Giyur A True Love Story:

Giyur Best Seller Press Publishing House,2015-09-19 Giyur A True Love Story by Michael Salita is as the title implies an alleged entirely true love story as documented and retold by Salita originating from a Caribbean cruise Volodya a native Odessian comes across a beautiful woman on a cruise who he talks candidly about to a nearby acquaintance in his native tongue It turns out that the woman Natasha was actually able to hear him the entire time and despite his embarrassing remarks they share a strong mutual interest However Volodya is a Jewish man and while Natasha was raised Jewish she is without Jewish heritage by circumstance of birth making them unfit for marriage As their romance grows Natasha decides to take the giyur the conversion of a non Jew to the faith and with the blessing of her grandmother she is able to marry Volodya The story is short at just 22 pages leaving only the barest details of the story as likely dictated to the author originally and has every air of a charming tale spun by a friend or neighbor For a simple true love story about fate and faith that beggars belief Salita delivers a short sweet reminiscence and a happy ending for everyone involved Giyur Michael
