Men Richard Canning, 2007-05-17 Lambda Literary Award winning editor Richard Canning brings together all new work by Edmund White Dale Peck James McCourt Andrew Holleran and others The Politics of Passion Gloria Wekker, 2006-04-25 Gloria Wekker analyzes the phenomenon of mati work an old practice among Afro Surinamese working class women in which marriage is rejected in favor of male and female sexual partners Wekker vividly describes the lives of these women who prefer to create alternative families of kin lovers and children and gives a fascinating account of women s sexuality that is not limited to either heterosexuality or same sex sexuality She offers new perspectives on the lives of Caribbean women transnational gay and lesbian movements and an Afro Surinamese tradition that challenges conventional Western notions of marriage gender identity and desire Bringing these women s voices to the forefront she offers an extensive and groundbreaking analysis of the unique historical religious psychological economic linguistic cultural and political forces that have shaped their lives Hear Us Out Richard Canning, 2003 Mikhail Gorbachev and Zdenek Mlynar were friends for half a century since they first crossed paths as students in 1950 Although one was a Russian and the other a Czech they were both ardent supporters of communism and socialism One took part in laying the groundwork for and carrying out the Prague spring the other opened a new political era in Soviet world politics In 1993 they decided that their conversations might be of interest to others and so they began to tape record them This book is the product of that thinking out loud process It is an absorbing record of two friends trying to explain to one another their views on the problems and events that determined their destinies From reminiscences of their starry eyed university days to reflections on the use of force to save socialism to contemplation of the end of the cold war here is a far more candid picture of Gorbachev than we have ever seen before

The Postmodern Short Story Farhat Iftekharrudin, Joseph Boyden, Mary Rohrberger, Jaie Claudet, 2003-12-30 Short stories are usually defined in terms of characteristics of modernism in which the story begins in the middle develops according to a truncated plot and ends with an epiphany This approach tends to ignore postmodernism a movement often characterized by a negation of objective reality where plots are seemingly abandoned surfaces are extraordinary and symbols turn inward on themselves This book examines postmodern forms and characteristic themes by analyzing a group of short stories that make use of postmodern narrative strategies including nonfictional fiction gender profiling and death as an image The volume begins with a discussion of the blurred lines between fiction and nonfiction in the short story and imaginative personal essay It then looks at the role of women in works by such authors as Sandra Cisneros Leslie Marmon Silko Joyce Carol Oates and Lorrie Moore This is followed by a section of chapters on postmodern masculinity and short fiction The next section focuses on death as an image and theme in works by Richard Ford Richard Brautigan and James Joyce The final set of chapters considers postmodern short fiction from South Africa and Canada Families We Choose Kath Weston, 1997 This study brings together two areas of investigation relationships of gay and lesbian individuals with their biological families and lesbian and gay relationships in the context of research on alternative forms of family Queer

Theory and the Jewish Question Daniel Boyarin, Daniel Itzkovitz, Ann Pellegrini, 2003 Table of contents Auden's Games of Knowledge Richard R. Bozorth, 2001 The first full length consideration of Auden as a homosexual poet this volume shows that Auden's career was tied to a process of gay self interrogation unparalleled in modern poetry and argues that he was driven by a powerful yearning to comprehend the psychological political and ethical implications of same sex desire Auden's theories about poetry in the 1930s and after reflected an intense concern with how to write publicly as a homosexual poet That struggle was made manifest in his love poetry which Bozorth argues constitutes a kind of erotic autobiography exploring the distinct challenges of homosexual love Bozorth's approach is manifold examining the poet's engagements with avant garde poetics gay subculture psychoanalysis leftist politics and theology This book proposes that from his early fascination with secret agent and trickster figures to his later theories of poetry as an I Thou relation Auden viewed poetry as a fictional but primal erotic encounter with the reader Fashioning Sapphism Laura Doan, 2001-01-03 The highly publicized obscenity trial of Radclyffe Hall's The Well of Loneliness 1928 is generally recognized as the crystallizing moment in the construction of a visible modern English lesbian culture marking a great divide between innocence and deviance private and public New Woman and Modern Lesbian Yet despite unreserved agreement on the importance of this cultural moment previous studies often reductively distort our reading of the formation of early twentieth century lesbian identity either by neglecting to examine in detail the developments leading up to the ban or by framing events in too broad a context against other cultural phenomena Fashioning Sapphism locates the novelist Radclyffe Hall and other prominent lesbians including the pioneer in women's policing Mary Allen the artist Gluck and the writer Bryher within English modernity through the multiple sites of law sexology fashion and literary and visual representation thus tracing the emergence of a modern English lesbian subculture in the first two decades of the twentieth century Drawing on extensive new archival research the book interrogates anew a range of myths long accepted without question and still in circulation concerning to cite only a few the extent of homophobia in the 1920s the strategic deployment of sexology against sexual minorities and the rigidity of certain cultural codes to denote lesbianism in public culture Queer Domesticities M. Cook, 2014-04-29 Sissy home boys or domestic outlaws Through a series of vivid case studies taken from across the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Matt Cook explores the emergence of these trenchant stereotypes and looks at how they play out in the home and family lives of queer men The Violet Hour David Bergman, 2004-07-06 The members of the literary circle known as the Violet Quill Christopher Cox Robert Ferro Michael Grumley Andrew Holleran Felice Picano Edmund White and George Whitmore collectively represent the aspirations and the achievement of gay writing during and after the gay liberation movement This social history shows how the works of these authors both reflected and criticized the values principles and prejudices of the culture of gay liberation In spinning many of the most important stories gay men told of themselves in the short period between the 1969 Stonewall Riots and the devastation of the AIDS epidemic during the 1980s the Violet Quill exerted an enormous influence on gay culture Queer Commodities G. Davidson, 2012-02-27 Queer Commodities is the first book length analysis of same sexuality and consumer capitalism in contemporary US fiction Moving beyond the critical tendencies to identify gay and lesbian subcultures as either hopelessly immersed in consumer capitalism or heroically resistant to it Guy Davidson argues that while these subcultures are necessarily commodified they also provide means of subversively negotiating aspects of life under capitalism Psychological Perspectives on Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual Experiences Linda Garnets, 2003 This book provides an overview of current thought about the psychological issues affecting lesbians bisexuals and gay men James Purdy Michael Snyder, 2022 This is the first biography of a gay American novelist story writer and playwright who in the early 1960s was considered a major talent and whose work was praised by Jonathan Franzen Susan Sontag Langston Hughes and Tennessee Williams Business, Not Politics Katherine Sender, 2005-01-05 In a hard hitting book that refutes conventional wisdom Katherine Sender explores the connection between the business of marketing to gay consumers and the politics of gay rights and identity She disputes some marketers claims that marketing appeals to gay and lesbian consumers are a matter of business not politics and that the business of gay marketing can be considered independently of the politics of gay rights identity and visibility She contends that the gay community is not a preexisting entity that marketers simply tap into rather it is a construction an imagined community formed not only through political activism but also through a commercially supported media She argues that marketing has not only been formative in the constitution of a GLBT community and identity but also has had significant impact on the visibility of gays and lesbians
