Inviting Transformation Presentational Speaking For A Changing World:

Inviting Transformation Sonja K. Foss, Karen A. Foss, 2019-01-03 The fourth edition of Inviting Transformation continues to offer an innovative approach to presentational speaking at a very reasonable price. The authors introduce readers to invitational rhetoric, teaching speakers to clarify ideas and to work to achieve understanding for all participants in an interaction. A primary goal of presentational speaking is to create an environment in which growth and change can occur for both the audience and the speaker. The text highlights four external conditions affecting transformational environments: safety, openness, freedom, and value, honoring the intrinsic worth of all individuals. To reflect respect for the diversity of the world, Sonja Foss and Karen Foss include options from many speaking traditions and practices to foster creativity. Discussions of all the processes of presenting, selecting a speaking goal, organizing ideas, elaborating on ideas, and delivering the presentation, emphasize inclusive speaking practices. Sample presentations provide clear and contemporary examples of the best invitational speaking practices. The authors recognize readers as competent communicators and encourage them to think about and systematize their approaches to presentational speaking. The exceptionally accessible writing style is an aid to readers in thinking through strategies for meeting their interactional goals. Readers learn to design and deliver effective presentations for any speaking situation. Inviting Transformation Karen A. Foss, 2003 Speaking the Truth in Love

Daniel R. Berger, 2007-01-01 Approaching public communication from a liberal arts point of view, Speaking the Truth in Love provides a distinctly Christian perspective of rhetoric. Written and oral rhetoric are interwoven throughout the text. Two foundational ideas control the majority of the text. The first is from Plato's Phaedrus as stated by Paul in Ephesians 4:15, speaking the truth in love. The second is from the Apostle Peter in 1 Peter 4:11, if anyone speaks, he should do it as one speaking the very words of God. The spiritual responsibility of communicating truth in accordance with the nature of God, especially the virtue of love, is an awesome privilege and opportunity. Sound content, spoken or written eloquently with charisma, will enable words to have a maximum impact. The text is designed to be a culminating learning experience for undergraduate communication programs or as an introductory text for graduate programs involving public communication. Beginning with a philosophy of language, meaning, and interaction, argument is built against secular, deconstructive thought where everyone has a different truth based on language. Alongside philosophy, we explore ethics and theology from an evangelical perspective. Following this, a brief history outlines rhetorical thought from pre-testament classics to today. Based upon these ideas, we take a closer look at communication theory as it relates to public communication. Finally, the text addresses the practice of both written and oral communication. Elements of Speech Communication David M. Jabusch, Stephen W. Littlejohn, 1996 Many of the features that have always given The Elements of Speech Communication its character have been retained so that the feel of the book is about the same. Every chapter begins with a story or provocative allusion. Relevant photographs add interest and give pause for thought. And, of course, the image shifts which have been unique to this book from its inception still challenge students to look at the subject in new ways To make the text easier the authors have added a complete glossary A Collegiate Press book Communication in a Civil Society Shelley D. Lane,Ruth Anna Abigail,John Casey Gooch,2024-03-06 Using the concept of civility as the major theme this fully updated second edition offers a unique and alternative way to teach and learn about communication The book brings together discrete areas that explore the fundamentals of communication and intrapersonal communication interpersonal communication small group communication and public speaking Every chapter includes theories concepts and examples that allow students to use civil and ethical communication skills in their personal relationships in collaboration with colleagues and in giving public speeches and professional presentations This new edition highlights advances in and concepts related to mediated and technology based communication such as chatbots technostress and dating apps and shows how students can engage in civil face to face and mediated interaction Additionally each chapter includes a real world incident that students are asked to analyze in terms of specific chapter information and skills related to civility Communication in a Civil Society is an ideal textbook for Introduction to Communication Interpersonal Communication and Public Speaking courses Materials for instructors including PowerPoint slides a test bank and an instructor s manual are available at www.routledge.com/9781032513263 In Defense of Partisan Criticism Omar Swartz,2005 In Defense of Partisan Criticism is a far reaching exploration of the legal philosophical and rhetorical basis for understanding social justice in the United States Through a thoughtful investigation of key political social and legal events in the history of the United States Omar Swartz develops a compelling argument for engaged political scholarship by American academics and offers readers a critical understanding of the place of race and class in American cultural history Central to this understanding is an awareness of the communication imagination the power of citizens to name the constraints placed upon them by U S political and legal institutions and to counter those constraints with narratives constructing a more socially just society based upon a wider sense of human identification and partisan engagement than is currently practiced in the normative U S public sphere A Transnational Critique of Japaneseness Yuko Kawai,2020-12-10 In this book Yuko Kawai departs from the common conception of Japan as an ethnically homogenous nation A Transnational Critique of Japaneseness Cultural Nationalism Racism and Multiculturalism in Japan investigates the construction of Japaneseness from a transnational perspective examining ways to make Japanese nationhood more inclusive Kawai analyzes a variety of communicational practices during the first two decades of the twenty first century while situating Japaneseness in its longer historical transformation from the late nineteenth century Kawai focuses on governmental and popular ideas of Japaneseness in light of local global historical and contemporary contexts as well as in relation to a diverse array of Others in both Asia and the West COMMUNICATE OR COLLAPSE PUSHPA LALA,SANJAY KUMAR,2007-10-12 Effective communication is of immense significance to all organizations as the professional world thrives on its capacity to be articulate and expressive innovative and improvising The book based on the

Worldbuilding and Ecological Readiness Cynthia Porter Rosenfeld, 2023-11-02 This book addresses how people in digital communities during the Anthropocene can become ecologically ready participants who are willing to build a flourishing relationship with the environment through a lens of community and care The community care paradigm is theorized as a way of understanding and living in the more than human world that is based on a relational ontology situated knowledges and ethics of care that takes individuals in communities as its basic unit of consideration The author draws together disparate lines of inquiry including ancient and contemporary rhetoric media studies ethical philosophy and animal studies to highlight how the digital discourses occurring in the Anthropocene can help illuminate the partial processual active and rhetorical nature of flourishing of our bodies our selves and our environment Each chapter of the book contributes to theorizing and illuminating how digital rhetorics can provide individuals with ecological readiness the ability to craft more than human worlds of contingent wellbeing and vulnerable flourishing Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice Sara Hayden, Lynn O'Brien Hallstein, 2010-06-14 Women who came of age in the late twentieth century were raised in the era of choice they grew up believing that reproductive decision making is a political right a responsibility of women living the successes of second wave feminism and under their control Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice Explorations into Discourses of Reproduction explores contemporary maternity both within and in light of these late twentieth century understandings Employing a variety of feminist communication approaches the volume's contributors discuss how discourses of choice shape and are shaped by women's identities and experiences as non mothers and how those same discourses affect and reflect private practices and public policies related to reproduction and motherhood Through this process the contributors illustrate a variety of ways of conducting feminist thinking research and practices within the communication discipline Major sub disciplines within communication studies are represented here including feminist organizational interpersonal rhetorical critical cultural and social movement studies Whereas many of the previous scholarly investigations into maternity highlight only one aspect or phase of motherhood Contemplating Maternity in an Era of Choice is unique because it investigates discourses of choice across the arc of maternity and as enacted through various non maternal subject positions
