The Cambridge Manual of Latin Epigraphy Alison E. Cooley,2012-09-13 This book advances our understanding of the place of Latin inscriptions in the Roman world It enables readers especially those new to the subject to appreciate both the potential and the limitations of inscriptions as historical source material by considering the diversity of epigraphic culture in the Roman world and how it has been transmitted to the twenty first century The first chapter offers an epigraphic sample drawn from the Bay of Naples illustrating the dynamic epigraphic culture of that region The second explores in detail the nature of epigraphic culture in the Roman world probing the limitations of traditional ways of dividing up inscriptions into different categories and offering examples of how epigraphic culture developed in different geographical social and religious contexts It examines the life cycle of inscriptions how they were produced viewed reused and destroyed Finally the third provides guidance on deciphering inscriptions face to face and handling specialist epigraphic publications   A Manual of Palestinian Aramaic Texts Joseph A. Fitzmyer,Daniel J. Harrington,1978 This is an attempt to gather together Palestinian Aramaic texts of various sorts and varying lengths from the last two centuries B C and the first two centuries A D The texts are of diverse character a few of them are biblical a number belong to the so called intertestamental literature of Palestinian Jews some of them are letters contracts or business documents of different sorts reflecting various elements of Palestinian life of that period The last part of the collection of texts presented here comes from ossuaries or tombstone inscriptions The collection made here provides the texts of these documents a translation of the text a brief introduction and a bibliography of secondary literature on each of the texts A glossary of the texts complete the collection   Ancient Art and its remains; or a Manual of the Archaeology of Art.
