

9/10/13: Nothing Ever Happens on 90th Street

I think that Eva didn't realize how exciting her street was until she wrote the story. I think this because there were so many different things happening on 90th street, but she never took the time to realize it. For example, a simple event like the pizza delivery man falling down and being helped up by Alexis Leora turned into so much more. Alexis and the pizza delivery man fell in love because of this small encounter. I wonder if this will now be an "eye-opening" experience for her and she'll stop taking these everyday people and events for granted.

This reminds me of a time where I went away to college. I always thought the town that I grew up in was boring, but then when I came home for the first time, I looked around at all of the "little things." I never realized it at the time, but my town was not boring at all, it was, in fact, a very exciting and interesting place.

The Ultimate Journal Writing Book for Kids & Adults Samantha Claire, 2017-01-15 When You Feel Rotten, Confused, and Need to Unload. Try Journaling. Are you going through a rough patch? Do you need more clarity in your life? Journaling is essentially externalizing your thoughts and feelings to paper. It lets you know more about yourself, experiences, and hone in to your inner voice. Through this book, you'll learn how to fully express yourself like you've never done before. You'll be able to explore everything that goes on internally and externally. By journaling about your thoughts and feelings, they come clearer and real to you that you can almost touch it. In every aspect of your life, you can make it better by exploring it through journaling. With journaling, you'll be able to vent off all fears, bad emotions, sad experiences, and negative thinking so that you can eject them out of your system once and for all. You can explore your hopes, dreams, and innermost thoughts to know what you really want. For someone who has done this for over a decade, it's funny and sometimes embarrassing to see what I wrote down many years ago. But it's amazing to see how far I've come where I managed to materialize my childhood wishes. It's the best feeling to actually meet your past self through the journals of your youth. This book will also help you be more creative, self-motivated, self-aware, and mindful amidst the confusion of a thousand things going on in normal life. Journaling will keep you grounded to the present, to your thoughts, to your past, and even to your future. This will help you be more physically, emotionally, and spiritually, be more content. It will help build stronger relationships to the people in your life, even a stronger connection with your dreams and aspirations. Start enjoying the many benefits of keeping a journal. Let me take you by the hand as we embark on this journey together. Grab your copy today.

Recording of Transaction; Journal and Ledger - English Navneet Singh, Recording transactions accurately is essential for maintaining financial records and ensuring compliance with accounting standards and tax regulations Here s a general process for recording transactions

Identification of Transactions Identify all financial transactions relevant to the business including sales purchases expenses revenues investments loans and any other financial activities

Documentation Obtain supporting documents for each transaction such as invoices receipts bills contracts bank statements and vouchers These documents serve as evidence of the transaction and provide details for recording it accurately

Classification Classify each transaction based on its nature such as revenue expense asset liability equity or equity distribution Proper classification ensures that transactions are recorded in the appropriate accounts in the accounting system

Recording in Journals Record each transaction in the appropriate journal or subsidiary ledger Common journals include the sales journal purchases journal cash receipts journal cash disbursements journal and general journal

Double Entry Bookkeeping Follow the double entry bookkeeping system which requires recording each transaction with at least one debit and one credit entry ensuring that the accounting equation Assets Liabilities Equity remains balanced

Posting to General Ledger Transfer the transaction data from journals to the general ledger which contains all accounts used in the accounting system Update the respective account balances based on the debits and credits recorded in the journals

Trial Balance Prepare a trial balance periodically usually monthly or quarterly to verify that the total debits equal the total credits in the general ledger The trial balance helps in identifying any errors or discrepancies in the recording process

Adjustments Make adjusting entries at the end of the accounting period to account for accruals deferrals depreciation allowances and other adjustments required for accurate financial reporting

Financial Statements Prepare financial statements including the income statement balance sheet and cash flow statement based on the adjusted trial balance These statements provide a summary of the company s financial performance and position during the period

Closing Entries Close temporary accounts such as revenue expense and dividend accounts at the end of the accounting period by transferring their balances to the retained earnings or owner s equity account

Audit and Review Conduct internal audits and reviews periodically to ensure the accuracy and reliability of financial records External audits may also be conducted by independent auditors for statutory compliance and verification

Storage and Retention Maintain proper documentation and records of all transactions in compliance with legal and regulatory requirements Store financial records securely and retain them for the specified retention periods By following these steps businesses can ensure that their financial transactions are accurately recorded providing a reliable basis for decision making financial reporting and compliance with accounting standards and regulations
