,1892 Glasgow Medical Journal ,1913 Newsprint Literature and Local Literary Creativity in West Africa, 1900s-1960s Stephanie Newell, 2023 Winner 2024 Gustav Ranis International Book Prize Groundbreaking examination of literary production in West African newspapers and local printing presses in the first half of the 20th century which adds an African perspective to transatlantic Black studies and shows how African newsprint creativity has shaped readers ways of imagining subjectivity and society under colonialism From their inception in the 1880s African owned newspapers in British West Africa carried an abundance of creative writing by local authors largely in English Yet to date this rich and vast array of work has largely been ignored in critical discussion of African literature and cultural history. This book for the first time explores this under studied archive of ephemeral writing from serialised fiction to poetry and short stories philosophical essays articles on local history travelogues and reviews and letters and argues for its inclusion in literary genres and anglophone world literatures Combining in depth case studies of creative writing in the Ghana and Nigeria press with a major reappraisal of the Nigerian pamphlets known as Onitsha market literature and focusing on non elite authors the author examines hitherto neglected genres styles languages and crucially readerships She shows how local print cultures permeated African literary production charting changes in literary tastes and transformations to genres and styles as they absorbed elements of globally circulating English texts into formats for local consumption Offering fresh trajectories for thinking about local and transnational African literary networks while remaining attuned to local textual cultures in contexts of colonial power relations anticolonial nationalism the Cold War and global circuits of cultural exchange this important book reveals new insights into ephemeral literature as significant sites of literary production and contributes to filling a gap in scholarship on colonial West Africa Current literature of the month ,1924 Peterson's Guide to Graduate and Professional Programs, an Overview ,1995 Microwave Antenna Theory and Design Samuel Silver, 1984 This book covers the basic principles and fundamental microwave antenna types and techniques Musical News ,1892 Platers' Guide .1922
