Australia's most loved sporting team told by one of its most lauded members. It reveals not only the extreme dedication and skill it takes to be the best but also how it feels to be on the outer even as one of the game's most decorated players. Representing Australia 251 times across Tests, one-day internationals and T20 matches, no woman in history has played more matches for the Australian Women's cricket team than Alex Blackwell. Could this love story be anymore perfect? There's only one problem: Marlon Salvador, the devil incarnated, the bane of her existence. And the son of her Mum's best friend, Jaslene and Marlon have been betrothed since birth. Kind of. Their Mums, who have been best friends since forever, are both convinced their children are made for each other, setting them up on playdates, study dates, and spontaneous hangouts throughout their entire lives. What they don't understand is Jaslene wants nothing to do with Marlon, and Marlon wants nothing to do with Jaslene. Yet Jaslene soon realises that she cannot have her happy ever after until both their families stop trying to get her and Marlon together. Reaching peak desperation, she proposes a ruse with Marlon: To fake date and stage a grand dramatic break-up in front of their families, burying the idea of their pairing once and for all. That way, they can have their happy ending with the one they want. And so, as the two are forced to put on a loving facade in front of their gushing families, they find themselves blurring the lines between fiction and reality, leading the two to question whether their idea of happy ever after was with the right people after all. The Path of an Eagle Jay Fantom, 2022-09-27 A heartfelt, emotive, and hopeful account of one man's awe-inspiring journey to overcome the seemingly impossible: near-death experiences, abuse of all kinds, depression, anxiety, addictions, and eating disorders.
