The War Lawyers Craig Jones, 2020-11-26 Over the last 20 years the world s most advanced militaries have invited a small number of military legal professionals into the heart of their targeting operations spaces which had previously been exclusively for generals and commanders These professionals trained and hired to give legal advice on an array of military operations have become known as war lawyers The War Lawyers examines the laws of war as applied by military lawyers to aerial targeting operations carried out by the US military in Iraq and Afghanistan and the Israel military in Gaza Drawing on interviews with military lawyers and others this book explains why some lawyers became integrated in the chain of command whereby military targets are identified and attacked whether by manned aircraft drones and or ground forces and with what results This book shows just how important law and military lawyers have become in the conduct of contemporary warfare and how it is understood Jones argues that circulations of law and policy between the US and Israel have bolstered targeting practices considered legally questionable contending that the involvement of war lawyers in targeting operations enables legitimises and sometimes even extends military violence

The Global Automotive Industry Paul Nieuwenhuis, Peter Wells, 2015-08-06 The automotive industry is still one of the world s largest manufacturing sectors but it suffers from being very technology focused as well as being relatively short term focused There is little emphasis within the industry and its consultancy and analyst supply network on the broader social and economic impacts of automobility and of the sector that provides it The Global Automotive Industry addresses this need and is a first port of call for any academic official or consultant wanting an overview of the state of the industry An international team of specialist researchers both from academia and business review and analyse the key issues that make vehicle manufacturing still the world s premier manufacturing sector closely tied in with the fortunes of both established and newly emerging economies In doing so it covers issues related to manufacturing both established practices as well as new developments issues relating to distribution marketing and retail vehicle technologies and regulatory trends and crucially labour practices and the people who build cars In all this it explains both how the current situation arose and also likely future trajectories both in terms of social and regulatory trends as the technological marketing and labour practice responses to those leading in many cases to the development of new business models Key features Provides a global overview of the automotive industry covering its current state and considering future challenges Contains contributions from international specialists in the automotive sector Presents current research and sets this in an historical and broader industry context Covers threats to the industry including globalization economic and environmental sustainability The Global Automotive Industry is a must have reference for researchers and practitioners in the automotive industry and is an excellent source of information for business schools governments and graduate and undergraduate students in automotive engineering

Securitization Outside the West Christian Kaunert, Edwin Ezeokafor, 2022-07-01 This book analyses securitization processes outside of the West with a focus on Africa The aim of the volume is to develop an original analytical framework to explain the securitization neo patrimonialism dynamics in West Africa drawing upon insights from securitization theory sociology and psychology Among critical voices securitization has become the gold standard for analysing emerging challenges such as migration terrorism and human security Yet despite its broadening agenda the framework has also been accused of bias with a Western political context and democratic governance structure at its heart This book aims to re conceptualise the framework in a way that suits non Western contexts better notably by re conceptualising the securitization neopatrimonialism nexus in Africa which gives us significant new insights into non Western political contexts It analyses the securitization processes among the political elites under neo patrimonial statehood and further stretches the conceptualisation of securitization into African statehood which is characterised by a blurred line between the leader and the state The volume explores the processes of securitizing threats in Liberia Sierra Leone and wider West Africa as well as the neo patrimonial regimes of these states In doing so it explores the influence these states neo patrimonial regimes have on the processes of threat securitization This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies African politics and International Relations The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Assessing Maritime Power in the Asia-Pacific Greg Kennedy, Harsh V. Pant, 2016-03-09 Leading academics from around the world who specialize in analysing maritime strategic issues deliberate the impact of the American pivot or re balance strategy and the Air Sea Battle operational concept on the maritime power and posture of a number of selected states Intending to strengthen US economic diplomatic and security engagement throughout the Asia Pacific both bilaterally and multilaterally the re balance stands out as one of the Obama administration's most far sighted and ambitious foreign policy initiatives

Geographies of Developing Areas Glyn Williams, Paula Meth, Katie Willis, 2014-03-21 Geographies of Developing Areas is a thought provoking and accessible introductory text presenting a fresh view of the Global South that challenges students pre conceptions and promotes lively debate Rather than presenting the Global South as a set of problems from rapid urbanization to poverty this book focuses on the diversity of life in the South and looks at the role the South plays in shaping and responding to current global change The core contents of the book integrate traditional concerns of development geographers such as economic development and social inequality with aspects of the global South that are usually given less attention such as cultural identity and political conflict This edition has been fully updated to reflect recent changes in the field and highlight issues of security risk and violence environmental sustainability and climate change and the impact of ICT on patterns of North South and South South exchange It also challenges students to think about how space is important in both the directions and the outcomes of change in the Global South emphasizing the inherently spatial nature of political economic and socio cultural processes Students are introduced to the Global South via contemporary debates in development and current research in cultural economic and political geographies of developing areas The textbook consider how images of the so called Third World are powerful but problematic It explores the economic political and cultural processes shaping the South at the global scale and the impact that these have on people s lives and identities Finally the text considers the possibilities and limitations of different development strategies The main arguments of the book are richly illustrated through case study material drawn from across the Global South as well as full colour figures and photos Students are supported throughout with clear examples explanations of key terms ideas and debates and introductions to the wider literature and relevant websites in the field The pedagogical features of the book have been further developed through discussion questions and activities that provide focused tasks for students research including investigation based around the book s case studies and in depth exploration of debates and concepts it introduces

Embracing the Track of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within June 2013 Grgeography Paper 1

In a world eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant conversation, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony developed by the published word usually fade into the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and distractions that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of June 2013 Grgeography Paper 1 an enchanting fictional value full of natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful musician of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed melodies and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this poignant analysis, we can examine the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
