Journal Intime Roman:

On Diary Philippe Lejeune, 2009-04-30 On Diary is the second collection in English of the groundbreaking and profoundly influential work of one of the best known and provocative theorists of autobiography and diary. Ranging from the diary's historical origins to its pervasive presence on the Internet from the spiritual journey of the sixteenth century to the diary of Anne Frank and from the materials and methods of diary writing to the question of how diaries end, these essays display Philippe Lejeune's expertise, eloquence, passion, and humor as a commentator on the functions, practices, and significance of keeping or reading a diary. Lejeune is a leading European critic and theorist of diary and autobiography. His landmark essay The Autobiographical Pact has shaped life writing studies for more than thirty years, and his many books and essays have repeatedly opened up new vistas for scholarship. As Michael Riffaterre notes, Lejeune's work on autobiography is the most original, powerful, effective approach to a difficult subject. His style is very personal, lively. It grabs the reader as scholarship rarely does. Lejeune's erudition and methodology are impeccable. Two substantial introductory essays by Jeremy Popkin and Julie Rak place Lejeune's work within its critical and theoretical traditions and comment on his central importance within the fields of life writing, literary genetic studies, and cultural studies.

Journal intime Nathalie Rheims, 2007 Un homme tient un journal intime qu'une femme tente d'envahir en mettant en oeuvre une stratégie pour en devenir l'objet. Lorsque je n'cris pas, il ne m'arrive rien. Lorsque j'cris, tu surgis, mais comment t'emporter, te saisir, te garder, toi qui t'en vas toujours. Chaque jour recommencer et tout deviendra possible. Tu prends corps par ces mots. Je t'absorbe dans mes feuilles. Je te parle un langage qui m'est réservé et qui ne peut inscrire ton nom, moi seule le connais.

The Mother in/and French Literature, 2021-11-22 The essays in this volume investigate maternity and the figure of the mother in French literature from France, Switzerland, Quebec, and Africa from the seventeenth century to the present. Drawing on cultural history, psychoanalysis, and feminist theory, as well as more traditional methods, they present maternity as a source of frustration and of joy, mothers as repressed and revered, daughters as wounded and loving, sons as domineering and dependent. Indeed, few things are simple where mothers and especially where writing about mothers are concerned.

Journal intime Chuck Palahniuk, 2005 Misty Wilmot est une femme frustrée, coincée sur une île figurée par l'invasion touristique. Elle travaille comme une esclave dans le grand hôtel du coin pour faire vivre sa famille. Son mari Peter, un architecte, qu'elle a rencontré des années plus tôt dans une école d'art, a tenté de se suicider et se retrouve dans le coma. Plus rien ne tourne rond dans la vie de Misty. Pourquoi Peter, avant de vouloir en finir, s'est-il amusé à sceller certaines pièces des villas touristiques sur lesquelles il travaillait? Comment expliquer les messages haineux qu'il a bombés sur les murs annonçant la vengeance des habitants de l'île contre les envahisseurs extérieurs? Pourquoi les autochtones se mettent-ils à la regarder bizarrement? Misty décide de mettre ses peurs noires sur blanc et d'écrire un journal intime. Mais attention, la folie guette. Au fil du temps et de ses livres, les interrogations de Palahniuk se font plus complexes.

Diaries Real and Fictional in Twentieth-Century French Writing Sam Ferguson, 2018-03-09 This volume is the first study of the diary in French writing across the twentieth century as a genre which includes both fictional and non fictional works From the 1880s it became apparent to writers in France that their diaries a supposedly private form of writing would probably come to be published strongly affecting the way their readers viewed their other published works and their very persona as an author More than any other Andr Gide embraced the literary potential of the diary the first part of this book follows his experimentation with the diary in the fictional works Les Cahiers d Andr Walter 1891 and Paludes 1895 in his diary of the composition of his great novel Le Journal des faux monnayeurs 1926 and in his monumental Journal 1889 1939 1939 The second part follows developments in diary writing after the Second World War inflected by radical changes in attitudes towards the writing subject Raymond Queneau s works published under the pseudonym of Sally Mara 1947 1962 used the diary playfully at a time when the writing subject was condemned by the literary avant garde Roland Barthes s experiments with the diary 1977 1979 took it to the extremes of its formal possibilities at the point of a return of the writing subject Annie Ernaux s published diaries 1993 2011 demonstrate the role of the diary in the modern field of life writing Throughout the century the diary has repeatedly been used to construct an oeuvre and author but also to call these fundamental literary concepts into question

Deliberations: The Journals of Roland Barthes Neil Badmington,2018-11-08 I ve never kept a journal Roland Barthes declared in 1979 or rather I ve never known if I should keep one The form itself he continued was inferior and unnecessary a minor mania of writing Barthes died months making this statement and the years since then have revealed that he had actually been concealing a fondness for diary writing The publication in 1985 of Incidents brought to light an intimate journal entitled Soir es de Paris while 2009 saw the appearance of two much longer diaries kept by Barthes following the death of his mother in 1977 and during a trip to China in 1974 respectively Further journals lie in the archive unpublished and largely unseen it is not clear if these will ever enter the public domain This collection which brings together some of the most prominent scholars in the field considers the present implications of Roland Barthes journals How do these diaries invite us to reconsider aspects of Barthes work which have become familiar through his reception as one of the twentieth century s most influential literary and cultural critics What do they allow us to see for the first time What is their relation to the works whose appearance Barthes authorised during his lifetime Where and how do they fit in his oeuvre How do they relate to each other across moment and mood Why might they call for deliberations This book was originally published as a special issue of Textual Practice

Le Corps dans le roman des écrivaines syriennes contemporaines Martina Censi,2016-05-02 Le Corps dans le roman des crivaines syriennes contemporaines de Martina Censi explore les repr sentations du corps dans un corpus de romans en arabe publi s entre 2004 et 2011 par six crivaines syriennes L auteure conjugue l analyse du texte litt raire avec la critique f ministe et les tudes de genre Par cette approche interdisciplinaire Censi d montre que l attention reserv e par ces crivaines aux repr sentations du corps f minin et masculin t moigne de leurs engagements dans la lutte pour l mancipation des femmes mais aussi et surtout dans celle pour l affirmation de l individu dans la soci t syrienne contemporaine Les corps des personnages marqu s par leur diff rence unique sont le lieu symbolique de la n gociation entre les instances individuelles et collectives In Le Corps dans le roman des crivaines syriennes contemporaines Martina Censi explores the representation of the body in a selection of Arabic novels published between 2004 and 2011 by six Syrian women authors Taking an interdisciplinary approach which combines analysis of the literary texts with Feminist Criticism and Gender Studies Censi demonstrates that by focusing on the representation of female and male bodies these novelists deal not only with feminist issues related to women's emancipation The author reveals that they also engage in a broader analysis concerning the status of the individual in contemporary Syrian society Marked by their unique difference the characters' bodies become the symbolic location for the negotiation between individual and collective claims

Archaeologies of an Uncertain Future Karen McPherson, 2006-12-15 An apocalyptic vision of planetary self destruction provided the context for many late twentieth century narratives Women writers from Quebec and English Canada including Margaret Atwood Madeleine Ouellette Michalska Madeleine Gagnon Betsy Warland Marie Claire Blais and Nicole Brossard redefined their relationship to time and narrative in order to tell a different perhaps more hopeful story Using archaeology as a trope and a methodology Karen McPherson's critical excavations of these women's writings pose questions about loss and mourning survival and witnessing devastation and writing remembering and imagining Degenerative Realism Christy Wampole, 2020-06-23 A new strain of realism has emerged in France The novels that embody it represent diverse fears immigration and demographic change radical Islam feminism new technologies globalization American capitalism and the European Union but these books often best sellers share crucial affinities In their dystopian visions the collapse of France Europe and Western civilization is portrayed as all but certain and the literary mode of realism begins to break down Above all they depict a degenerative force whose effects on the nation and on reality itself can be felt Examining key novels by Michel Houellebecq Frédéric Beigbeder Aurélien Bellanger Yann Moix and other French writers Christy Wampole identifies and critiques this emergent tendency toward degenerative realism She considers the ways these writers draw on social science the New Journalism of the 1960s political pamphlets reportage and social media to construct an atmosphere of disintegration and decline Wampole maps how degenerative realist novels explore a world contaminated by conspiracy theories mysticism and misinformation responding to the internet age's confusion between fact and fiction with a lament for the loss of the real and an unrelenting emphasis on the role of the media in crafting reality In a time of widespread populist anxieties over the perceived decline of the French nation this book diagnoses the literary symptoms of today's reactionary revival Hindsight and Insight William F. Edmiston, 2010-11 William F Edmiston revises current theories of what narratologists call focalization and applies his revised theory to four eighteenth century French memoir novels Hindsight and Insight contributes to our knowledge of the history and evolution of the novel by demonstrating that France's earliest novelists were already engaged in the kinds of narrative experimentation that are usually associated with modern writers It presents an analysis of the narrative point of view in both its theoretical aspects and its practical applications Edmiston exposes the inadequacies of current concepts of focalization and proposes a revised concept that is applicable to personal narration one that can accommodate all the focal possibilities available to the first person narrator He applies this concept to four French memoir novels Les Égarés du cœur et de l'esprit by Marivaux Manon Lescaut by Prévost and La Religieuse by Diderot Each of these well known novels offers a different case study and raises specific theoretical questions of selective focalization forms of reported speech problems of temporal ambiguity manipulation of the reader narratorial reliability and cognitive privilege Edmiston's study proposes a reading of the novels that resolves certain problems of interpretation raised by other recent studies

Pierre Loti and the Theatricality of Desire Peter James Turberfield, 2008 Pierre Loti and the Theatricality of Desire offers an original analysis of patterns of unconscious desire observable in the life and work of the French orientalist writer Pierre Loti It aims to reconcile attitudes and conduct that have been regarded as contradictory and not amenable to analysis by locating the unconscious urges that motivate them It looks at the ambiguous feelings Loti expresses towards his mother the conflicting desires inherent in his bisexuality and his deeply ambiguous sense of a cultural identity as expressed through his cross cultural transvestism The political implications of this reappraisal are also considered offering a potential reassessment of the apparently exploitative nature of much of Loti's writing This new reading in terms of the unconscious not only serves as a way of understanding inconsistencies but also suggests how such new interpretations can offer an alternative way of viewing the hierarchies of power his work portrays on both a sexual and political level This volume is consequently of interest to those interested in gender studies and sexual politics and offers a way of appreciating writing that might otherwise appear dated and embarrassingly sexist and colonialist in content to twenty first century readers

Raymond

Queneau's Dubliners James Patrick Gosling, 2019-09-12 This work is a broad ranging exploration of two comic erotic and well nigh feminist novels written by Raymond Queneau On est toujours trop bon avec les femmes 1947 and Journal intime 1950 Both are set in Ireland were initially published by Editions du Scorpion under the pseudonym Sally Mara and then later published together by Gallimard as Les uvres completes de Sally Mara 1962 The book examines Queneau's life when he wrote these texts the pervasive Joycean influences his surreal version of the 1916 Dublin Uprising versus the real event his remarkably accurate Dublin city and his use of the Irish language The seven core chapters are explorations of prominent aspects of these works and most involve the solution of puzzles by means of investigations of contexts contemporary events and a wide variety of sources In conclusion the book makes a convincing case for the literary and entertainment value of Les uvres completes de Sally Mara as a long planned and subtly integrated work Hervé Guibert Jean-Pierre Boulé, 1999-01-01 This is the first full length study to cover the complete texts of Hervé Guibert 1955 1991 offering a thorough documentation of his literary output The book is guided by Guibert's relation to the novel a major line of enquiry throughout as well as his experimentation with voices in particular One of Guibert's main contentions is that Guibert arrives at the creation of a new literary genre the roman faux with the publication of his best known work To the Friend who did not save my life The book ends by considering the works Guibert produced after he was diagnosed as HIV positive within the parameter of the voices of the self
