Promoting Reading for Pleasure in the Primary School Michael Lockwood, 2008-06-24. Winner of the UKLA Author Award 2009. Lockwood has written a useful, supportive book which will help teachers and librarians. He describes the background and summarises the research and then proposes thoroughly practical programmes. Carousel. Michael Lockwood has produced an excellent practical overview and analysis of what works in the primary school to promote reading for pleasure. Lockwood's work is grounded and valuable to those who need it most: teachers in the classroom working hard to engender a love of reading. English, Drama, Media. This book is first class. It puts the matter very clearly and succinctly and presents a great deal of evidence to support the argument that pleasure is not a frivolous extra but the very heart and essence of what reading is about. It also gives readers plenty of ideas for carrying the principle into the classroom and for justifying it. This is an excellent piece of work which I hope will find a place on every staffroom bookshelf. Philip Pullman, English primary school.
