Investments Asia Global Edition Solution:

Global Problems, Smart Solutions Bjørn Lomborg, 2013-11-14 A high profile thought experiment asks leading scholars to make cases for spending additional aid money to combat major world problems

Asia's Entrepreneurs Virginia Cha, Jennifer Lien, 2013-10-28 This book is a collection of technology startup cases in Asia told in a narrative form to give readers an insider view to how innovators and technopreneurs view entrepreneurial opportunities from use of technology how the technopreneurs raise funding to support their vision and the subsequent relationship of the technopreneurs and their investors The book illustrates some of the cases using the theory of effectuation The book is divided into four sections Part One chronicles case studies of technopreneurs who raised capital but had difficulty with managing the investor expectations and relationship to the detriment of the venture Part Two chronicles case studies of technopreneurs who started their ventures without venture capital with some who later raised capital at a much later stage and were able to exit successfully All case studies are of technology ventures in Asia from the mid 1990 s where venture capital and entrepreneur ecosystem were under developed Lessons learned from the various case studies are told from a practitioner s perspective Part Three describes the development of the venture ecosystem specifically in Singapore a city state aspiring to follow the Silicon Valley model The technopreneurs in Parts I and II play the roles of mentors investors in the newly developing system Part Four includes two new young technology ventures fund raising dilemmas written in a teaching case format The book can be used by practitioners and by educators for developing a deep understanding on the issues of raising capital for the purpose of growing the venture and the trade offs of capital from the different groups of investors and their financial terms It is useful to young and mid career professionals looking at starting a technology venture in Asia

Public Problems - Private Solutions? Simon Raiser, 2017-11-30 Cities and city regions are undergoing rapid transformation They are prime locations of innovation while at the same time facing growing problems of spatial fragmentation and social exclusion By addressing these problems cities become forerunners for new patterns of governance which include increasingly private actors While research on global cities has focused primarily on the world s leading financial and economic centres comparative research on the changing role of large complex cities in the developing world is less advanced But it is here where public problems are most seriously threatening the cohesion of urban society and where the need for new answers is most urgent Illustrated by in depth examinations of four city regions Shanghai Mumbai Johannesburg and S o Paulo this book readdresses this balance The book revisits the same set of cities from different angles thereby reflecting urban contradictions juxtapositions and disjunctures

Global Crises, Global Solutions Bjørn Lomborg, 2004-10-25 A unique publication exploring the opportunities for addressing ten of the most serious challenges facing the world today Climate Change Communicable Diseases Conflicts Education Financial Instability Corruption Migration Malnutrition and Hunger Trade Barriers Access to Water In a world fraught with problems and challenges we need to gauge how to achieve the greatest good with our money Global Crises Global Solutions provides a rich set of arguments and data for prioritising our response most effectively Each problem is introduced by a world renowned expert defining the scale of the problem and describing the costs and benefits of a range of policy options to improve the situation Each challenge is evaluated by economists from North America Europe and China who attempt a ranking of the most promising options Whether you agree or disagree with the analysis or conclusions Global Crises Global Solutions provides a serious yet accessible springboard for debate and discussion

World in Transition: Ways Towards Global Environmental Solutions German Advisory Council on Global change (WBGU),2012-12-06 At the first Conference of the Parties of the Climate Convention in Berlin in Spring 1995 it became evident once again To counteract anthropogenic climate changes individuals as well as societies have to change their way of thinking and behavior This accounts for other areas of global environmental change as well Global trends like soil degradation loss of biological diversity water scarcity and population growth show little or no sign of improvement In fact in most areas a rapid deterioration has taken place In its latest Report the German Advisory Council on Global Change describes Ways Towards Global Environmental Solutions

Global Problems, Global Solutions JoAnn Chirico,2018-10-11 Global Problems Global Solutions Prospects for a Better World by JoAnn Chirico approaches social problems from a global perspective with an emphasis on using one s sociological imagination Perfect for instructors who involve students in research this text connects problems borne by individuals to regional global and historical forces and stresses the importance of evidence in forming opinions and policies addressing social issues The book introduces readers to the complexities of the major problems that confront us today such as violent conflict poverty climate change human trafficking and other issues that we encounter in our lives It book concludes with a chapter on politics and government underscoring the need for good governance at all levels and cooperation among many layers of government to build a better world
