La Religieuse French Edition:

The Nun Denis Diderot, 2008-09-11 The seemingly true story of a young girl forced by her parents to enter a convent and take holy orders

Convents and Nuns in Eighteenth-Century French Politics and Culture Mita Choudhury, 2018-07-05 Representations of convents and nuns assumed power and urgency within the volatile political culture of eighteenth century France Drawing from a range of literary cultural and legal material Mita Choudhury analyzes how between 1730 and 1789 lawyers religious pamphleteers and men of letters repeatedly asked Who should control the female convent and women religious These sources chronicled the conflicts between nuns and the male clergy among nuns themselves and between nuns and their families conflicts that were presented to the public in the context of potent issues such as despotism citizenship female education and sexuality The cloister operated as a symbol of despotism the equivalent of the Sultan's seraglio or the King's Bastille Before 1770 lawyers and magistrates praised nuns as the personification of virtuous Christian women often victims vulnerable to those who would use them to further their own political ends After 1770 men of letters evaluated nuns according to more secular norms and concluded that the convent had no purpose in society except as a reminder of the problems inherent in the Old Regime Choudhury elaborates on how nuns were not always passive entities mere objects to be shaped by the political needs of others But because they relied on men in order to make their voices heard the place of women religious in the public sphere was a complex one based on negotiations between female action and male subjectivity During the French Revolution whatever support they had enjoyed was lost as republicans and moderates began to see nuns as potentially disruptive to the social order family life and revolutionary values

The Eighteenth-century French Novel Vivienne Mylne, 1970

Imagining Sex Sarah Toulalan, 2007-09-06 Imagining Sex examines a variety of material from 17th century England to argue that unlike today pornography was not a discrete genre nor was it usually subject to suppression The book explores contemporary thinking on these issues and wider cultural concerns

These Catholic Sisters are all Mamas! Joan Burke, 2021-10-01 In Africa religion is very much embedded in the social structure and the organisation of the peoples of that continent That is why we will obtain a clear starting point for the eventual articulation of an African spirituality of religious life by examining closely how religious life is evolving on the ground in the everyday experience of religious women After considering how the political and Church culture fostered the inculturation of Catholic institutions this ethnographic work documents the unfolding African expression of the Sisterhood among women religious in the former Zaire Areas examined are perception of the sister in terms of the people incorporation of newer members understanding of community life local models of social relationships which affects sisters among themselves dynamics of group decision making expression and resolution of social conflict

John Lydgate, The Dance of Death, and its model, the French Danse Macabre, 2021-04-06 This edition of John Lydgate's Dance of Death offers a detailed comparison of the different text versions a new scholarly edition and translation of Guy Marchant's 1485 French

Danse Macabre text and an art historical analysis of its woodcut illustrations It addresses the cultural context and historical circumstances of Lydgate's poem and its model the mural of 1424-25 with accompanying French poem in Paris as well as their precursors notably the Vado mori poems and the Legend of the Three Living and the Three Dead It discusses authorship the personification and visualisation of Death and the wider dissemination of the Dance The edited texts include commentaries notes and a glossary

Narrative Responses to the Trauma of the French Revolution Katherine Astbury, 2017-07-05 During the French Revolution traditional literary forms such as the sentimental novel and the moral tale dominate literary production At first glance it might seem that these texts are unaffected by the upheavals in France in fact they reveal not only a surprising engagement with politics but also an internalised emotional response to the turbulence of the period In this innovative and wide ranging study Katherine Astbury uses trauma theory as a way of exploring the apparent contradiction between the proliferation of non political literary texts and the events of the Revolution Through the narratives of established bestselling literary figures of the Ancien Regime primarily Marmontel Madame de Genlis and Florian and the early works of first generation Romantics Madame de Stael and Chateaubriand she traces how the Revolution shapes their writing providing an intriguing new angle on cultural production of the 1790s Katherine Astbury is Senior Lecturer in French Studies at the University of Warwick

Political Writings Simone de Beauvoir, 2012-06-21 Political Writings offers an abundance of newly translated essays by Simone de Beauvoir that demonstrate a heretofore unknown side of her political philosophy The writings in this volume range from Beauvoir's surprising 1952 defense of the misogynistic eighteenth century pornographer the Marquis de Sade to a co written 1974 documentary film transcribed here for the first time which draws on Beauvoir's analysis of how socioeconomic privilege shapes the biological reality of aging The volume traces nearly three decades of Beauvoir's leftist political engagement from exposés of conditions in fascist Spain and Portugal in 1945 and hard hitting attacks on right wing French intellectuals in the 1950s to the 1962 defense of an Algerian freedom fighter Djamila Boupacha and a 1975 article arguing for what is now called the two state solution in Israel Together these texts prefigure Beauvoir's later feminist activism and provide a new interpretive context for reading her multi volume autobiography while also shedding new light on French intellectual history during the turbulent era of decolonization

Carnivalizing Difference Peter I. Barta, Paul Allen Miller, Charles Platter, David Shepherd, 2013-06-17 It has seemed at times that there is no neutral territory between those who see Bakhtin as the practitioner of a kind of neo Marxist or at least materialist deconstruction and those who look at the same texts and see a defender of traditional liberal humanist values and classical conceptions of order a conservative in the true sense of the term Arising from a conference under the same title held at Texas Tech University Carnivalizing Difference seeks to explore the actual and possible relationships between Bakhtinian theory and cultural practice The introduction explores the changing configurations of our understanding of Bakhtin's work in the context of recent theory and outlines how that understanding can inform and be informed by culture

both ancient and modern Eleven articles spanning a wide range of periods and cultural forms then address these issues in detail revealing the ways in which Bakhtinian thought illuminates sometimes obfuscates but always challenges
