Muslim Textualities Jean M. Kane, 2022-03-14 In the first decade of the twenty first century Muslim women writers located in Europe and America entered the cultural mainstream Literary and visual productions negotiated static visual emblems of Islam most prominently the veil They did so not by rejecting veiling practices but by adapting Muslim resources concepts and visual tradition to empowerment narratives in popular media Mainstream reception of their works has often overlooked or misread these negotiations Muslim Textualities argues for more flexible and capacious interpretation with particular attention to visibility as a metaphor for political agency and to knowledge of cultural contexts This provocative volume aims to articulate Muslim female agency through clear and accessible analysis of the theory and concepts driving the interpretation of these works Scholars interested in the working representations of Muslim women feminist subjectivities and the complexities of gender roles patriarchy and feminism will find this volume of particular interest Islam and Postcolonial Discourse Esra Mirze Santesso, James McClung, 2017-01-27

Largely though not exclusively as a legacy of the 2001 attack on the World Trade Center Islamic faith has become synonymous in many corners of the media and academia with violence which many believe to be its primary mode of expression The absence of a sophisticated recognition of the wide range of Islamic subjectivities within contemporary culture has created a void in which misinterpretations and hostilities thrive Responding to the growing importance of religion specifically Islam as a cultural signifier in the formation of a postcolonial self this multidisciplinary collection is organized around contested terms such as secularism Islamopolitics female identity and Islamophobia The overarching goal of the contributors is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the full range of experiences within Islam as well as the figure of the Muslim thus enabling a new set of questions about religion s role in shaping postcolonial identity
