The Multilingual Jesus and the Sociolinguistic World of the New Testament Hughson T. Ong, 2015-10-05 In The Multilingual Jesus and the Sociolinguistic World of the New Testament Hughson Ong provides a study of the multifarious social and linguistic dynamics that compose the speech community of ancient Palestine which include its historical linguistic shifts under different military regimes its geographical linguistic landscape the social functions of the languages in its linguistic repertoire and the specific types of social contexts where those languages were used Using a sociolinguistic model his study attempts to paint a portrait of the sociolinguistic situation of ancient Palestine This book is arguably the most comprehensive treatment of the subject matter to date in terms of its survey of the secondary literature and of its analysis of the sociolinguistic environment of first century Palestine Matthew Samson L. Uytanlet, Kiem-Kiok Kwa, 2017-05-14 The Asia Bible Commentary series empowers Christian believers in Asia to read the Bible from within their respective contexts Holistic in its approach to the text each exposition of the biblical books combines exegesis and application The ultimate goal is to strengthen the Body of Christ in Asia by providing pastoral and contextual exposition of every book of the Bible The Great Commission is yet to be fulfilled Asian churches like Matthew's original audience are encountering various challenges as they obey Jesus' last command in the First Gospel The promise of the presence of God accompanies Jesus' command and in Matthew's narrative God's presence is seen powerfully in Jesus' life Believers today can hold to the same promise and this promise should be an encouragement to continue preaching God's kingdom Paul and the Gospels Michael F. Bird, Joel Willitts, 2013-05-01 This volume which collects together the work of several established scholars attempts to situate the Apostle Paul the Pauline writings and the earliest Christian Gospels together in the context of early Christianity It addresses the issue of how the Christianity depicted in and represented by the individual Gospels relates to the vision of Christianity represented by Paul and the Pauline writings This raises such questions as to what extent did Paul influence the canonical and non canonical Gospels In what way are the Gospels' reactions to Paul and his legacy A comparison of the Gospels and Paul on topics such as Old Testament Law Gentile mission Christology and early church leadership structures represents a fruitful area of study While a number of volumes have appeared that attempt to assess the relationship between the historical Jesus and the Apostle Paul relatively few studies on Paul and the Gospels have been published This volume excellently fills this gap in New Testament Studies and makes a valuable contribution to studies on Christian Origins Pauline research and the Gospels Anatomy of the New Testament Robert A. Spivey, D. Moody Smith, Jr., C. Clifton Black, 2013-10-01 This broadly adopted textbook weaves literary and historical approaches to focus on the New Testament's structure and meaning

Scripture, Interpretation, or Authority? Thomas Kazen, 2013-11-15 In this study of motives and arguments in Jesus halakic conflicts Thomas Kazen suggests a way beyond the use of traditional criteria of authenticity Employing results from recent research on the development of halakah during the Second Temple period which outlines trajectories and areas of tension within and between various Jewish movements the author revisits the Synoptic conflict narratives about Sabbath observance purity rules and divorce practices Kazen disentangles theological motives from reasonable historical explanations and suggests relative dates and contexts for motives and arguments often ascribed to Jesus He questions interpretations which focus on unique authority and suggests that Jesus stance is better explained within the framework of prophetic criticism and a traditional Israelite understanding of Torah With this study he contributes as much to our understanding of halakic development during the Second Temple period as he does to our understanding of the historical Jesus and his relationship to contemporary movements

New Testament Theology and the Greek Language Stanley E. Porter, 2022-10-20 In this book Stanley E Porter offers a unique language based critique of New Testament theology by comparing it to the development of language study from the Enlightenment to the present Tracing the histories of two disciplines that are rarely considered together Porter shows how the study of New Testament theology has followed outmoded conceptual models from previous eras of intellectual discussion He reconceptualizes the study of New Testament theology via methods that are based upon the categories of modern linguistics and demonstrates how they have already been applied to New Testament Greek studies Porter also develops a workable linguistic model that can be applied to other areas of New Testament research Opening New Testament Greek linguistics to a wider audience his volume offers numerous examples of the productivity of this linguistic model especially in his chapter devoted to the case study of the Son of Man

Prayer as Divine Experience in 4 Ezra and John's Apocalypse David Seal, 2017-06-13 Do humans have a special capacity designed to foster experiences of God What role do specific bodily actions or emotions play in the cultivation of a divine experience Prayer as Divine Experience in 4 Ezra and John's Apocalypse Emotion Empathy and Engagement with God explores these questions in a systematic study of the emotions in two apocalyptic texts The book of 4 Ezra an ancient Jewish apocalypse and the book of Revelation an ancient Christian Apocalypse written by John are examined with a focus on the emotional language of the prayers and prayer preludes contained in this literature Both texts were composed in the first century of the Common Era a time when most people exposed to literature heard the content as it was recited The emotive language in these writings could potentially arouse similar emotions in the readers or hearers of these texts allowing the person to have access to the divine experiences which are described by the seer in 4 Ezra and are expressed by the angelic choir in John's Apocalypse Prior to examining the prayers Prayer as Divine Experience will describe the neurological processes that cause a person to mirror the emotions expressed by another individual thereby prompting an imitation of the experience that is perceived

Handbook on the Gospels (Handbooks on the New Testament) Benjamin L. Gladd, 2021-06-01 A leading New Testament scholar provides an easy to navigate resource for studying and understanding the Gospels Written with classroom utility and pastoral application in mind this accessibly written volume summarizes the content of each major section of the biblical text to help students pastors and laypeople quickly grasp the sense of particular passages The series modeled after Baker Academic's successful Old Testament Handbook series focuses primarily on the content of the biblical books without getting bogged down in historical critical questions or detailed verse by verse exegesis The book covers all four Gospels and explores each major passage showing how Jesus is the central figure of each plot It also unpacks how the Old Testament informs the Gospels

Sacra Pagina: Galatians Frank J. Matera, 2023-05-30 Paul's Letter to the Galatians has played a major role in the history of theology especially in the Church's teaching on grace faith and justification This commentary argues that Paul's doctrine of justification by faith is essentially social in nature and has important ecumenical implications for the Church today In its original setting Galatians established a foundation for the unity of Jewish and Gentile Christians all are justified by the faith of Jesus Christ In addition to illuminating the historical situation that led Paul to write his Letter to the Galatians this commentary pays careful attention to the rhetorical structure of this letter and its theological message The author provides a fresh translation of Galatians critical notes on each verse of the text and a careful commentary of the letter in light of Paul's theology Theories abound on the question of Galatians why it was written what it says and what the implications of that message are Yet few scholars have devoted themselves at length to this letter What sets this work apart is its extent and detail and its academic rather than popular intent

Changing the Goalpost of New Testament Textual Criticism Abidan Paul Shah, 2020-10-02 Before the 1960s the goal of New Testament Textual Criticism was singular to retrieve the original text of the New Testament Since then the goalpost has incrementally shifted away from the original text to retrieving any text or many texts of the NT. Some scholars have even concluded that the original text is hopelessly lost and cannot be retrieved with any confidence or accuracy. Other scholars have gone a step further to claim that the idea of an original text itself is a misconception that needs to be abandoned. If this new approach in NTTC is correct, then the authority of Scripture is weakened or no longer valid. It will be shown in this book that such is not the case. Furthermore, emphasis will be placed on the need to return to the traditional goalpost of NTTC, i.e. to retrieve the original text. Without a generally definitive text, the door will be left wide open to recreate any desired text of the NT. An unsettled original text will result in an unsettled biblical theology due to a lack of any authoritative and standard text. Consequently, it will lead to an unsettled Christian faith and practice.
