A Load of Old Barracks Martin Nugent, 2025-10-29 This book gathers a collection of anecdotes from the author's years of service in the Irish Defence Forces both at home and abroad Originally shared on Facebook these light hearted and reflective pieces offer a glimpse into army life with the 12th Infantry Battalion and 3rd Garrison Military Police Company as well as overseas with the 51st Infantry Battalion UNIFIL in Lebanon and 4 Camp Command UNFICYP in Cyprus From daily routines and absurd mishaps to the camaraderie that defines military life the stories celebrate the humour and heart that thrive even in the most unlikely of places What began as a few casual posts among friends has become a warm and entertaining tribute to those who served and to the moments both ordinary and extraordinary that shaped their journeys

Representing Abortion Rachel Alpha Johnston Hurst, 2020-11-23 Representing Abortion analyses how artists writers performers and activists make abortion visible audible and palpable within contexts dominated by anti abortion imagery centred on the fetus and the erasure of the pregnant person challenging the polarisation of conversations about abortion This book illuminates the manifold ways that abortion is depicted and narrated by artists performers clinicians writers and activists This representational work offers nuanced and complex understandings of abortion personally and politically Analyses of such representations are urgently needed as access to abortion is diminished and anti abortion representations of the fetus continue to dominate the cultural horizon for thinking about abortion Expanding the frame of reference for understanding abortion beyond the anti abortion use of the fetal image contributors to this collection push beyond narrow abstractions to examine representations of the experience and procedure of abortion within grounded histories politics and social contexts The collection is organized into sections around seeing and not seeing abortion fetal materiality abortion storytelling and memoir and representations for new arguments These themes cover a range of topics including abortion visibility anti abortion discourse pro choice engagements with the fetus personal experience and media representations The analyses of such representations counteract anti abortion rhetoric carving out space for new arguments for abortion that are more representative and inclusive and asking audiences to envision new ways to advocate for safe abortion access through reproductive justice frameworks This is an innovative and challenging collection that will be of key interest for scholars studying reproductive rights and reproductive justice as well as women and gender studies Representing Abortion is organized to structure upper year undergraduate and graduate courses on reproductive rights and reproductive justice in a new and engaging way

The Glorious Madness - Tales of the Irish and the Great War
Turtle Bunbury, 2014-10-17 From tragic generals to nuns on the run the extraordinary stories of the Irish on the frontlines of the First World War that you've never heard before Based on first hand accounts of the First World War The Glorious Madness is a collection of character portraits and stirring anecdotes that brings to life the hopes fears and ambitions that defined the generation of Irish men and women lost to the catastrophe of the first great modern war From the generals and field commanders through to the troopers and nurses on the front lines from the trenches of the Somme to the beaches of Gallipoli the Irish served at every turn in the Great War Popular historian Turtle Bunbury is renowned for uncovering important forgotten stories from our past Here he reveals many never before heard tales of the Irish heroes and heroines whose lives coincided with one of the most brutal conflicts our world has ever known including nuns artists sportsmen poets aristocrats nationalists nurses clergymen and film directors From the dramatic story of the nuns of Ypres and their escape to Ireland to found Kylemore Abbey to the multiple escapist who became the one legged nemesis of Michael Collins and the five tragic rugby loving pals from the same Dublin team massacred at Gallipoli the stories that Turtle Bunbury unearths about Irish men and women offer a new and timely perspective on Irish participation in the Great War An important book by turns poignant enlightening whimsical and darkly comic this is history as it should be free wheeling and finely tuned to the rhythms of the human heart

Reviews In The Glorious Madness Turtle continues the wonderful listening and yarn spinning he has honed in the Vanishing Ireland series applying it to veterans of the First World War The stories he recreates are poignant whimsical and bleakly funny bringing back into the light the lives of people who found themselves on the wrong side of history after the struggle for Irish independence This is my kind of micro history John Grenham The Irish Times A wonderful book packed with great individual stories and pictures which bring the Irish participation in the Great War vividly alive Sean Farrell Irish Independent Based on first hand accounts of the conflict this collection of character portraits and stirring anecdotes brings to life the hopes fears and ambitions that defined Ireland's lost generation Peter Costello The Irish Catholic Turtle Bunbury's book about the Great War is a great read a dramatic confection of remarkable stories about remarkable events and individuals slapped together with great dexterity and professionalism This is military history as entertainment on a scale we have not seen since well the First World War This is one book that can be judged by its cover P draig Yeates Dublin Review of Books The impressively versatile Turtle Bunbury is known for his sensitively written well observed Vanishing Ireland series of books and his appearance on RTE's Genealogy Roadshow. He also toured this year as one of the lecturers in the Great War Roadshow headed by Myles Dungan. Now also marking the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War, Bunbury marches into what once would have been a no man's land for historians. There is much to enjoy here. Bunbury has an eye for irony and pathos and a fluid, attractive writing style. It's packed with personalities and stories of courage under fire amid truly unimaginable slaughter of mind-boggling military incompetence and of individuals emotionally afflicted by reports of courage in another cause at home. Emmanuel Kehoe, Sunday Business Post. The Oxford Handbook of Irish Politics David M. Farrell, Niamh Hardiman, 2021. This handbook provides the most comprehensive coverage of Irish politics and society to date and is the go-to resource for academics, students, policy makers and journalists. From One End of the Rainbow Frank Sumner, 2013-08. From One End of the Rainbow: A Story about the Life Inside the Irish Defence Forces and Beyond is about how the truth can be clouded by what's perceived as reality. With the truth, everybody is blameless. There are no fall guys, no victims, no reason, no justice, just a carefully woven sequence of events with no beginning and no end that will stand the test of time. Thirty-two years later, the truth is confronted with reality. The whole panoramic consequences of that takes its toll on the conscience and raises its head to be exposed in its very raw format. This invites the reader to determine the real truth, be the judge and the jury and pass sentence. It exposes the real politics of the Government. How, in fact, the privileged are protected at all costs. It ascribes the destitute feeling of betrayal that eats into the very vertebrae of the real meaning of military life. The book also gives an insight into daily military life, the characters, the routine and the effect it has on family life. Being a soldier is a vocation that can only be compared to religious life because the feeling is the same when you retire. The reality is an old soldier never dies. The Revelation of Ireland Diarmaid Ferriter, 2024-09-05. THE NUMBER 1 IRISH TIMES BESTSELLER, SHORTLISTED FOR THE IRISH BOOK AWARDS, HISTORY BOOK OF THE YEAR 2024. An Irish Times Book of the Year 2024. Ireland is a strikingly different country now to the one it was in the mid 1990s. Dramatic economic, social and cultural changes, including the Celtic Tiger boom and increasingly secular debate about abortion, the status of women and same-sex marriage, underlined the scale of the transformation. The new diversity of the population and literary and musical prowess also revealed a country experiencing rapid alteration. The road to peace that saw an end to war in Northern Ireland and culminated in the first visit to southern Ireland of a reigning British monarch in 100 years illuminated the new Anglo-Irish dynamic. Explosive revelations about deep betrayals from the past destroyed the credibility of the traditionally powerful Catholic Church. And in the wake of the 2008 financial crash, Ireland rebounded and rebuilt to great success but remained plagued by health and housing failures. Economic recovery, the end of civil war politics, ever closer European involvement and Anglo-Irish highs were followed by Brexit lows and increasing talk of Irish unity. There is much to open people's eyes in this riveting account of contemporary Ireland. As the Republic enters its second century of independence and the North continues to grapple with the legacy of the Troubles, Diarmaid Ferriter makes historical sense of post-1990s Ireland and what lies in the
