Wiley FRM Exam Review Study Guide 2016 Part I Volume 1 Wiley,2016-01-19 The Future of Mobility Liisa Ecola,Johanna Zmud,Kun Gu,Peter Phleps,Irene Feige,2015-07 Researchers developed two scenarios to envision the future of mobility in China in 2030 Economic growth the presence of constraints on vehicle ownership and driving and environmental conditions differentiate the scenarios By making potential long term mobility futures more vivid the team sought to help decisionmakers at different levels of government and in the private sector better anticipate and prepare for change China in Africa Suisheng Zhao,2017-10-02 China s expansion and growing influence in Africa is arguably the most remarkable global political and economic development in the 21st century China s foray into Africa started in the late 1990s propelled by its desire to obtain new sources of raw materials and energy for its economic growth as well as new markets for its manufactured goods While China s no political strings attached policy proves attractive to many of African leaders China has been criticized as neo colonialist interested solely in stripping Africa of its mineral wealth without proper environmental or social precautions This book addresses the controversy by exploring the motivations and practices of China s African engagement providing a comprehensive account of the intensified interactions between China and African states The first part examines the debate surrounding whether China has pursued a neo colonialist path in Africa by looking at the perception of China by the locals and the challenges that the intensified relationship has posed for African states The second part analyses China s strategic motivations to see if Beijing has acquired sustaining power and influence in Africa in competition with the West The third part focuses on economic and business practices of Chinese companies in Africa as well as China Africa trade patterns The articles in this book were originally published in special issues of the Journal of Contemporary China Handbook of Environmental and Sustainable Finance Vikash Ramiah,Greg N. Gregoriou,2015-10-28 The use of financial concepts and tools to shape development is hardly new but their recent adoption by advocates of sustainable environmental management has created opportunities for innovation in business and regulatory groups The Handbook of Environmental and Sustainable Finance summarizes the latest trends and attitudes in environmental finance balancing empirical research with theory and applications It captures the evolution of environmental finance from a niche scholarly field to a mainstream subdiscipline and it provides glimpses of future directions for research Covering implications from the Kyoto and Paris Protocols it presents an intellectually cohesive examination of problems opportunities and metrics worldwide Introduces the latest developments in environmental economics sustainable accounting work and environmental sustainable finance Explores the effects of environmental regulation on the economy and businesses Emphasizes research about the trade environmental regulation nexus relevant for economics and business students Saudi Arabia in a Multipolar World Zakir Hussain,2016-04-14 The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has established itself as the twelfth largest economy in the world the largest West Asian economic power world s largest oil producer and a strong and capable force in international politics particularly in the Sunni Islamic world However at present it is at crossroads Should it continue as a kingdom or usher in the process of inclusive political representation This volume answers such questions and explores how the state is coping with domestic regional and global developments to remain relevant in the changing times It provides a holistic overview of a slew of economic political cultural military and security policy measures that have been initiated by the government The work also offers a detailed analysis of Saudi Arabia s relations with three significant powers USA China and India and how they are evolving under new geopolitical and geostrategic dynamics This book will interest strategists policymakers researchers and students of international relations geopolitics political science and political economy as well as the informed reader

Environmental Challenges and Governance Sacchidananda Mukherjee, Debashis Chakraborty, 2015-03-02 The economies located in East South and Southeast Asia have witnessed an interesting growth sustainability trade off over the last decades While growth considerations have paved ways for deepened ties with growing trade investment waves and increasing population pressure necessitated exploitation of hitherto unutilized natural resources focus on environmental sustainability has been a recent consideration The growth impetus still playing a key role in these economies it becomes imperative that the countries effectively address the key sustainability concerns e g air and water pollution land degradation loss of biodiversity climate change issues like CO2 emissions etc But how prepared is the governance mechanism of these countries covering not only the legislative and administrative framework but also involvement of the judiciary presence of spirited civil society and active engagement of stakeholders in policy framing dialogues to rise up to these challenges The book seeks an answer to this question through the environmental governance mechanism and natural resource conservation policies in three vibrant regions within Asia A holistic development dimension of sustainable development path emerges through discussion of policies adopted by developed Japan South Korea upper middle China Malaysia developing India Indonesia Philippines Sri Lanka Thailand and least developed countries Bangladesh Myanmar Nepal

Management of International Institutions and NGOs Eduardo Missoni, Daniele Alesani, 2023-08-31 This second edition of Management of International Institutions and NGOs covers all key topics in global governance from a unique management perspective It analyzes the management challenges associated with international cooperation rather than the more commonly explored political or economic lenses This text is structured to enable students to connect theory with practice beginning with the main management frameworks developed in the context of corporate and national public nonprofit organizations and adapting them to the specificity of international institutions and international non governmental organizations This leads to the identification of a tailored approach to international organization management based on their institutional and operational settings stakeholder groups core business staff profiles and financial arrangements The authors then connect this theory with practice by linking frameworks to several case studies and best practices of organizations currently experimenting with management systems and tools with case studies including the World Bank and the Gates Foundation This edition has been extensively revised and updated with an expanded conceptual framework inclusive of systemic theories of organization new cases throughout and new chapters on leadership supply chain and operations and human centered digitization This comprehensive textbook is a must own resource for students and academics involved with studying and working with international organizations Errorless UPPSC

General Studies Prelim Paper 1 - 10 Year-wise Solved Papers (2010 - 19) Disha Experts,2020-07-21 Regional Peacemaking and Conflict Management Carmela Lutmar,Benjamin Miller,2015-11-06 This volume examines mechanisms for regional peacemaking and conflict management in Europe and the Middle East To date little research has been devoted to uncovering the conditions for peace and the factors that contribute to stabilizing the state of peace This volume assesses the factors that contribute to regional pacification the incentives that motivate states in establishing peaceful relations and most importantly how regions become peaceful It discusses the conditions under which various types of peace might emerge on a regional level and the factors most likely to determine the outcome The book takes an innovative approach through a systematic comparison of two regions that are particularly prominent and important for the subject of regional pacification Europe and the Middle East While many believe that the European case is the indispensable model for peacemaking others believe that these two regions are too different for Europe to be a useful framework for the Middle East This volume occupies a middle ground between these two extreme positions It argues that while a mindless copying of European models will not lead to peace in the Middle East important insights can be gained from the most successful case of regional peacemaking to date This work will be of much interest to students of regional security peacemaking conflict management Middle East politics European security and IR in general
