Maurice Blanchot De Proche En Proche:

Maurice Blanchot, de proche en proche Daiana Dula-Manoury, 2008 Understanding Blanchot, Understanding Modernism Christopher Langlois, 2018-06-14 Maurice Blanchot occupies a central though still overlooked position in the Anglo American reception of 20th century continental philosophy and literary criticism On the one hand his rigorous yet always playful exchanges with the most challenging figures of the philosophical and literary canons of modernity have led thinkers such as Georges Bataille Emmanuel Levinas Jacques Derrida and Michel Foucault to acknowledge Blanchot as a major influence on the development of literary and philosophical culture after World War II On the other hand Blanchot's reputation for frustrating readers with his difficult style of thought and writing has resulted in a missed opportunity for leveraging Blanchot in advancing the most essential discussions and debates going on today in the comparative study of literature philosophy politics history ethics and art Blanchot's voice is simply too profound too erudite and too illuminating of what is at stake at the intersections of these disciplines not to be exercising more of an influence than it has in only a minority of intellectual circles Understanding Blanchot Understanding Modernism brings together an international cast of leading and emergent scholars in making the case for precisely what contemporary modernist studies stands to gain from close inspection of Blanchot's provocative post war writings Blanchot Romantique Hannes Opelt, 2011 The work of French writer and essayist Maurice Blanchot 1907-2003 is without doubt among the most challenging the twentieth century has to offer Contemporary debate in literature philosophy and politics has yet to fully acknowledge its discreet but enduring impact Arising from a conference that took place in Oxford in 2009 this book sets itself a simple if daunting task that of measuring the impact and responding to the challenge of Blanchot's work by addressing its engagement with the Romantic legacy in particular but not only that of the Jena Romantics Drawing upon a wide range of philosophers and poets associated directly or indirectly with German Romanticism Kant Fichte Goethe Jean Paul Novalis the Schlegels Hölderlin the authors of this volume explore how Blanchot's fictional critical and fragmentary texts rewrite and rethink the Romantic demand in relation to questions of criticism and reflexivity irony and subjectivity narrative and genre the sublime and the neutre the Work and the fragment quotation and translation Reading Blanchot with or against key twentieth century thinkers Benjamin Foucault de Man they also examine Romantic and post Romantic notions of history imagination literary theory melancholy affect love revolution community and other central themes that Blanchot's writings deploy across the century from Jean Paul Sartre to Jean Luc Nancy This book contains contributions in both English and French Lectures blanchotiennes de Malraux et Camus Emmanuelle Vanborre, Emmanuelle Anne Vanborre, 2010 Cette tude tente de cerner l'oeuvre de M Blanchot afin d'clairer partir d'elle certains ouvrages d'A Malraux et A Camus consid r s comme des crivains existentialistes Elle met l'accent sur des aspects de leurs crits souvent n'glig s par certains critiques savoir le rapport l'absence la mort la notion de t moignage ainsi que les liens entre litt rature et histoire French XX Bibliography, Issue 61 William J.

Claude Vandeloise,1991-10-08 This striking study of the meaning and use of the major spatial prepositions in French provides valuable insight into how the human mind organizes spatial relationships Most previous analyses of spatial prepositions have assumed that their semantic properties can be adequately explained by familiar logical and geometrical concepts Thus the standard view of the preposition in as it appears in the sentence the ball is in the bag postulates that it refers to the geometrical relation of inclusion This paradigm however falters when faced with the contrast in acceptability between sentences such as the bulb is in the socket and the bottle is in the cap The force exerted by the landmark a conceptually fixed object on the target a moveable object is crucial in this difference the functional notion of containment seems more operational in the use of the preposition in than inclusion That is what are taken to be the landmark and the target depend greatly on the functions these objects serve in the human scheme This offers important clues to otherwise problematic linguistic quirks such as why one sleeps in one s bed while one is said to lie on one s deathbed While many of the examples apply in English as well as French there are some noteworthy differences in French one sits on a chair but in a couch Vandeloise convincingly argues that it is precisely this subjective element which makes a standard geometrical account unfeasible Gatekeepers William Marling,2016 Rich in archival materials interviews with publishers and translators and close readings of translations this study shows how the process and production of literature depends on the larger social forces of a given historical moment From the publisher Shaping and Reshaping the Caribbean Martin Munro,2000

The current drive in Caribbean literary studies stresses similarities and points of convergence between the various islands of the archipelago and their authors the fundamental aim of which is to move closer to an all encompassing theory of Caribbeanness Martin Munro challenges this movement and through a study of the work of Aime Cesaire and Rene Depestre proposes an alternative vision of the present and future of Caribbean literature The main areas of inquiry are how these two Caribbean writers construct their sense of themselves how they relate to the Caribbean and to the wider world and how they have been influenced by the historical and cultural particularities of their respective islands Aime Cesaire s sense of self and of the Caribbean is essentially shaped around the circuit triangulaire the model of Africa Europe Caribbean interdependencies ultimately inherited from the time of the slave trade Munro shows how Cesaire views the Caribbean as a deeply traumatic insubstantial space how he looks to Africa for his lost sense of self and how Europe is seen at once as the malevolent colonial power and also the home of poetry and learning Rene Depestre s Caribbean shape is quite different Africa is relatively absent in Depestre s work Europe is not presented as a threat and Depestre unlike Cesaire sees in the Caribbean an energy and a creativity brought about by the historical fusion of disparate cultures An important factor in shaping Depestre s model of Caribbeanness is his long exile from Haiti and Depestre s experience of exile is analysed in detail The combination of broad contextualization diverse theoretical approaches and close analysis of these important writers work produces a strong argument against attempts to view and read writing from the Caribbean as one literature Difference and diversity it is argued predominate as Caribbean writing embraces the new century and the whole notion of Caribbeanness undergoes further processes of highly creative splintering and reshaping Les temps modernes, 2009
