

THE BEWITCHED UMBRELLA

Charline and Pauline have taken up residence in the city of Chicoutimi for five years. Their quest for magic stones guides them towards the corridors of the university. This is where their paths cross, uniting their common passion. However, Charline, the shy of the two, struggles to form bonds with her peers. She often wanders the streets and woods alone, seeking refuge in nature to escape the pressures of life.

That day, she heads towards the forest behind her house, in pouring rain and a furious wind. But nothing can distract her from her quest for stones. As she walks, she sees an umbrella in excellent condition, abandoned to its fate. Without hesitation, she grabs it and feels her body twist in every direction. Then she faints.

Three hours later, she regained consciousness outside her home, with no memory of what happened. Her friend, Pauline, worried, questioned her about her disappearance. But Charline is unable to answer, still in shock. She tries to explain to Pauline what happened, but Pauline doesn't believe her. An umbrella? A body that twists? Where had she been? The tension between the two friends grows, frustrated by Charline's confused explanations.

Determined to wash the mud off her clothes, Charline undresses and heads to the shower, leaving the umbrella behind her. But, coming out of the shower, she finds him in the bathroom. She takes precautions by wrapping herself in the towel. However, upon touching him, she faints again.

When she regains consciousness, Charline realizes that she has returned in time, to the moment when she found the umbrella. She runs home to find Pauline, but everything has changed. The photos of her and her friends have disappeared, Pauline's room has become an empty space. Panicked, she calls her mother, who tells her that she has never had a friend with the name Pauline. Charline is distraught, not understanding what is happening.

For hours, she lies there, unable to go back to sleep, until she realizes that the umbrella is the cause of all her misfortune. On a website, she discovers that others have had the same experiences as her, losing loved ones after an argument and touching the umbrella. She then remembers the argument with Pauline, who had doubted her words. But it's too late to go back and find her friend.

Damaged by this experience, Charline decides to honor the memory of her friend by writing a book about their friendship and the tragic events that followed.
