Gauteng Province Novembr Paper 1 Geography:

The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight, Christian M. Rogerson, 2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South Regional Worlds: Advancing the Geography of Regions Martin Jones, Anssi Paasi, 2017-10-02 A key concern in the debate and empirical research on the geography of regions is the evolution of the conceptualizations and practical uses of the idea of region This idea prioritises both the intellectual and the practical development of regional studies This book drives the discussion further It stresses the complex forms of agency advocacy involved in the production and reproduction of regional spaces and space of regionalism as well as the importance of geohistory and context The book moves beyond the territorial relational divide that has characterized debates on regions and regional borders since the 1990s The contributors answer key questions from different conceptual and concrete contextual angles and to motivate readers to reflect on the perpetual significance of regional concepts and how they are mobilized by various actors to maintain or transform the contested spatialities of societal power relations This book was based on a special issue of Regional Studies The Contested Idea of South Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Busani Ngcaweni, 2021-11-29 This book reflects on the complex and contested idea of South Africa drawing on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Ever since the delineation of South Africa as a country the many diverse groups of people contained within its borders have struggled to translate a mere geographical description into the identity of a people Today the new struggles for South Africa and to become South African are inextricably intertwined with complex challenges of transformation xenophobia claims of reverse racism social justice economic justice service delivery and the resurgent decolonization struggles reverberating inside the universities This book covers the genealogy of the idea of South Africa exploring how the country has been conceived of by a broad group of actors including the British Afrikaners diverse African nationalist traditions and new formations such as the Economic Freedom Fighters EFF Black First Land First BLF and student formations Rhodes Must Fall Fees Must Fall Over the course of the book a broad range of themes are covered including identity formation modernity race ethnicity indigeneity autochthony land gender intellectual traditions poetics of South Africanness language popular culture truth and reconciliation and national development planning Concluding with important reflections on how a colonial imaginary can be changed into a free and inclusive postcolonial nation state this book will be an important read for Africanist researchers from across the humanities and social sciences Making Public in a

Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past

Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly, 1997 Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender, 2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country Debates of the National Assembly (Hansard) South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly, 1997 Ambiguous Restructurings of Post-apartheid Cape Town Christoph Haferburg, Jürgen Ossenbrügge, 2003 What will tomorrow's Cape Town look like This volume reflects a variety of aspects of urban development and restructuring efforts in Cape Town in the last years A focus lies on the question if the apartheid city is reproducing itself This leads to an evaluation whether current policies really counter societal imbalances The essays presented here illuminate possible pathways towards the urban futures unfolding in a South African city in transition Johannesburg, Africa's World City, 2002 The Changing Space Economy of City-Regions Koech Cheruiyot, 2017-10-30 This book addresses the South African Space Economy and its stark disparities and dualisms through an assessment of the Gauteng City Region the largest economic agglomeration in the country and on a continent bedevilled by a myriad of development challenges The book's focus on understanding the overall character of Gauteng City Region's Space Economy through data mining analysis and mapping comprehensively supplements the Space Economy literature on the region It covers the disparities exacerbated by an overlay of apartheid planning ideology and top down regional development based on selective encouragement of manufacturing investments in growth points or poles and how implementation of past policies intended to cure these disparities have yielded mixed results This book further offers the

Gauteng City Region as a microcosm of the national economy in the form of evident significant placed based variations in the intensity and character of economic structure that on the one hand enjoys massive agglomeration economies while on the other has high levels of poverty and large numbers of people living below the Minimum Living Level This book should appeal to urban studies specialists economists and development studies researchers in the Global South Resilience Reset Aditya V. Bahadur,Thomas Tanner,2021-07-11 Drawing on evidence from urban resilience initiatives around the globe the authors make a compelling argument for a resilience reset a pause and stocktake that critically examines the concepts practices and challenges of building resilience particularly in cities of the Global South In turn the book calls for the world s cities to alter their course and pivot towards novel approaches to enhancing resilience The book presents shifts in ways of acquiring and analysing data building community resilience approaching urban planning engaging with informality delivering financing and building the skills of those running cities in a post COVID world grappling with climate impacts In Resilience Reset the authors encourage researchers policymakers and practitioners to break out of existing modes of thinking and doing that may no longer be relevant for our rapidly urbanising and dynamic world The book draws on the latest academic and practice based evidence to provide actionable insights for cities that will enable them to deal with multiple interacting shocks and stresses The book will be an indispensable resource to those studying urbanisation development climate change and risk management as well as for those designing and deploying operational initiatives to enhance urban resilience in businesses international organisations civil society organisations and governments It is a must read for anyone interested in managing the risks of climate impacts in urban centres in the Global South The Promise of Planning Philip Harrison,Alison Todes,2024-07-10 The Promise of Planning explores the experience of planning internationally since the global financial crisis focusing on South Africa The book is a response to a decade plus in which state led planning has re emerged as a putative means for achieving developmental goals as indicated in global initiatives such as the New Urban Agenda and where planning in South Africa has consolidated in terms of its legal and policy basis However the return of planning is happening in an inauspicious context with economic fragilities technological shifts political populism institutional complexities and more threatening to upturn the new promise of planning The book provides a careful analytical account of planning in South Africa and how and why its promises have been difficult to achieve Building on the authors previous book Planning and Transformation the book sheds light on planning as an increasingly complex and diverse governmental practice within a perpetually changing world It can be used as a resource for planners who must make good on the new promise of planning while navigating the risks and threats of the contemporary world as well as students and faculty interested in international planning debates and the South African case Public Libraries in Africa Aissa Issak,2000 Drum ,2006
