The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight, Christian M. Rogerson, 2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, Ronnie Donaldson, Cecil Seethal, 2016-09-20 War and the City Sara Fregonese, 2019-11-14 War and the City examines the geopolitical significance of the Lebanese Civil War through a micro level exploration of how the urban landscape of Beirut was transformed by the conflict Focusing on the initial phase of the war in 1975 and 1976 the volume also draws significant parallels with more recent occurrences of internecine conflict and with the historical legacies of Lebanon s colonial past While most scholarship has thus far focused on post war reconstruction of the city the initial process of destruction has been neglected This volume thus moves away from formal macro level geopolitical analysis to propose instead an exploration of the urban nature of conflict through its spaces infrastructures bodies and materialities The book utilizes urban viewpoints in order to highlight the nature of sovereignty in Lebanon and how it is inscribed on the urban landscape War and the City presents a view of geopolitics as not only shaping narratives of international relations but as crucially reshaping the space of cities Limpopo Life Anneli Ekblom, Michel Notelid, 2025-06-20 Limpopo Life introduces the reader to the material culture oral histories and the negotiation of conservation and landscape in an area now known as Limpopo National Park Introducing the archaeology of a region that has not been surveyed or discussed this book connects to the archaeology history heritage and conservation discussions in the southern African region as a whole Vegetation history and paleoecology are combined with archaeological surveys and excavations written sources oral histories and travelogues to draw a picture of the diverse landscape of the Limpopo region Intermixed within this narrative are sections that focus on an individual species a life history or an event providing a view of the complex and dynamic interactions The role of humans in this diverse environment and how they have co evolved with other species shaping each other s destinies in a consequential and accidental way is outlined This book will be of interest to researchers and students interested in the archaeology heritage and conservation of Mozambique Zimbabwe and northern South Africa It will also be of relevance to readers interested in the social history of the Limpopo and Kruger National Parks and this cross border area Long Walk to Nowhere Philip Frankel, 2017-07-05 The end of apartheid has triggered massive illegal immigration into South Africa from all parts of Africa and beyond Along with urbanization and internal migration the end of apartheid has encouraged human smuggling and the trafficking of men women and children into the commercial sex market and various sectors of the economy from mining to agriculture and the service industries Long Walk to Nowhere analyses the impact of these developments on Nelson Mandela s vision for a democratic South Africa Frankel explores human rights the political culture public health the criminal justice system and institutional development as South Africa moves into its third decade after liberation Using migration and human trafficking as barometers for democratic success Frankel establishes that South Africa has become more unstable under two post Mandela presidencies The book covers the three major modes of human trafficking commercial sex trafficking child trafficking and labour trafficking It also looks at the dynamics of trafficking with a perpetrator focus the complex issues of dominance and the policy responses in light of South Africa s first comprehensive counter trafficking legislation designed for implementation in late 2015 Long Walk to Nowhere blends South African experiences with contemporary mass political movements which challenge human rights and good governance on a world wide basis The Sustainable City IX N. Marchettini,C.A. Brebbia,R. Pulselli,S.

Bastianoni,2014-09-23 Containing the proceedings of the 9th International Conference on Urban Regeneration and Sustainability this book addresses the multi disciplinary aspects of urban planning a result of the increasing size of cities the amount of resources and services required and the complexity of modern society Most of earth s population now lives in cities and the process of urbanisation still continues generating many problems deriving from the drift of the population towards them These problems can be resolved by cities becoming efficient habitats saving resources in a way that improves the quality and standard of living The process however faces a number of major challenges related to reducing pollution improving main transportation and infrastructure systems New urban solutions are required to optimise the use of space and energy resources leading to improvements in the environment i e reduction in air water and soil pollution as well as efficient ways to deal with waste generation These challenges contribute to the development of social and economic imbalances and require the development of new solutions Large cities are probably the most complex mechanisms to manage However despite such complexity they represent a fertile ground for architects engineers city planners social and political scientists and other professionals able to conceive new ideas and time them according to technological advances and human requirements The challenge of planning sustainable cities lies in considering their dynamics the exchange of energy and matter and the function and maintenance of ordered structures directly or indirectly supplied and maintained by natural systems Topics covered include Urban strategies Planning development and management Urban conservation and regeneration The community and the city Eco town planning Landscape planning and design Environmental management Sustainable energy and the city Transportation Quality of life Waterfront development Case studies Architectural issues Cultural heritage issues Intelligent environment and emerging technologies Planning for risk Disaster and emergency response Safety and security Waste management Infrastructure and society Urban metabolism The Vortex Frank Uekötter,2024-04-18 Environmental challenges are defining the twenty first century To fully understand ongoing debates about our current crises climate change loss of biological diversity pollution extinction resource woes means revisiting their origins in all their complexity With this ambitious highly original contribution to the environmental history of global modernity Frank Uekötter considers the many ways humans have had an impact on their physical environment throughout history Ours is not a one way trajectory to sudden collapse he argues but rather death by a thousand cuts The many paths we've forged to arrive in our current predicament from agriculture to industry to infrastructure must be considered collectively if we are to stay afloat in what Uekötter describes as a vortex a powerful metaphor for the flow of history capturing the momentum and the many crosscurrents that swept people and environments along His book invites us to look at environmental challenges from multiple perspectives including all the twists and turns that have helped to create the mess we find ourselves in Uekötter has written a world history for an age where things are falling apart where we know what lies ahead and are equipped with the right tools technological and otherwise and plenty of experience to deal with environmental challenges but somehow fail to get our affairs in order The Violence of Conservation in Africa Ramutsindela, Maano,Matose, Frank,Mushonga, Tafadzwa,2022-01-11 Offering insights on violence in conservation this timely book demonstrates how and why the state in Africa pursues conservation objectives to the detriment of its citizens It focuses on how the dehumanization of black people and indigenous groups the insertion of global green agendas onto the continent a lack of resource sovereignty and neoliberal conservation account for why violence is a permanent feature of conservation in Africa Transboundary Governance of Biodiversity Louis J. Kotzé,Thilo Marauhn,2014-06-26 Transboundary Governance of Biodiversity compiles critical analysis of the regulatory frameworks applicable to the transboundary governance of biodiversity by specialists from Europe and Africa Drawing on their vast experience as lawyers political scientists and natural resource management experts they provide a critique and contemporary perspectives on what has become one of the most challenging aspects of global environmental governance in the Anthropocene effective biodiversity conservation in times of unprecedented environmental crises With a unique North South focus and a legal focus infused by multi disciplinary regulatory dimensions this peer reviewed publication offers a comprehensive analysis of international and regional environmental law frameworks applicable to the transboundary governance of biodiversity International Perspectives on Climate Change Walter Leal Filho,Fátima Alves,Sandra Caeiro,Ulisses M. Azeiteiro,2014-03-24 This collected volume deals with emerging issues related to climate variation climate change and adaptation technologies with a special focus on Latin American countries Presenting a variety of adaptation strategies and projects currently being undertaken and implemented the book showcases how Latin American nations are struggling to meet the challenges of climate change Latin America as a whole and Central America in particular is one of the most vulnerable regions of the world and is severely affected by recurrent extreme climate related events This volume documents and analyzes the main challenges and lessons learned serving to disseminate knowledge beyond the region and enhance international research and policy cooperation
