

UCI UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH JOURNAL PAPER SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The UCI Undergraduate Research Journal welcomes the submission of manuscripts from all academic disciplines. It is expected that submissions to the Journal will be structured according to the established literary conventions of the discipline researched, and that manuscripts will be organized/sectioned in a manner that maximizes both the substance and clarity of the document.

There is no preset number of papers that will be accepted for publication in the Journal. All papers that meet our standard of excellence, regardless of how many there are and what disciplines they are from, will be published. If no submitted papers are judged to be worthy of publication, the Journal will not be published.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Regardless of the field of study, all papers published in the Journal have these items in common:

- The purpose and significance of the research is described clearly for the Journal's multidisciplinary audience.
- The research is original and relevant to its field.
- The research project was well designed and executed.
- The results are thoughtfully interpreted and thoroughly analyzed.
- Conclusions are logically supported through results and cited sources.
- Supporting materials—including illustrations, graphs, and references—reinforce the descriptions and claims made in the text.
- The paper is well written, efficiently organized, and easy to follow.
- The paper is free from spelling, punctuation, grammatical, and other writing errors.

Journal Submission Deadline

Journal Of Business Research Submission Guidelines:

The Researcher's Journey Klaus Solberg Söilen, 2025-07-01 Navigating the academic ecosystem involves a variety of challenges that extend beyond the application of research methods. These challenges include understanding the university structure, academic conferences, publication strategy, securing research funding, and how modern technologies like artificial intelligence have changed the very purpose of researchers. Written in an engaging and accessible tone, this book guides advanced and early career researchers through the real world challenges that face academics in the social sciences. The book is divided into three parts. The first gives a brief history of the scientific method and social science research processes; the second critically addresses the current state of research methods in the social sciences; and the third discusses implications for ethics in light of scientific and technological advances.

Essentials of Business Research Jonathan Wilson, 2014-01-20 Written specifically for business students, this best-selling jargon-free textbook highlights each stage of the research process, guiding the reader through actionable steps and explicitly setting out how best to meet a supervisor's expectations. Easy to navigate and full of practical advice, it shows you how to choose a topic and write a proposal with easy-to-follow tips and detailed screenshots and diagrams. Key student features include: You're the Supervisor sections that help students to meet learning objectives; Common questions and answers; real world advice on how to tackle common challenges; Examples from different types of international businesses; Detailed guidance on software packages such as SPSS; Student case studies; Annotated further reading; Accompanied by a fully integrated companion website designed to support learning. Free to access, it includes author podcasts, guides to online tools, links to downloadable journal articles, examples of completed projects, PowerPoint slides, and students' multiple choice questions to test progress. A must-have title for all business and management students, this is the ideal companion for achieving success in your research project.

Field Guide to Family Business Research Keith H. Brigham, G. T. Payne, 2023-07-01 The Field Guide to Family Business Research is a concise and accessible guidebook that addresses the unique challenges associated with conducting high-quality family business research. Intended for both new and more experienced scholars, experts provide essential guidelines and insightful best practices for overcoming these challenges.

Journal of Business Research, 1988 Citation Classics from the Journal of Business Ethics Alex C. Michalos, Deborah C. Poff, 2012-08-01 The Journal of Business Ethics was founded by Alex C. Michalos and Deborah C. Poff and published its first issue in March 1982. It is the most frequently cited business ethics journal in the world. The Journal has always offered a multi-disciplinary and international public forum for the discussion of issues concerning the interaction of successful business and moral virtue. Its authors and readers are primarily scholars and students in social sciences and philosophy with special interests in the interaction of these disciplines with business or corporate responsibility. Since the field of business ethics grew simultaneously with the growth of the Journal, a collection of its most cited articles is tantamount to a collection of the articles that had the greatest influence in defining the field over its first 30 years of development. In this anniversary volume an overview of citation classics from the Journal is presented the 33 most frequently cited articles are reproduced and brief reflections on the impact of the Journal on the field are given from over 100 scholars who authored citation classics and or distinguished papers as well as those who served on the Editorial Board and or are recognized as leaders in the field
