* The company's 2005 results include an item of selling costs since 2004. The company anticipates that this cost will be a significant expense item, but revenues and operating income growth will be significantly less.

** Both management and investors evaluate corporate income, which is defined as operating income before general corporate expenses and provision of income, to evaluate segment performance and allocate resources. For a reconciliation of operating companies income to operating income, see Note 14, Segment Reporting.
