Smyth,2025-07-21 Where should public history sit within the matrix of global international trans national and more local histories Since its emergence in the 1970s Public History has typically been read as community oriented and more local in its applications The academic field in particular has developed along national lines and indeed we see in the many monographs edited books and journals that have emerged a distinct tendency to consider public history as understandable mostly in its relation to the nation state and its attendant mythologies The meta narratives that public history pushes against are the building blocks of national histories political military and heroic histories Conceiving of a global public history seems to have more radical potential than an international public history which arguably simply collects these national histories What would a global public history look like and how can it disrupt the field if interpreted radically This book will centre the work of scholars and professionals in the field of Public History It will offer novel reflections on postgraduate Public History learning work experience and application from recent graduates and partnered institutions A mix of theory and practice traditional and creative methodologies it demonstrates the value of integrating work experience practitioner workshops and close collaboration in Public History training Transfer Pricing and Value Creation Raffaele Petruzzi,Romero J.S. Tavares Esq.,2019-09-02 Value Creation and its effects on Transfer Pricing and tax law Emerging from the OECD G20 BEPS Project a new somewhat fuzzy notion of Value Creation came to permeate not only Transfer Pricing language but also wider allocation rules and anti abuse provisions in international tax law The notion of Value Creation reframes the interpretation and application of the Arm s Length Principle ALP that is embedded in Articles 7 and 9 of the OECD Model Convention This new Value Creation notion and approach assist in understanding key enterprise functions while different industry sectors manifest these concepts in various ways Situating such notions and this approach within the law of tax treaties and analyzing terms of the OECD Transfer Pricing Guidelines alongside their factual context is the aim of this book Here law students address Transfer Pricing and Value Creation in sectors as varied as commodities trade automotive consumer products food and beverages pharmaceutical and life sciences telecommunications and the key topic of value creation in a digitalized economy Our LL M students were required to address issues not explored in legal research and to discuss factual topics relevant for Transfer Pricing All students focused on topics that are new to the international tax debate that keep evolving and on factual matters that often escape legal research

Pageant World History Gerald Leinwand, 1990 Dear students I want to share a dream with you I dreamed that a young person of 14 whom I was going to be teaching would become president of the United States during the first half of the twenty first century As a teacher I was struck by this immense responsibility What should I teach my student about the world as preparation for this awesome task How could my world history class help this person to mature into an intelligent and humane president and leader of the free world
