Gay Bar Guide London:

Gay Bar Jeremy Atherton Lin, 2021-02-09 NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY The New York Times NPR Vogue Gay Times Artforum Gay Bar is an absolute tour de force Maggie Nelson Atherton Lin has a five octave Mariah Carey esque range for discussing gay sex New York Times Book Review As gay bars continue to close at an alarming rate a writer looks back to find out what s being lost in this indispensable intimate and stylish celebration of queer history Strobing lights and dark rooms throbbing house and drag queens on counters first kisses last call the gay bar has long been a place of solidarity and sexual expression whatever your scene whoever you re seeking But in urban centers around the world they are closing a cultural demolition that has Jeremy Atherton Lin wondering What was the gay bar How have they shaped him And could this spell the end of gay identity as we know it In Gay Bar the author embarks upon a transatlantic tour of the hangouts that marked his life with each club pub and dive revealing itself to be a palimpsest of queer history In prose as exuberant as a hit of poppers and dazzling as a disco ball he time travels from Hollywood nights in the 1970s to a warren of cruising tunnels built beneath London in the 1770s from chichi bars in the aftermath of AIDS to today s fluid queer spaces through glory holes into Crisco slicked dungeons and down San Francisco alleys He charts police raids and riots posing and passing out and a chance encounter one restless night that would change his life forever The journey that emerges is a stylish and nuanced inquiry into the connection between place and identity a tale of liberation but one that invites us to go beyond the simplified Stonewall mythology and enter lesser known battlefields in the struggle to carve out a territory Elegiac randy and sparkling with wry wit Gay Bar is at once a serious critical inquiry a love story and an epic night out to remember

It's closing time for an alarming number of gay bars in cities around the globe but it's definitely not the last dance. In this exhilarating journey into underground parties pulsating with life and limitless possibility, acclaimed author Amin Ghaziani unveils the unexpected revolution revitalizing urban nightlife. Far from the gay bar with its largely white gay male clientele, here is a dazzling scene of secret parties, club nights wherein culture creatives, many of whom are queer, trans, and racial minorities reclaim the night in the name of those too long left out. Episodic, nomadic, and radically inclusive, club nights are refashioning queer nightlife in boundlessly imaginative and powerfully defiant ways. Drawing on Ghaziani's immersive encounters at underground parties in London and more than one hundred riveting interviews with everyone from bar owners to party producers, revelers to rabble rousers, Long Live Queer Nightlife showcases a spectacular if seldom seen vision of a queer world shimmering with self-empowerment, inventiveness, and joy.

Pride Matthew Todd, 2020-06-23. In June 1969, police raided New York's gay bar, the Stonewall Inn. Pride charts the events of that night, the days and nights of rioting that followed, the ensuing organization of local members of the community, and the 50 years since in which activists and ordinary people have dedicated their lives to reversing the global position. Pride documents the milestones in the fight for equality, from the victories of early activists to the gradual acceptance of the LGBTQ community in politics, sports, and the media, and the landmark court cases that helped to ban discrimination, permit marriage, and help in the fight for equality. This wide-reaching text covers key figures and notable moments, events, and breakthroughs, a wealth of rare images and documents, as well as moving essays from key witnesses to the era. Pride is a unique and comprehensive account of the ongoing challenges facing the LGBTQ community and a celebration of the equal rights that have been won, for many as a result of the sacrifices and passion of this mass movement. Includes personal testimonies from Travis Alabanza Bisi Alimi, Georgina Beyer, Jonathan Blake, Deborah Brin, Maureen Duffy, David Furnish, Nan Goldin, Asifa Lahore, Paris Lees, Lewis Oakley, Reverend Troy Perry, Darryl Pinckney, Jake Shears, Judy Shepard, and Will Young.
