and Diane Wordsworth Life-Writes Suzanne Ruthven,2012 The second most common question a writer is asked is where do your ideas come from The first is Do you make any money from it Experienced writers don't go looking for ideas ideas come to them An experienced writer just has the knack of spotting what makes a good story or what will make a good story once it's been given the right spin because none of us if we're honest will let reality get in the way of a saleable piece of work Editors are looking for an element of action drama or surprise even in non fiction It's what catches their attention and makes them pause to read further and the key to any editor's heart is originality Not necessarily a new departure in style or genre but a refreshing and original slant on a popular theme Life Writes helps you to find and develop ideas with editor appeal
