Geography of the World's Major Regions John Cole, 2003-09-02 This volume presents a global view of today's most pressing issues through an analysis of the twelve major regions of the world Environmental degradation natural catastrophe population pressures and human conflict all impact in different ways and to different degrees on the society and environment of these regions Economic and political restructuring within each region is covered and topics include natural resources agriculture industry and services the role of the military and the impact of global economic change This work is intended as an introduction for students studying the changing geography of the world but should also provide a useful overview to students researching specific regions seeking comparative analysis of regions or following general courses on the economic and political geography of both the post industrial and the developing worlds Over 250 photographs maps and figures complement a range of boxed case studies key points questions and guides to further reading

Framing Asian Studies Albert Tzeng, 2018-05-24 This book explores the interconnection between geopolitical context and the ways this context frames our knowledge about Asia highlighting previously neglected cause effect relations It also examines how various knowledge institutions promote and shape Asian Studies The authors seek to explain why Asian Studies and its subfields developed in the way they did and what the implications of these transformations might be on intellectual and political understandings of Asia The book not only builds on the current debates on the decolonization and de imperialization of knowledge about Asia it also proposes a more multifaceted view rather than just examining the impact of the West on the framing of Asian Studies Geographical Knowledge Construction and Production Archie K. Deen,2015-09-02

Geographical Knowledge Construction and Production Teacher and Student Perspectives is a readable and illuminating account of three high school classrooms in suburban Atlanta Georgia It challenges the narrow focus of the Advanced Placement AP programme as a tool for admission into colleges and universities in the United States The research provides insight into the College Board s AP programme and argues for teaching and learning that is transformative and geared toward equipping students with the skills and knowledge necessary to confront the challenges of the 21st century In particular it advocates for geographic education that is anchored in the structure of the subject teasing wherever possible the contradictions and tensions embedded in the complexities of facts relating to people and places This book is essential reading for professors and students of education teachers and students of AP courses parents administrators and state and federal agencies vested in the AP programme Population Geography Mohammad Izhar Hassan,2020-04-28 This book studies the origins and development of population geography as a discipline It explores the key concepts tools and statistical and demographic techniques that are widely employed in the analysis of population The chapters in this book Provide a comprehensive geographical account of population attributes in the world with a particular focus on India Study the three major components of population change fertility mortality and migration that have remained somewhat neglected in the study of human geography so far Examine the salient social demographic and economic characteristics of population along with topics such as size distribution and growth of population Discuss major population theories policies and population development environment interrelations thus marking a significant departure from the traditional pattern oriented approach Well supplemented with figures maps and tables this key text will be an indispensable read for students researchers and teachers of human geography demography anthropology sociology economics and population studies World Regional
