Vickers took charge of the CIA's secret war against the Soviets in Afghanistan. After inheriting a strategy aimed at imposing costs on the Soviets for their invasion and occupation of Afghanistan, Vickers transformed the covert campaign into an all-out effort to help the Afghan resistance win their war. More than any other American, he was responsible for the outcome in Afghanistan that led to the end of the Cold War. In By All Means Available, Vickers recounts his remarkable career from his days as a Green Beret to his vision for victory in Afghanistan to his role in waging America's war with al Qaeda at the highest levels of government. In captivating detail, he depicts his years in the Special Forces, including his training to parachute behind enemy lines with a backpack nuclear weapon in the event of a Soviet invasion of Western Europe, and reveals how those experiences directly influenced his approach to shaping policy. Vickers has played a significant role in most of the military and intelligence operations of the past four decades, and he offers a deeply informed analysis of the greatest challenges facing America today and in the decades ahead. Riveting and illuminating, this is a rare and important insider's account of the modern military and intelligence worlds at every level. Zanzibar to Sinkiang Farhat Jah, 2010-05-07

Enthralled by trains, fascinated by Asia, Farhat Jah always wanted to take the Trans-Siberian express. In November 2007, he boarded the Rossiya in Moscow's Eastern Station with the idea of crossing a quarter of the globe and getting on with his life. This started a series of rail journeys across some of the most complex nations in Asia. Covering Russia, Mongolia, China,

Zanzibar to Sinkiang takes the reader through some of Asia's most complex nations. Prisoner X Rafael

Epstein, 2014-03-01 The urgent phone call comes from behind the barbed wire. This is Ayalon prison, says one of the guards urgently. Listen, he hanged himself, we need an ambulance. Prisoner X, just 34 years old, was slumped in a small bathroom, separated from his cell by a transparent door. Kept in one of the most technologically sophisticated solitary jail cells at the behest of one of the world's most feared intelligence agencies, it is not easy to kill yourself. But Ben Zygier managed to do just that. Did he work for Mossad? Was he also working for ASIO? Was he involved in the supply of false passports? Was he a whistleblower or double agent or simply a young man way out of his depth? In Prisoner X, Rafael Epstein uncovers the intriguing story of a young Australian swept up in international intelligence. India, Europe and Pakistan Professor Rajendra K

Jain, 2017-09-15 Containing thirteen chapters by Indian and European scholars and practitioners, this volume critically examines the multifarious domestic and external challenges that Pakistan confronts today. It discusses the vicissitudes of the European Union's relations with Pakistan and the cultural, economic, political, and military relations of Central Europe and key European countries, France, Germany, and the United Kingdom with Pakistan. The study highlights the different approaches of India and the European Union towards the Kashmir dispute and the considerations, concerns, and policy of the EU towards democracy promotion in Pakistan. It also seeks to answer the question whether the relationship between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and Pakistan is a transactional relationship or an enduring partnership. The book analyses the problems faced by Pakistan's oil and gas sector and the challenges and opportunities for European companies to expand Pakistan's energy basket The volume examines the nature dynamics and challenges of social integration and political participation by the Pakistani diaspora in the United Kingdom It also explores the political context that shapes both policy and discourse on immigrant integration with special reference to the Pakistani diaspora s lived experience in three Scandinavian countries The study will be of interest to all those engaged in the fields of political science international relations European politics and foreign policy and Indian and South Asian politics and foreign policy
