The Literary and Human Legacy of Clara Sereni Giulia Po DeLisle, Susan Briziarelli, 2025-03-18 Clara Sereni lived an extraordinary life in extraordinary times Born in Rome in 1946 she grew up in a prominent family of Jewish intellectuals whose influential role in Italian politics and in the anti fascist resistance could not but inform Sereni s own future social and political engagement Coming of age during the turbulent Sixties Sereni embraced the struggle for women's rights, social justice and political reform, championing Eduardo Galeano's notion that utopia always stands at the horizon and one must keep walking to reach it. Activist, journalist, writer, translator, but also musician, disability rights champion, home maker and wife, her multiple and often conflicting roles emerge in a rich and multifaceted writing increasingly balanced between the public and the private. History with a capital H and personal memoir. Her first major success, Casalinghitudine Keeping House, explores the juncture of the public and the personal as important historical moments merge with her workaday memories of cooking. Her remarkable historical novel Il Gioco dei Regni The Game of Kingdoms traces her family history from the early 20th century through the post-war period, chronicling their personal lives and their involvement in Italian politics and Jewish intellectual life. Subsequent works such as Taccuino di un ultimista Notebook of a Meek Woman and Passami il sale Pass me the Salt tackle the difficulties of negotiating life as a political figure, wife and mother of a disabled son. In works such as Eppure And Yet Le Merendanze Afternoon Snacks and Una storia chiusa A Closed Story as well as Il lupo mercante The Mongering Wolf and Via Ripetta 155, Ripetta Street, she again intertwines private experiences and public circumstances, raising questions related to gender, class, disability, the elderly and sustainability. This is the first volume that brings together the critical aspects of Clara Sereni's work, providing a comprehensive view of the writer, the intellectual, the politician and the woman. As we reflect on the 20th century, Sereni's long spanning writing career stands as an important document of its struggles, its conflicts and, like Sereni herself, its enduring idealism.

Eco Tech Trond Undheim, 2023-08-23. The book is a seminal contribution from a leading futurist who over the past three decades has explored each of the most disruptive forces shaping our world today, including emerging technologies, entrepreneurship, venture investments and industrial manufacturing. Eco Tech brings all this thinking together, fusing insight from thought leaders with the author's own considerable experience to explore scenarios for 2050 and discuss eco-effectiveness as an established practice for governments, corporations, startups and individuals. Trond Arne Undheim begins by providing a brief history of sustainability and provides simple definitions for key terms, including eco-efficiency, life cycle analysis, industrial ecology, cleantech, net zero, climate change, biodiversity and carbon capture, which will enable the reader to engage confidently in eco-discussions. He applies this framework to green ambitious startups and examines the way these ventures will lead the way towards an eco-effective society, drawing on stories from exciting founders who are already changing the world. Finally, the book takes a deep dive into emerging eco-innovations, including batteries, bioplastics, distributed energy, space tech and futuristic megaprojects. The book contains clear directions on how to progress through adversity and avoid returning to the status quo. The book will be an essential guide for executives, sustainability professionals and energy tech investors who are deeply concerned with the future and are prepared to both significantly invest in it and make behavioral changes to foster regenerative development.
