Outcomes of post-2000 Fast Track Land Reform in Zimbabwe Lionel Cliffe, Jocelyn Alexander, Ben Cousins, Rudo Gaidzanwa, 2014-06-11 The struggle over land has been the central issue in Zimbabwe ever since white settlers began to carve out large farms over a century ago Their monopolisation of the better watered half of the land was the focus of the African war of liberation war and was partially modified following Independence in 1980 A dramatic further episode in this history was launched at the start of the last decade with the occupation of many farms by groups of African veterans of the liberation struggle and their supporters which was then institutionalised by legislation to take over most of the large commercial farms for sub division Sustained fieldwork over the intervening years by teams of scholars and experts and by individual researchers is now generating an array of evidence based findings of the outcomes how land was acquired and disposed of how it has been used how far new farmers have carved out new livelihoods and viable new communities the major political and economic problems they and other stakeholders such as former farm workers commercial farmers and the overall rural society now face This book will be an essential starting place for analysts policy makers historians and activists seeking to understand what has happened and to spotlight the key issues for the next decade This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies Electronic Communications Privacy Act (ECPA). United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, Homeland Security, and Investigations, 2013

Privacy Journal, 2004 ON/OFF Sarah Genner, 2017-01-03 Are you constantly online Or are you offline sometimes Are you offline if you are not interacting with your connected devices Or if no data about you is being collected Do you check Instagram and Twitter during dinner Do you turn off your smartphone at night Do you check work emails on vacation Do you feel you have to disconnect regularly to relax to concentrate or to protect your privacy Or do you feel more relaxed when constantly connected because your loved ones a work emergency or the news are always at your fingertips Why are some people even within networked societies still completely offline given the tremendous opportunities of the Internet And what does it even mean to be online or offline in the age of hyper connectivity In ON OFF Sarah Genner assesses the risks and rewards of the anytime anywhere Internet focusing on digital divides social relationships physical and mental health and data privacy She discusses implications for a variety of decision makers in the world of work in education in families and in politics The author deconstructs the online offline dichotomy and suggests the ON OFF scale as a new theoretical framework for researchers and practitioners
