Mission Kula Gulf Missions 5:

The Imperial Japanese Navy in the Pacific War Mark Stille, 2014-11-20 A highly illustrated examination of the key ships tactics and operations of the Imperial Japanese Navy in the War in the Pacific in World War II The Imperial Japanese Navy IJN was the third most powerful navy in the world at the start of World War II and came to dominate the Pacific in the early months of the war This was a remarkable turnaround for a navy that only began to modernize in 1868 although defeats inflicted on the Russians and Chinese in successive wars at the turn of the century gave a sense of the threat the IJN was to pose Bringing together for the first time material previously published in Osprey series books and with the addition of new writing making use of the most recent research this book details the Japanese ships which fought in the Pacific and examines the principles on which they were designed how they were armed when and where they were deployed and how effective they were in battle The Imperial Japanese Navy in the Pacific War provides a history of the IJN s deployment and engagements analysis of the evolution of strategy and tactics and finally addresses the question of whether it truly was a modern navy fully prepared for the rigors of combat in the Pacific Illustrated throughout with photographs and detailed colour artworks this is a valuable reference source for Pacific War enthusiasts and historians alike Statistical Atlas of

Christian Missions Harlan Page Beach, James S. Dennis, Charles Harvey Fahs, Samuel M. Zwemer, 1910 Imperial Japanese Navy Destroyers 1919-45 (1) Mark Stille, 2013-03-20 A detailed illustrated look at the earliest seven classes of destroyer fielded by the Imperial Japanese Navy of World War II Several classes of Japanese destroyer were built before the war This includes the famous Fubuki class called Special Type by the Japanese which were when completed in the late 1920 s the most powerful class of destroyers in the world This design forced all other major navies to follow suite and provided the basic design for the next many classes of Imperial Navy destroyers This book also examines the three classes built before the Special Type which were based on a German World War I design as well as two classes built afterward Pacific War expert Mark Stille evaluates the success of these designs from the first battles of the Pacific War up until the death sortie of the superbattleship Yamato and compares them to similar Allied destroyer designs World Atlas of Christian Missions Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions, 1911 Sealift, 1970 Sealift Magazine, 1966 New Georgia Ronnie Day, 2016-02-15 A detailed up to date integrated air land sea history of a pivotal WWII campaign in the Pacific from both American and Japanese perspectives Vincent P O Hara author of In Passage Perilous In 1942 the Solomon Islands formed the stepping stones toward Rabaul the main base of Japanese operations in the South Pacific and the Allies primary objective The stunning defeat of Japanese forces at the Naval Battle of Guadalcanal in November marked the turning point in the war against Japan and the start of an offensive in the Central Solomons aimed at New Georgia New Georgia The Second Battle for the Solomons tells the story of the land sea and air battles fought there from March through October 1943 Making careful and copious use of both Japanese and Allied sources Ronnie Day masterfully weaves the intricate threads of these battles into a well crafted narrative of this pivotal period in the war As Day makes clear combat in the Solomons exemplified the war in the Pacific especially the importance of air power something the Japanese failed to understand until it was too late and the strategy of island hopping bypassing Japanese strongholds including Rabaul in favor of weaker or more strategically advantageous targets This multifaceted account gives the fighting for New Georgia its proper place in the history of the drive to break the Japanese defensive perimeter and bring the homeland within range of Allied bombers
