Assessing Children's Mathematical Knowledge Cooper, Barry, Dunne, Mairead, 1999-12-01 this work is highly relevant to the proliferation of accountability measures worldwide James Scheurich and Douglas Foley In many countries the lives of teachers and children are increasingly dominated by programmes of national testing of mathematics and other subjects In England the majority of the items in such tests have set mathematical tasks in every day situations such as shopping This requires children to make decisions about whether to use or not their own every day knowledge and experience in their problem solving Some children are likely to have a better feel for this game than others Assessing Children's Mathematical Knowledge draws on the analysis of national curriculum test data from more than 600 children of 10 11 and 13 14 years of age as well as in depth interviews with 250 of these as they attempt to solve test problems in order to explore the nature of the difficulties children experience with realistic items The book shows by comparing test and interview data that many children as a consequence of their confusion over the requirements of realistic test items fail in tests to demonstrate mathematical knowledge and understanding that they actually possess The book also explores whether this problem of invalid measurement is equally spread across children from different social backgrounds and across the sexes The book will be of interest to academics and teachers studying for advanced degrees in mathematics education sociology of education and educational assessment Third validation compendium report Great Britain: National Audit Office,2006-12-19 In 2004 the Government announced 110 Public Service Agreement PSA targets for 17 Departments covering the period 2005 08 PSA targets express the priority outcomes that Departments are seeking to achieve nationally and internationally and cover key aspects of the Government s social economic and environmental policy Large sums of public money are devoted to the programmes designed to deliver them This NAO report contains the detailed results of its examination of the data systems used by six government departments to monitor and report progress against their 2005 08 PSA targets covering a total of 65 data systems The six Departments are the Cabinet Office the Department for Culture Media and Sport the Department for Education and Skills the Department for the Environment Food and Rural Affairs the Ministry of Defence and HM Treasury Findings include that 75 per cent of the data systems used are broadly appropriate but less than half of these were fully fit for purpose Most required some action to strengthen measurement or reporting arrangements A companion volume HCP 127 I session 2006 07 ISBN 0102944040 is available separately which contains the NAO s summarised findings The Children's Buyer's Guide ,2006 Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom ,1995 The Secondary English Magazine ,2004 Primary Education Anna Craft,2002-09-11 This wide ranging sourcebook draws together a range of recent and specially commissioned pieces which examine how policy development and research findings have influenced planning and assessing learning for young children Topics covered include standards quality control league tables teacher and performance assessment It also looks at the enabling of learning focusing on authentic activity and learning implicit values the role of learner choice and classroom management The book also raises which will effect assessing and planning learning into the next century and sets an agenda for reform and development including teacher training funding of primary education early years education and entitlement in primary school New Statesman ,2008 Issues in Mathematics Teaching Peter Gates,2002-09-11 This book presents the key debates that the mathematics teacher will need to understand reflect on and engage in as part of their professional development Issues in Mathematics Teaching is suitable for those at initial training level right through to practising mathematics teachers Its accessible structure enables the reader to pursue the issues raised as each chapter includes suggestions for further reading and questions for reflection or debate Preparing to Teach in Secondary Schools Val Brooks,Ian Abbott,Prue
