The Complicit Text Ivan Stacy, 2020-12-10 The Complicit Text Failures of Witnessing in Postwar Fiction identifies the causes of complicity in the face of unfolding atrocities by examining the works of Albert Camus Milan Kundera Kazuo Ishiguro W G Sebald Thomas Pynchon and Margaret Atwood Ivan Stacy argues that complicity often stems from narrative failures to bear witness to wrongdoing However literary fiction he contends can at once embody and examine forms of complicity on three different levels as a theme within literary texts as a narrative form and also as it implicates readers themselves through empathetic engagement with the text Furthermore Stacy questions what forms of non complicit action are possible and explores the potential for productive forms of compromise Stacy discusses both individual dilemmas of complicity in the shadow of World War II and collective complicity in the context of contemporary concerns such as the hegemony of neoliberalism and the climate emergency

Teaching with Dystopian Text Michael Arthur Soares, 2023-10-10 Teaching with Dystopian Text propounds an exchange of spatial to pedagogical practices centered around Orwellian Spaces signaling a new utility for teaching with dystopian texts in secondary education The volume details the urgency of dystopian texts for secondary students providing theoretical frameworks classroom examples and practical research The function of dystopian texts such as George Orwell's 1984 as social and political critique is demonstrated as central to their power Teaching with Dystopian Text Exploring Orwellian Spaces for Student Empowerment and Resilience makes a case that dystopian texts can be instrumental in the transfer of spatial practices to pedagogical practices

Pedagogical application creates links between the text and the student through defamiliarization connecting the student to practices of resistance in the space of the classroom The volume also addresses the challenges of teaching dystopian text in a dystopian educational climate including the COVID 19 lockdown In addition to appealing to scholars and researchers of literacy education language education and dystopian text this book will also be a powerful yet accessible resource for secondary teachers as they address dystopian concerns with students in the complicated twenty first century Ray Bradbury Jonathan R. Memory, Intermediality, and Literature Sara Tanderup Linkis, 2019-04-16 If readers of Sara Tanderup Linkis Something to hold on to open the book in the expectation of entering a niche of literature and literary studies they will leave it after having encountered a new highway in literature Here the traditional theme of memory and the most recent use of digital media merge into a new understanding of the role of the book in the contemporary media landscape and of vicissitudes of memorial processes literature which also offers a broader perspective on literature in human history Spurred by Sara Tanderup Linkis sharp eye the readings of texts are lucid engaging and offers so many ideas that teachers will renew their curricula and readers will open the internet for more or rush to the library Svend Erik Larsen professor emeritus Memory Intermediality and Literature investigates how selected literary works use intermedial strategies to represent and perform cultural memory Drawing on the theoretical perspectives of cultural memory studies this engaging reader friendly monograph examines new materialism and intermediality studies analyzing works by Alexander Kluge W G Sebald Jonathan Safran Foer Anne Carson Mette Hegnh j William Joyce J J Abrams and Doug Dorst The works emerge out of different traditions and genres ranging from neo avant garde montages through photo novels and book objects to apps and children's stories In this new monograph Sara Tanderup Linkis presents an interdisciplinary and comparative approach reading the works together across genres and decades and combining the perspectives of memory studies and materialist and media oriented analysis This approach makes it possible to argue that the works not only use intermedial strategies to represent memory but also to remember literature reflecting on the changing status and function of literature as a mediator of cultural memory in the age of new media Thus the works may be read as reactions to modern media culture suggesting the ways in which literature and memory are affected by new media and technologies photography and television as well as iPads and social media

Reader's Block Matthew Rubery, 2022-10-04 What does the term reading mean Matthew Rubery's exploration of the influence neurodivergence has on the ways individuals read asks us to consider that there may be no one definition This alternative history of reading tells the stories of atypical readers and the impact had on their lives by neurological conditions affecting their ability to make sense of the printed word from dyslexia hyperlexia and alexia to synesthesia hallucinations and dementia Rubery's focus on neurodiversity aims to transform our understanding of the very concept of reading Drawing on personal testimonies gathered from literature film life writing social media medical case studies and other sources to express how cognitive differences have shaped people's experiences both on and off the page Rubery contends that there is no single activity known as reading Instead there are multiple ways of reading and for that matter not reading despite the ease with which we use the term Pushing us to rethink what it means to read Reader's Block moves toward an understanding of reading as a spectrum that is capacious enough to accommodate the full range of activities documented in this fascinating and highly original book Read it from cover to cover out of sequence or piecemeal Read it upside down sideways or in a mirror For just as there is no right way to read there is no right way to read this book What matters is that you are doing something with it something that Rubery proposes should be called reading

Kittler Now Stephen Sale, Laura Salisbury, 2015-03-17 Friedrich Kittler was one of the world's most influential provocative and misunderstood media theorists His work spans analyses of historical discourse networks inspired by French poststructuralism influential theorizations of new media through to musings on music and mathematics Always controversial and relentlessly unpredictable Kittler's work is a major reference point for contemporary media theory literary criticism and cultural studies This is the only book of essays currently available in English on an important thinker whose influence across disciplines is growing The volume situates Kittler's ideas explaining and critiquing his sometimes difficult writing and using his theories to undertake innovative readings of old and new media It also includes previously untranslated work by Kittler himself Contributors include Caroline Bassett Steven Connor Alexander R Galloway Mark B Hansen John Durham Peters and Geoffrey Winthrop Young

David Foster Wallace and the Body Peter Sloane, 2019-05-17 David Foster Wallace and the Body is the first full length study to focus on Wallace s career long fascination with the human body and the textual representation of the body The book provides engaging accessible close readings that highlight the importance of the overlooked and yet central theme of all of this major American author s works having a body Wallace repeatedly made clear that good fiction is about what it means to be a human being A large part of what that means is having a body and being conscious of the conflicts that arise morally and physically as a result a fact with which as Wallace forcefully and convincingly argues we all desire to be reconciled Given the ubiquity of the themes of embodiment in Wallace s work this study is an important addition to an expanding field The book also opens up the themes addressed to interrogate aspects of contemporary literature culture and society more generally placing Wallace s works in the history of literary and philosophical engagements with the brute fact of embodiment
