Die Wende Von Der Aufklärung Zur Romantik 1760-1820 Horst Albert Glaser,György Mihály Vajda,2000 This volume is the twelfth to date in a series of works in French or English presenting the epochs and movements of a Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages Histoire Compar e des Litt ratures de Langues Europ ennes The original intention of the editors was to publish a four volume history of European literature from 1760 1820 and the first of these volumes Des Lumi res au Romantisme Genres en Vers appeared as long ago as 1982 The volumes Genres en Prose and Th tre are still awaited In their absence the present volume Epoche im _berblick attempts a more comprehensive and rigorous treatment of the period and its historiographical problems than was initially planned providing the reader with an overview of sixty eventful years of European literary history years in which German Classicism coincided with the birth initially in Germany and England of Romanticism And at the centre of this turbulent period of European intellectual and literary history stands the French Revolution Seducing the Eighteenth-Century French Reader Paul J. Young,2016-12-05 As he demonstrates that narratives of seduction function as a master plot for French literature in the eighteenth century Paul Young argues that the prevalence of this trope was a reaction to a dominant cultural discourse that coded the novel and the new practice of solitary reading as dangerous seductive practices Situating his study in the context of paintings educational manuals and criticism that caution against the act of reading Young considers both canonical and lesser known works by authors that include Rousseau Sade Bastide Laclos Cr billon fils and the writers of two widely read libertine novels How these authors responded to a cultural climate that viewed literature and especially the novel as seductive sheds light on the perils and pleasures of authorship the ways in which texts interact with the larger cultural discourse and what eighteenth century texts tell us about the dangers of reading or writing Ultimately Young argues the seduction not in the text but by the text raises questions about the nature of pleasure in eighteenth century French literature and culture Violence in French and Francophone Literature and Film ,2015-06-29 Stories of violence such as the account in Genesis of Cain s jealousy and murder of Abel have been with us since the time of the earliest recorded texts Undeniably the scourge of violence fascinates confounds and saddens What are its uses in literature its appeal forms and consequences Anchored by Alice Kaplan s substantial contribution the thirteen articles in this volume cover diverse epochs lands and motives One scholar ponders whether accounts of Huguenot martyrdom in the sixteenth century might suggest more pride than piety Another assesses the real versus the true with respect to a rape scene in The Heptameron Female violence in fairy tales by Madame d Aulnoy points to gender politics and the fragility of female solidarity while another article examines similar issues in the context of Ananda Devi's works in present day Mauritius. Other studies address the question of sadism in Flaubert, the unstable point of view of Emmanuel Carrère's L'Adversaire, the ambivalence toward violence in Chamoiseau's Texaco, the notions of terror and tabula rasa in the writings of Blanchot, the undoing of traditions of narrative continuity and authority in the 1998 film vendre and consequences of the power differential in a repressive Haiti as depicted in the film Vers le Sud 2005. Paradoxes emerge in several studies of works where victims may become perpetrators or vice versa.

The Dictionary of Imaginary Places Alberto Manguel, Gianni Guadalupi, 2000. Describes and visualizes over 1 200 magical lands found in literature and film discussing such exotic realms as Atlantis, Tolkien's Middle Earth and Oz.

Corps/décors: femmes, orgie, parodie / Bodyscape: Women, Orgy, Parody, 2023-07-10. This volume written in honor of Lucienne Frappier Mazur, Professor Emerita of French at the University of Pennsylvania, reflects her wide ranging contributions to the study of French literature especially the writings of Balzac, Sade and Sand. Organized into five sections, it brings together 23 original essays in English and French by noted scholars of history and literature, the majority of which explore various inscriptions of the body especially the female body in political and literary discourse. Many of the issues engaged in these essays: the body as a cultural product insofar as it forms the basis for constructions of the modern nation state as well as the exclusion of women from that social body; the baroque setting of orgy and the performance of the eroticized body on that scene; the representation of poor and working class bodies; women's autobiographical praxis; parody testify to the influential scholarship of Frappier Mazur. The broad spectrum of authors in this volume is noteworthy. In addition to essays on Shakespeare, Rousseau, Sade, Balzac, Nerval, Flaubert, Lautréamont, Mallarmé, Zola, there are also studies devoted to Restif de la Bretonne, Olympe de Gouges, Louise Michel, Poictevin, Rachilde, Jean Lorrain, Marthe Bibesco, Nathalie Sarraute, Michel Leiris, Daniel Pennac and Ken Bugul.

Autour de l'extrême littéraire Alastair Hemmens, Russell Williams, 2012-12-18. The extreme is an essential aspect of contemporary experience. Thrill seekers spend the weekend in the search of the adrenaline rush of extreme sports. In the political arena, the world has begun to rediscover the split between the extreme left and the extreme right. Through 24 hour rolling news, images of violence, torture and war are televised unremittingly into the living room while the Internet places hardcore pornography, snuff film and cannibalism within easy reach of anyone with a personal computer or a smartphone. The extreme has even become a quality companies seek to associate with the most banal of commodities such as ice cream and hair gel. These different manifestations of extremity suggest a contradictory even paradoxical relationship with the extreme. The contributors to this book explore how writing in French from the Middle Ages to the present day has interrogated extremity. Taken together, these essays demonstrate that the quality of the extreme can be applied to a great number of texts for different reasons and from myriad perspectives. Moreover, the extreme is revealed as a quality both distinct from and in tension with the crossing of boundaries associated with transgression. It is a movement towards and away from a centre of radiation that escapes cultural norms without necessarily reinforcing them. This sensation of rushing and wandering outside the boundaries of what is considered safe and normal provides the extreme with its adrenaline charged response of excitement or horror The analyses contained in this volume consider a number of manifestations of the extr me litt raire The ambiguities of gender in medieval romance are explored in the context of the Arthurian court The 19th century is examined through the prose poems of Baudelaire and the litt rature sauvage of the Zutistes The difficulties of writing the trauma of war and genocide in the 20th century are discussed through the work of Jorge Sempr n and Agota Kristof The contemporary extreme in French literature is examined in the autofiction of Christine Angot the work of Annie Ernaux and Catherine Millet the controversial novels of Michel Houellebecq and the worldwide influence of the Marquis de Sade on writing today Whilst the extr me litt raire may have a wide variety of expressions in French literature it is always outside beyond and far from the centre of our everyday experience It shocks us excites us and horrifies us often all at once This book seeks to provide an insight into how and why the extreme has fascinated and continues to fascinate the French literary imagination

A New History of French Literature Denis Hollier, 1998-08-19
