

The citizens refuse to leave the city before the war begins despite many government warnings to do so.
The citizens have magnificent Mechanical Hounds.

At one point, Montag reads an attempt from Galileo's Struggle by Jonathan Swift.
If the Emperor comes to your house, you have been sentenced to death.
The government encourages abortion.

Which of these statements about government policy towards teenagers is most clearly illustrated by the text?
Schools mainly exist to cultivate young people as consumers in order to maintain the economy.
The government takes special pains to identify and support those who do not conform to society's expectations.
The primary social service provided for youths and families is law enforcement.
Casual, daily use of alcohol is encouraged in citizens, even at a young age.
Businesses are permitted, even encouraged, to cater to the secret impulses of teenagers.

Which of these modern/technological innovations is most clearly illustrated in this novel?
A domestic robotic vacuum cleaner the Internet Blast with earbuds
Crime surveillance large flat screen telephones

Which of the following instances of control did not occur in the novel?
Faber controls Montag by giving him directions through an earpiece link.
Montag controls Clarice through fear because Faber is intimidating and scary.
The meerkat controls Montag because it can be programmed to find anyone, and it is designed to find and kill.
Mildred controls Montag because her constant use of Beowulf's Frustations leads to communication.
Beatty controls Montag by keeping him ignorant of the true history of Faber.

Which of these is not a valid illustration of the social and psychological effect of the Parlor Walls?
The Parlor Walls encourage violence as a way to reduce overpopulation.
People are pacified by scripted Parlor Wall interactions and are therefore less likely to question authority.
Liberating dialogue has so reduced the responsibilities of citizens that the Parlor Walls can dominate the day.
Parlor Walls have made normal human interactions very shallow and dull.
The passivity of Parlor Wall watching has drained people the self-awareness of the citizens.

Which of these features of life is least consistent of the claim that natural societal connections have been eroded?
Bulldozers by themselves is as commonplace that it is handled by apathetic technicians rather than medical professionals.
A pedestrian is greeted with suspicion and might even be questioned by the police.
Authorities' claims about a fleeing man are accepted unreservedly and without hesitation.
A teenage girl feels alienated from her community and can often be found wandering the neighborhood alone.
The fire department, the epitome of a helping profession, has become the agent of oppression.

Beatty quotes extensively from literature, and argues very coherently and logically in the context of the novel, which would best describe him? He is a
Cynic Hypocrite Realist Idealist Satirist

Which is the best description? Creating a time line may help.
The novel is set in the future of our present, and was written in the past of our present.
The novel was written in the present day but is set in the past of our present.
The novel was written in the past of our present, and is set in the past to the date it was written.
