attested in such a manner that credence could not be denied them Father Gattari regards these miracles as wrought in support of the doctrine of the Real Presence the authority of the Pope sacramental Confession and the veneration due to saints truths which in the time of the saint were impugned by the followers of Luther and other heretics The fame of the flights of St Joseph spread throughout Europe and led to conversions as in the case of the Duke of Brunswick Another explanation offered is that these miracles counteracted the diabolical arts witchcraft and necromancy especially in the kingdom of Naples and superstition then prevalent To a degree our biography is a panegyric with its drawbacks of generalization and superlatives but it is by no means a dreary inventory of virtues and miracles Some of the narratives as in Chapter VI and IX are very charming invested with all that tender simplicity and charm which voiced itself in the poetic narratives of the Fioretti This first extensive biography of St Joseph of Copertino in English was made from Sintzel s German translation of Fr Pastrovicchi s Life of the saint Only after years was it possible to procure the Italian original and verify the rendering In the editions of Pastrovicchi of 1753 and 1767 the text is not divided into chapters these thirty in all are indicated by Roman numerals at the beginning of paragraphs the chapter titles and the references to the Acts are printed in the margin The division of the text and the chapter titles in the present work are new The original marginal titles are preserved in part as sub titles in the Table of Contents The numerous references to the Acts in the original have been omitted likewise in the interest of delicacy or conciseness several passages in the body of the work Details of the canonization sanctuary etc have been added Other small additions have been made throughout the work dates and names have been inserted and obscure passages made clear The editions used for these changes are marked in the bibliographical list Saint Joseph is also known as Saint Joseph of Cupertino St. Joseph of Copertino: Englished and Adapted by the Rev. Francis S. Laing Angelo Pastrovicchi, Francis S. Laing, 2020-01-27 Also known as Joseph of Cupertino this is a biography of the flying saint known for his mysticism his ability to levitate and bilocate He is the patron saint of students examinations aviation astronauts and mental handicaps Originally written in Italian it is Englished and adapted by the Rev Francis S Laing This book goes through his birth life and death and ends with the miracles that occurred which aided his canonization His feast day is on the 18th of September Joseph of Copertino Paolo Agelli, Christopher Costanzo, 2014-11-14 A biography of Joseph of Copertino Cupertino famous as the monk who could fly It was written by Brother Paolo Antonio Agelli and published in 1753 the year of Joseph s beatification but several years before his canonization in 1767 It was translated into English in 2014 by Christopher David Costanzo This biography describes Joseph of Copertino with vivid frankness including his childhood his relationship with his mother his physical and mental shortcomings his humiliation at the hands of family and acquaintances and his later asceticism and self mortification It is clear that Joseph of Copertino came across to many people as a simpleton slow of wit and clumsy in manner given to fits and seizures for which he endured contempt and ridicule through many of his formative years The narrative catalogs his ascetic practices as well as the miracles and prodigies attributed to him including his alleged flights through the air that astonished many credible witnesses of his day The story of Joseph should be of interest not only to the religiously devout but also to psychologists physiologists neurologists and medical diagnosticians Despite the cold scientific possibilities regarding the bodily and mental state of Joseph of Copertino his character shines forth unmistakably through the hagiographic language of this book The reader whether or not religious will get the definite impression of being in touch with an exceptional personality St. Joseph of Copertino Angelo Pastrovicchi, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1918 edition Excerpt CHAPTER V GOOD ODOR OF CHRIST II COR 2 15 These ecstasies and flights were no doubt effects of the divine love which burned in the heart of our saint and evidenced the union of his soul with God Father Jerome Rodriguez a pious and learned priest of the Society of Jesus once said after conversing with Joseph He is perfectly united to God and his heart is more disposed to this union than powder is to be ignited by the smallest spark This union was fostered by and found expression in continued prayer almost without effort the saint raised his spirit to God whom he found ready to enlighten and inflame him and to draw him towards Himself It was as if in looking towards heaven he saw the beauty of paradise spread out before his eyes as he once said to Cardinal Brancati speaking as of a third person It appeared to him as if he were in the midst of a large gallery filled with beautiful and rare objects and saw in a bright mirror hanging there at a single glance the forms of all things and could with certainty pronounce the hidden mysteries which it pleased God to reveal to him while this sublime union lasted His customary cry was an effect of the inner fire which could not be confined to his breast but forcibly broke forth from his lips as he himself said though again as of a third person like to powder proceeding from the cannon's mouth causing a loud report This great vehemence often raised with the soul the body and any object he happened to have hold of He even sang and danced during these joyful ecstasies By reason of his abstraction from earthly things the saint often did not understand what others said to him or gave answers which plainly showed that he used natural things only as a ladder to mount

The Man Who Could Fly Michael Grosso, 2015-12-14 St Joseph of Copertino began having mystical visions at the age of seven but it was not until he began practicing his faith as a Franciscan priest that he realized the full potential of his mind's power over his body he was able to levitate Throughout his priesthood St Joseph became famous for frequent levitations that were observed on hundreds of occasions and by thousands of witnesses including many skeptics Michael Grosso delves into the biography of the saint to explore the many strange phenomena that surrounded his life and develops potential physical explanations for some of the most astounding manifestations of his religious ecstasy Grosso draws upon contemporary explorations into cognition the relationship between the human mind and body and the scientifically recorded effects of meditation and other transcendent practices to reveal the implications of St Joseph's experiences and abilities credible sources can lead us to wonder whether the world is more mysterious than the predictable order we have taken for granted This book considers what it would mean for Christians to accept that the natural order has hidden depths that can produce strange phenomena How might it affect our understanding of such things as divine guidance or petitionary prayer or extraordinary healings How would we think about God s action in the world if our understanding of the created order allowed more room for mystery     The Publishers Weekly ,1918
