Jogdankar, Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in High School Mark Newman, Xiaoning Chen, 2021-11-15 Teaching Social Studies to Multilingual Learners in High School Connecting Inquiry and Visual Literacy to Promote Progressive Learning explores effective strategies for teaching social studies to diverse learners The centerpiece is a visual literacy framework that integrates inquiry primary source analysis and visual literacy to provide a progressive learning sequence to meet the varied needs of learners The visual literacy framework brings together related aspects of progressive sequential learning into a cohesive whole It has an adaptable structure that allows teachers to customize learning activities to meet individual student needs The progressive learning sequence has varied modes of learning that help teachers move students from basic to proficient to advanced levels of support The book is organized into two related parts The first three chapters provide important content and context on social studies multilingual learner education and the visual literacy framework The remaining chapters discuss civics U S history world history geography and economics and social sciences Each chapter defines the subject area briefly traces its development as a high school subject over time and then offers classroom exercises for using the visual literacy framework in these disciplines The exercises are plotted so that differing levels of the visual literacy framework are explored throughout the book Textbooks and Educational Media: Perspectives from Subject Education Péter Bagoly-Simó, Zuzana Sikorová, 2021-08-05 This book brings together empirical research and conceptual work on textbooks and education media from 13 countries and 17 disciplines Along with textbook production usage and development it also explores the interconnectedness of educational policy and teaching and learning materials Further the book offers insights into regional and local discourses e g specific theories of Portuguese and Spanish speaking countries as well as Nordic countries contrasting their theories with international literature practices and solutions with regard to teaching selected subjects at the pre primary primary secondary and tertiary level This book also discusses the specific combinations of subjects e g Physics Biology Geography Swedish English and their subject specific education e g Physics Education or Didactics Lastly it examines the work of a number of early career researchers giving them a voice and bringing in fresh ideas currently being developed in various countries around the globe This proceedings volume will appeal to publishers subject educators in primary secondary and tertiary education and academic researchers from the fields of textbooks educational media and subject specific education Its international authorship and explicit focus on subject specific particularities of educational media provide a unique and comprehensive overview EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all UNESCO, 2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education

Understanding Sustainability with Pedagogical Practice Osvaldo Muñoz Solari, Gabriele Schrüfer, 2023-07-30 This book shares with an international audience of teachers scholars and policymakers the experience of pedagogical practices to facilitate sustainability in the world Sustainability is seen here as a journey toward the end state of sustainable development Therefore the authors contribute different roads to engage teachers and students with pedagogical discourse Overall the book demonstrates the value of powerful knowledge through action oriented learning based on a bottom up process Consequently pedagogical practices are understood as the instructional approaches based on a social constructivist model in which active learning is performed with student to student engagement Secondary teachers in social sciences and university professors in geography find the study to be a valuable source of stimulation for incorporating new ideas and resolving common problems in their learning and teaching environments Education policymakers around the world also benefit from the only publication that presents international perspectives on geographical knowledge related to sustainability The contributing authors are experienced scientists in the field of geography education who are giving special attention to pedagogical practices that promote new directions toward sustainable thinking This book is the first outcome of an international collaboration officially established in 2023 between the Department of Geography and Environmental Studies at Texas State University and the Department of Geography at the University of Bayreuth The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment Dominic Wyse, Louise Hayward, Jessica Pandya, 2015-12-03 The research and debates surrounding curriculum pedagogy and assessment are ever growing and are of constant importance around the globe With two volumes containing chapters from highly respected researchers whose work has been critical to understanding and building expertise in the field The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum Pedagogy and Assessment focuses on examining how curriculum is treated and developed and its impact on pedagogy and assessment worldwide The Handbook is organised into five thematic sections considering The epistemology and methodology of curriculum Curriculum and pedagogy Curriculum subjects Areas of the curriculum Assessment and the curriculum The curriculum and educational policy The SAGE Handbook of Curriculum Pedagogy and Assessment s breadth and rigour will make it essential reading for researchers and postgraduate students around the world Civics and Citizenship Education in Australia Andrew Peterson,Libby Tudball,2016-11-17 Civics and Citizenship Education in Australia provides a comprehensive analysis of teaching and learning in this field in Australian schools drawing on case study material to demonstrate the current practice in the field Reflecting on the issues and possibilities raised by the inclusion of civics and citizenship education in the new national Australian curriculum leading national and international scholars analyse the subject s theoretical curricular and pedagogical bases and approaches Placing civics and citizenship education within historical and contemporary contexts the book critically explores a range of issues concerning the development organisation and teaching of the subject These include how the subject might include indigenous global and Asian perspectives and how it may help students to engage with issues around sustainability active citizenship diversity religion and values The final chapters written by scholars from England the USA Canada Hong Kong and Singapore adopt a comparative approach situating Australian civics and citizenship education in the wider international context Assessment in Geographical Education: An International Perspective Theresa Bourke,Reece Mills,Rod Lane,2022-02-27 In recent years there has been increased attention paid to the importance of assessment in Geographical Education the chosen subject for this book Assessment is an important tool for collecting information about student learning and for providing timely data to inform key stakeholders including students teachers parents and policymakers To be effective assessment needs to be valid reliable and fair Validity is about ensuring that we assess what we claim we are assessing Reliability is about measuring performance and understanding in a consistent way Without validity and reliability assessment is unlikely to provide equitable opportunities for students to demonstrate what they know and can do As geography educators it is therefore important that we identify the core concepts and skills in geography that we want students to master We need a clear understanding of what the progression of learning looks like for each concept and skill so we can develop fit for purpose assessments that track and improve student learning While there is a substantial literature on evidence based assessment in secondary school contexts research exploring best practice assessment in geography is rare This is a concern given the distinctive nature of geography and the important role of assessment in the learning process This scholarly collection seeks to address this issue by connecting research in educational assessment with the domain of geography The chapters are written by leading researchers in Geographical Education from across the globe These chapters provide examples of innovation through the collective voices of geography teacher educator scholars from across Australia USA South Korea Germany Switzerland and Singapore What unifies the work in this book is that each chapter focuses on a key feature of the discipline of geography providing scholarly examples of evidence based practices for assessing student s knowledge and skills Education for All 2000-2015: Achievements and challenges UNESCO,2015-04-08
