Matt Roush It Report:

The Metropolitan Revolution Bruce Katz, Jennifer Bradley, 2013-06-19 Across the US cities and metropolitan areas are facing huge economic and competitive challenges that Washington won't or can't solve. The good news is that networks of metropolitan leaders mayors, business and labor leaders, educators and philanthropists are stepping up and powering the nation forward. These state and local leaders are doing the hard work to grow more jobs and make their communities more prosperous and they're investing in infrastructure, making manufacturing a priority and equipping workers with the skills they need. In The Metropolitan Revolution, Bruce Katz and Jennifer Bradley highlight success stories and the people behind them. New York City Efforts are under way to diversify the city's vast economy. Portland is selling the sustainability solutions it has perfected to other cities around the world. Northeast Ohio Groups are using industrial age skills to invent new twenty-first century materials, tools and processes. Houston Modern settlement house helps immigrants climb the employment ladder. Miami Innovators are forging strong ties with Brazil and other nations. Denver and Los Angeles Leaders are breaking political barriers and building world class metropolises. Boston and Detroit Innovation districts are hatching ideas to power these economies for the next century. The lessons in this book can help other cities meet their challenges. Change is happening and every community in the country can benefit. Change happens where we live and if leaders won't do it, citizens should demand it. The Metropolitan Revolution was the 2013 Foreword Reviews Bronze winner for Political Science. Reporting the War John Byrne Cooke, 2007-10-16 Threats to freedom of the press and the need for democratic dialogue are always greatest in wartime. At a time when the debate over the role of the free press is as contentious as ever before, John Byrne Cooke, son of the veteran journalist Alistair Cooke, delivers a must-read exploration of freedom of the press in wartime throughout American history. Reporting the War brings to life how the press has affected the course of some but not all American wars, how the government has tried to suppress opposing opinion, how the press has struggled and continues to struggle to preserve the principles of the Founding Fathers. Cooke charts a fascinating journey from the American Revolution to the ongoing War on Terrorism. The Broadcast Decency Enforcement Act of 2004 United States. Congress. House. What We Don't Talk About When We Talk About Fat Aubrey Gordon, 2020-11-17 From the creator of Your Fat Friend and co host of the Maintenance Phase podcast an explosive indictment of the systemic and cultural bias facing plus size people Anti fatness is everywhere In What We Don t Talk About When We Talk About Fat Aubrey Gordon unearths the cultural attitudes and social systems that have led to people being denied basic needs because they are fat and calls for social justice movements to be inclusive of plus sized people s experiences Unlike the recent wave of memoirs and quasi self help books that encourage readers to love and accept themselves Gordon pushes the discussion further towards authentic fat activism which includes ending legal weight discrimination giving equal access to health care for large people increased access to public spaces and ending anti fat violence As she argues I did not come to body positivity for self esteem I came to it for social justice By sharing her experiences as well as those of others from smaller fat to very fat people she concludes that to be fat in our society is to be seen as an undeniable failure unlovable unforgivable and morally condemnable Fatness is an open invitation for others to express disgust fear and insidious concern To be fat is to be denied humanity and empathy Studies show that fat survivors of sexual assault are less likely to be believed and less likely than their thin counterparts to report various crimes 27% of very fat women and 13% of very fat men attempt suicide over 50% of doctors describe their fat patients as awkward unattractive ugly and noncompliant and in 48 states it's legal even routine to deny employment because of an applicant's size Advancing fat justice and changing prejudicial structures and attitudes will require work from all people What We Don't Talk About When We Talk About Fat is a crucial tool to create a tectonic shift in the way we see talk about and treat our bodies fat and thin alike

A Watchman in the Night Cal Thomas, 2023-05-09 When Cal Thomas speaks I try to listen I've been listening to him for a LONG time Mike Huckabee For more than 40 years Cal Thomas had a front row seat to some of America's most contentious public policy debates And for more than four decades Cal wielded his pen to speak truth to power and to advance traditional conservative values Cal's stories and tales from that front row as the watchman are sure to entertain Mike Pence A new bestselling page turner Washington Examiner This is what I have done and am continuing to do as I seek to serve God first and then my country Cal Thomas Cal Thomas one of the most popular syndicated columnists in the country is America's Watchman in the night In A Watchman in the Night Cal Thomas takes the reader on a road trip through over fifty years of journalism and American life serving as a watchman on culture and politics and seeking to conform it to a standard that never changes A watchman keeps guard over a building at night to protect it from fire vandals or thieves Thomas is a believer that certain values and principles never change and has critiqued misbehavior and wrong headedness by people on his side from the start If values and Truth mean anything Thomas says they must be applied equally Hypocrisy and heresy cannot be ignored no matter the source In the book Thomas does not stigmatize labels such as conservative and religious because Thomas says It allows people to define me and others by their perception of those labels Ask me a question and I will give you my answer For over fifty years in journalism Thomas has offered incisive humorous and often corrective commentary to our social political and religious conversations An early commitment to addressing publicly what he sees has marked Thomas entire career Cal has always called both parties both sides of the American political divide to account to take the high road and to honor our civic and religious ideals with compatible behavior to the very best of our ability This increasingly radical approach to public life has won him many friends on both sides of the political aisle hundreds of thousands of faithful readers of his columns and a continuous barrage of accolades and hate mail much of it charming when it is not too foul to repeat Cal came to the Christian faith while a young journalist at a dinner led by Dr Richard Halverson Pastor at Fourth Presbyterian Church in Bethesda MD and later Chaplain of the United States Senate This experience informed the rest of Cal s life as he hosted his own private dinners for members of the press and members of Congress from both parties leading to deep friendships with Senator Ted Kennedy and many others friendships which became a hallmark of Cal s life despite wide political differences For over two decades Cal has hosted the National Prayer Breakfast Media Dinner as a continuation of his commitment to the reality that a relationship with Jesus Christ can change a person s life and ultimately change a nation and that things of such import are best discussed over dinner The book includes tones about faith but focuses on American social cultural and political currents A Watchman in the Night What I ve Seen Over 50 Years Reporting on America is a living history of our times of who we were then and who we are now and who we might become for better or worse in the future and a remarkable chronicle of modern American life
