Exploring Peace Formation Kwesi Aning, M Anne Brown, Volker Boege, Charles T Hunt, 2018-04-17 This volume examines the dynamics of socio political order in post colonial states across the Pacific Islands region and West Africa in order to elaborate on the processes and practices of peace formation Drawing on field research and engaging with post liberal conceptualisations of peacebuilding this book investigates the interaction of a variety of actors and institutions involved in the provision of peace security and justice in post colonial states The chapters analyse how different types of actors and institutions involved in peace formation engage in and are interpenetrated by a host of relations in the local arena making the local contested ground on which different discourses and praxes of peace security and justice coexist and overlap In the course of interactions new and different forms of socio political order emerge which are far from being captured through the familiar notions of a liberal peace and a Weberian ideal type state Rather this volume investigates how dis order emerges as a result of interdependence among agents thus laying open the fundamentally relational character of peace formation This innovative relational liminal and integrative understanding of peace formation has far reaching consequences for internationally supported peacebuilding This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding peace studies security studies governance development and IR Great Basin Evolution and Metallogeny Geological Society of Nevada.

In 1964 65 an international team of thirty eight scientists and assistants led by Montreal physician Stanley Skoryna sailed to the mysterious Rapa Nui Easter Island to conduct an unprecedented survey of its biosphere Born of Cold War concerns about pollution overpopulation and conflict and initially conceived as the first of two trips the project was designed to document the island s status before a proposed airport would link the one thousand people living in humanity s remotest community to the rest of the world its germs genes culture and economy Based on archival papers diaries photographs and interviews with nearly twenty members of the original team Stanley s Dream sets the expedition in its global context within the early days of ecological research and the understudied International Biological Program Jacalyn Duffin traces the origins the voyage the often complicated life within the constructed camp the scientific preoccupations the role of women the resultant reports films and publications and the previously unrecognized accomplishments of the project including a goodwill tour of South America the delivery of vaccines and the discovery of a wonder drug For Rapa Nui the expedition coincided with its rebellion against the colonizing Chilean military resulting in its first democratic election For Canada it reflected national optimism as the country prepared for its centennial and adopted its own flag Ending with Duffin s own journey to the island to uncover the legacy of the study and the impact of the airport and to elicit local memories Stanley s Dream is an entertaining and poignant account of a long forgotten but important Canadian led international expedition Guide to Public Vital Statistics Records in Texas Texas

Drama Tragedy Irony Unsolved mysteries And throw in a little greed Beneath Haunted Waters is not a ghost story it s not that kind of haunted at all These are waters haunted by generations of people who cannot forget the story of how two B 24 Liberator bombers disappeared in 1943 and what happened to the boys on board During the World War II years the convention was to call young men in their late teens to their late 20s boys The boys who piloted bombers and fighter aircraft during World War II were 19 or 20 years old barely out of their childhood Imagine boarding a 737 today and seeing a teenager at the controls instead of a person with greying temples That was the situation during the war Beneath Haunted Waters is a story about that era when children flew large airplanes equipped with enough firepower to destroy cities And yet boys they were and boys they will always be But it s primarily a story of how they died not in combat but by accident During World War II the USA lost 7100 combat aircraft and 5300 trainers along with 15 530 pilots crew members and ground personnel in over 52 000 domestic accidents These statistics don t compare to the huge numbers of RAF 8th Air Force and Luftwaffe losses during the European air war but the numbers are still frightening Between 1942 1945 US aviation losses to accidents 12 400 exceeded combat losses 4500 to the Japanese For every plane shot down in the South Pacific there were three lost to accidents within the United States While memoirs of those who served histories of military and political leaders and books about combat abound very little has been written about the terrible toll of aviation training accidents during the war Beneath Haunted Waters is unique because it tells this hardly known and little appreciated story Most information on this subject is covered in official reports It appears in a casual way in many memoirs There are a few histories of the air war during World War II that mention aviation accidents during training or once the boys were in theater There has been no popular academic or comprehensive book on the subject I propose to cover this subject within the more personal story of what happened to the two Liberators that wound up in Huntington Lake and Hester Lake Usually pilots and crews of World War II aircraft were neither old enough to vote nor to drink Many had never driven a car or taken a train ride much less been in an airplane Nine months after enlistment they were flying the most technologically advanced high performance machines ever built The same could be said for their navigation equipment and radio gear But aviation had been around for only 40 years Aircraft design was still in its infancy Engines failed pilots flew into mountains navigators got lost radios broke and weather forecasts were frequently and fatally wrong Lewis and Clark National Forest (N.F.), Oil and Gas Leasing ,1997 Sierra Club Bulletin ,1939
