Gebhardt,2005 The 2004 revelations of detainee maltreatment at the Abu Ghraib prison outside of Baghdad Iraq have led to an exhaustive overhaul of Army doctrine and training with respect to this topic The Army has identified disconnects in its individual leader and collective training programs and has also identified the absence of a deliberate focused doctrinal crosswalk between the two principal branches concerned with detainees Military Intelligence MI and Military Police MP These problems and their consequences are real and immediate The perceptions of just treatment held by citizens of our nation and to a great extent the world at large have been and are being shaped by the actions of the US Army both in the commission of detainee maltreatment but also and more importantly in the way the Army addresses its institutional shortcomings This study examines the relationship over time
