The Aesthetic Cold War Peter J. Kalliney, 2024-12-10 How decolonization and the cold war influenced literature from Africa Asia and the Caribbean How did superpower competition and the cold war affect writers in the decolonizing world In The Aesthetic Cold War Peter Kalliney explores the various ways that rival states used cultural diplomacy and the political police to influence writers In response many writers from Africa Asia and the Caribbean such as Chinua Achebe Mulk Raj Anand Eileen Chang C L R James Alex La Guma Doris Lessing Ng g wa Thiong o and Wole Soyinka carved out a vibrant conceptual space of aesthetic nonalignment imagining a different and freer future for their work Kalliney looks at how the United States and the Soviet Union in an effort to court writers funded international conferences arts centers book and magazine publishing literary prizes and radio programming International spy networks however subjected these same writers to surveillance and intimidation by tracking their movements tapping their phones reading their mail and censoring or banning their work Writers from the global south also suffered travel restrictions deportations imprisonment and even death at the hands of government agents Although conventional wisdom suggests that cold war pressures stunted the development of postcolonial literature Kalliney's extensive archival research shows that evenly balanced superpower competition allowed savvy writers to accept patronage without pledging loyalty to specific political blocs Likewise writers exploited rivalries and the emerging discourse of human rights to contest the attentions of the political police A revisionist account of superpower involvement in literature The Aesthetic Cold War considers how politics shaped literary production in the twentieth century The ^AOxford Handbook of the Global Stage Musical Robert Gordon,Olaf Jubin,2023-11-14 In response to the rapid growth of musical theatre as a global phenomenon The Oxford Handbook of the Global Stage Musical offers new scholarly approaches to issues arising from these new international markets The thirty three essays highlight major aspects of the genre such as the dominance of Western colonialism in its early production and dissemination racism and sexism both in representation and in the industry itself as well as current conflicts between global and local interests in postmodern cultures Featuring contributors from seventeen countries the essays offer informed insider perspectives that reflect the diversity of the subject and offer in depth examinations of specific cultural and economic systems Fate and Prognostication in the Chinese Literary Imagination ,2020-04-28 The essays collected in Fate and Prognostication in the Chinese Literary Imagination deal with the philosophical psychological gender and cultural issues in the Chinese conception of fate as represented in literary texts and films with a focus placed on human efforts to solve the riddles of fate prediction Viewed in this light the collected essays unfold a meandering landscape of the popular imaginary in Chinese beliefs and customs The chapters in this book represent concerted efforts in research originated from a project conducted at the International Consortium for Research in the Humanities at the Friedrich Alexander University Erlangen Nuremberg Germany Contributors are Michael Lackner Kwok kan Tam Monika Gaenssbauer Terry Siu han Yip Xie Qun Roland Altenburger Jessica Tsui yan Li Kaby Wing Sze Kung Nicoletta Pesaro Yan Xu Lackner and Anna Wing Bo Tso Eileen Chang: The Performativity of Self-Translation Jessica Tsui-yan Li,2025-06-16 Eileen Chang

The Performativity of Self Translation by Jessica Tsui yan Li focuses on the self translation of Zhang Ailing Eileen Chang 1920 1995 one of the most important Chinese writers of the twentieth century Although self translation is overlooked in most studies of her work Chang s literary achievements are attributed in part to her lifelong self translation of her lived experiences and family sagas as well as her bilingualism This book enriches current studies of self translation by proposing a new hypothesis of theorizing self translation as a performative act characterized by its in betweenness and the aesthetic freedom that the self translator enjoys contextualized within larger debates about translation and the specific practice of self translation in Chinese history in comparison to its Western counterpart Telling Details Jiwei Xiao,2022-03-09 What is a detail How is it different from xijie its Chinese counterpart Is reading for the details fundamentally different from reading for the plot Did xijie xiaoshuo the Chinese novel of details give the world its earliest form of modern fiction Inspired by studies of vision and modernity as well as cinema this book gazes out on the larger world through the small aperture of the detail highlighting how concrete literary minutiae become telling as they reveal the dynamics of seeing and hearing the vibrations of the mind the complexity of the everyday and the imperative to recognize the minute the humble and the hidden In a strain of masterpieces of xijie xiaoshuo such details play a key role in pivoting the novel from didacticism towards a capacious modern form Examining the Chinese detail as both a common idiom and a unique concept and extrapolating it from individual works to the culture at large reveals under explored areas of the Chinese novel its psychological depths its connections with other genres and forms its partaking in Chinese material life and capitalist modernity as well as repressions and difficulties surrounding its reception in national and international contexts With carefully chosen case studies Xiao s book not only exemplifies the value of deep reading in approaching complex works of Chinese fiction as world literature it also throws light on the aesthetics and politics of the unseen which has become central to a humanist tradition that flows across literature cinema and other art forms

Half a Life V. S. Naipaul,2012-03-15 One of the finest living writers in the English language V S Naipaul gives us a tale as wholly unexpected as it is affecting his first novel since the exultantly acclaimed A Way in the World published seven years ago Half a Life is the story of Willie Chandran whose father heeding the call of Mahatma Gandhi turned his back on his brahmin heritage and married a woman of low caste a disastrous union he would live to regret as he would the children that issued from it When Willie reaches manhood his flight from the travails of his mixed birth takes him from India to London where in the shabby haunts of immigrants and literary bohemians of the 1950s he contrives a new identity This is what happens as he tries to defeat self doubt in sexual adventures and in the struggle to become a writer strivings that bring him to the brink of exhaustion from which he is rescued to his amazement only by the love of a good woman And this is what happens when he returns with her carried along really to her home in Africa to live until the last doomed days of colonialism yet another life not his own In a luminous narrative that takes us across three continents Naipaul explores his great theme of inheritance with an intimacy and directness unsurpassed in his extraordinary body of work And even as he lays bare the bitter comical ironies of assumed identities he gives us a poignant spectacle of the enervation peculiar to a borrowed life In one man s determined refusal of what he has been given to be Naipaul reveals the way of all our experience As Willie comes to see Everything goes on a bias The world should stop but it goes on A masterpiece of economy and emotional nuance Half a Life is an indelible feat of the imagination
