A Taste for Brown Sugar Mireille Miller-Young, 2014-12-08 A Taste for Brown Sugar boldly takes on representations of black women's sexuality in the porn industry. It is based on Mireille Miller-Young's extensive archival research and her interviews with dozens of women who have worked in the adult entertainment industry since the 1980s. The women share their thoughts about desire and eroticism, black women's sexuality and representation, and ambition and the need to make ends meet. Miller-Young documents their interventions into the complicated history of black women's sexuality, looking at individual choices, however small: a costume, a gesture, an improvised line, as small acts of resistance of what she calls illicit eroticism. Building on the work of other black feminist theorists and contributing to the field of sex work studies, she seeks to expand discussion of black women's sexuality to include their eroticism and desires as well as their participation and representation in the adult entertainment industry. Miller-Young wants the voices of black women sex workers heard and the decisions they make, albeit often within material and industrial constraints, recognized as their own.

Confessions of a Video Vixen 20th Anniversary Edition Karrine Steffans, 2025-03-04 Part tell all, part cautionary tale, this emotionally charged memoir from a former video vixen nicknamed Superhead goes beyond the glamour of celebrity to reveal the inner workings of the hip-hop dancer industry, from the physical and emotional abuse that's rampant in the industry and which marked her own life to the excessive use of drugs, sex, and bling. Once the sought-after video girl, this sexy siren has helped multi-platinum artists such as Jay-Z, R. Kelly, and LL Cool J sell millions of albums with her sensual dancing. In a word, Karrine was HOT. So hot that she made as much as $2500 a day in videos and was selected by well-known film director F. Gary Gray to co-star in his film A Man Apart starring Vin Diesel. But the film and music video sets, swanky Hollywood and New York restaurants, and trysts with the celebrities featured in the pages of People and In Touch magazines only touches the surface of Karrine Steffans' life. Her journey is filled with physical abuse, rape, drug and alcohol abuse, homelessness, and single motherhood, all by the age of 26. By sharing her story, Steffans hopes to shed light on an otherwise romanticized industry and help young women avoid the same pitfalls she encountered. If they're already in danger, she hopes to inspire them to find a way to dig themselves out of what she knows first-hand to be a cycle of hopelessness and despair.

UPDATE As the music industry started to have its own reckoning with men who've behaved badly, even criminally, Confessions has been discussed in some quarters as an early warning bell, with Karrine as a feminist icon who shined a light when no one wanted her to and championed sex positivity before it was embraced. Now she talks about what it has been like to watch the tide turn and the lessons still to be learned.

Speaking in Tongues and Dancing Diaspora Mae G. Henderson, 2014-05-07 The oral tradition has always played an important role in African American literature, ranging from works such as Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God to Toni Morrison's Beloved. These and countless other novels affirm the power of sonance and sound in the African American literary canon. Considering the wide swath of work in this powerful lineage, in addition to its shared heritage with performance Mae G Henderson deploys her trope of speaking in tongues to theorize the preeminence of voice and narration in black women's literary performance through her reconstruction of a fundamentally spiritual practice as a critical concept for reading black women's writing dialogically and intertextually The first half of the book is devoted to influential works of fiction as Henderson offers a series of spirited attentive readings of works by Zora Neale Hurston Alice Walker Sherley Anne Williams Toni Morrison Gayl Jones and Nella Larsen The second half shifts gears to consider the world of female African American performance most notably in the figures of Josephine Baker and the video dancer Drawing on the trope of dancing diaspora Henderson proposes a model of theorizing based on performing testimony and critical witnessing Throughout the book Henderson draws on a history of black women not only in the Pentecostal Holiness Church but also within the traditions of classical Christian African and black diasporic spirituality and performance Ultimately Speaking in Tongues and Dancing Diaspora provides a deeply felt reflection on race and gender and their effects within the discourses of speaker listener and audience performer
