Brown,2024-12-19 Caught Ya follows the unbelievable true story of the author s recent experiences with online dating After his wife of 15 years leaves Charles re enters the dating scene In a 24 month period he chatted with over 500 girls To keep track of all of them he wrote down a graph At first he was looking for love but was disillusioned by experiences with catfish Then he wanted just one honest woman It became a quest then a hunt He was armed with information to discover the catfish s true identity He hopes that through his story others can learn from his mistake and know what not to do when confronted with deceit About the Author Charles C Brown is a middle aged man living in Michigan He has been married and divorced and has lived with some women He has two children that are grown and live on their own His work career ended early because he developed some disabilities This gave him time to chat online with many people Brown has a cat that occupies some of his time The rest of the time he is usually on his laptop He does have other interests that he may write a book about one day R|EVOLUTIONS Jennifer Craig,Warren Steele,2009-03-26 Can art change the world Or can art produce new knowledge that facilitates radical change in our slowly evolving communities If so then we must ask How does cultural transformation whether super or slight affect our understanding of culture and the world Operating under the rubric of resistance and reform R EVOLUTIONS Mapping Culture Community and Change is a unique scholarly collection that seeks to illuminate current understandings of art aesthetics and the revolutionary impulse The resulting work interrogates intersections between culture and community revolution and evolution At the same time it examines how enduring social issues intertwine with current concerns such as representations of the body or the book Multidisciplinary in approach topics run from subversive uses of the body in Renaissance drama to the effect of the atom bomb on postmodern culture From Mark Wallinger s Turner Prize winning performance in a bear suit to Angela Carter s concept of sexual multiplicity in The Passion of New Eve Cutting edge and politically engaging R Evolutions will appeal to general readers as well as the specialist and it is designed for scholars not only interested in issues of cultural production but also in the evolution of politics and perception over time

Subject of the Event Sebastian Huber, 2017-11-30 What does falling in love have in common with the fall of the Berlin Wall Or the fall of the Twin Towers In the light of postmodernism's programmatic critique of a humanist notion of the subject and an emphatic understanding of events Subject of the Event shows that selected American novels after 2000 offer an alternative to the death of the subject As the first book to comprehensively engage with Alain Badiou's writings outside of a philosophical context Subject of the Event analyzes five critically acclaimed novels of the new millennium Cormac McCarthy's The Road 2006 Jess Walter's The Zero 2006 Mark Z Danielewski's Only Revolutions 2006 Paul Beatty's Slumberland 2008 and Thomas Pynchon's Against the Day 2006 and argues that they create different subjects of the event that are empowered with reagency The subject of the event and its empowerment what this book calls reagency implies that subjects only evolve out of their confrontation with the revolutionary impetus that events propel Unlike a humanist capability of having agency reagency is defined as a repetitive subjective praxis that is contingent upon events which is given a concrete literary form in the novels under investigation Sebastian Huber explores how the American penchant for events new beginnings clean slates apocalypse is being critically dealt with in the novels at hand while still offering an emphatic idea of singular disruptions that open up ways for subjects to affirm and become empowered by the new propositions of these happenings
