Irvine Welsh

If You Liked School You'll Love Work:

If You Liked School, You'll Love Work Irvine Welsh, 2007-09-17 From the author Trainspotting comes Welsh's first short story collection since his debut work The Acid House. In typically Welshian fashion the characters and settings in these five stories are anything but typical.

If You Liked School, You'll Love Work Irvine Welsh, 2025-04-25 Irvine Welsh the author of Trainspotting is up to his old tricks with his new work of transgressive short fiction. Irvine Welsh's first short story collection since his debut work The Acid House presents five extraordinary stories which remind us that he is a master of the short form, a brilliant storyteller and unarguably one of today's funniest and most subversive writers. In Rattlesnakes three young Americans lost in the desert are accosted by two armed Mexicans. A Korean chef and a Chicago socialite find themselves connected through the disappearance of a pooch named Toto. In The D O G S of Lincoln Park and in the title story Mickey Baker, an ex-pat English bar owner living on the Costa Brava, tries to keep all of his balls in the air, maintaining his barmaid's weight at the sexual maximum, attending to the youthful Persephone and dodging his ex-wife and Spanish gangsters. In typically Welshian fashion the characters and settings are anything but typical. These stories will make you laugh and gasp.

The Concise Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch, Katy Hooper, 2013-05-30 Based on the bestselling Oxford Companion to English Literature, this is an indispensable compact guide to all aspects of English literature. Over 5,500 new and revised A to Z entries give unrivalled coverage of writers, works, historical context, literary theory, allusions, characters, and plot summaries. Discursive feature entries supply a wealth of information about important genres in literature. For this fourth edition, the dictionary has been fully revised and updated to include expanded coverage of postcolonial, African, black British, and children's literature, as well as improved representation in the areas of science fiction, biography, travel literature, women's writing, gay and lesbian writing, and American literature. The appendices listing literary prize winners, including the Nobel, Man Booker, and Pulitzer prizes, have all been updated, and there is also a timeline chronicling the development of English literature from c. 1000 to the present day. Many entries feature recommended web links which are listed and regularly updated on a dedicated companion website. Written originally by a team of more than 140 distinguished authors and extensively updated for this new edition, this book provides an essential point of reference for English students, teachers, and all other readers of literature in English.

Irvine Welsh Robert Morace, 2007-07-19 This book provides an introduction to the work of Irvine Welsh, placing his fiction in historical and theoretical context. It explores Welsh's biography, his impact on contemporary Scottish fiction, and the cultural relevance of his work. Including a timeline of key dates, it also offers an overview of the critical reception his work has provoked.

What Do Employers Want? Priscilla K. Shontz, Richard A. Murray, 2012-06-05 A candid, comprehensive, and insightful explanation of what library school students need to do in order to maximize their chances of getting a professional position immediately after graduation. While library schools provide graduates with a solid understanding of library science concepts, many diploma holders have no clear plan for finding a desirable job with their knowledge The information in What Do Employers Want A Guide for Library Science Students will be extremely valuable for students currently in Masters of Library Science program as well as recent recipients of MLS degrees regardless of what kind of work environment they wish to work in The book guides readers through the process of planning a job search step by step Divided into two major sections the student experience and the job search the authors provide critical advice derived from their combined 30 years of real world in the field experience Specific topics include choosing classes gaining practical experience while in school establishing a professional image gaining skills that make applicants more marketable writing effective resumes and cover letters interviewing and negotiating a job offer

Amy Hackney Blackwell, 2010-04-21 Presents information about several careers in the fitness beauty and education fields that can be obtained with a high school diploma In Search of Satisfaction J. California Cooper, 2010-12-29 With In Search Of Satisfaction Cooper gracefully portrays men and women some good and others wickedly twisted caught in their individual thickets of want and need on a once grand plantation In Yoville a legal town ship founded by the very rich for their own personal use a freed slave named Josephus fathers two daughters Ruth and Yinyang by two different women His desire to give Yinyang and himself money and opportunities oozes through the family like an elixir In seeking the legacy left by their father Ruth and Yinyang pull each other their families and their Yoville neighbors into a vortex of ever powerful emotion

Fixing Law Schools Benjamin H. Barton, 2019-12-17 An urgent plea for much needed reforms to legal education The period from 2008 to 2018 was a lost decade for American law schools Employment results were terrible Applications and enrollment cratered Revenue dropped precipitously and several law schools closed Almost all law schools shrank in terms of students faculty and staff A handful of schools even closed Despite these dismal results law school tuition outran inflation and student indebtedness exploded creating a truly toxic brew of higher costs for worse results The election of Donald Trump in 2016 and the subsequent role of hero lawyers in the resistance has made law school relevant again and applications have increased However despite the strong early returns we still have no idea whether law schools are out of the woods or not If the Trump Bump is temporary or does not result in steady enrollment increases more schools will close But if it does last we face another danger We tend to hope that crises bring about a process of creative destruction where a downturn causes some businesses to fail and other businesses to adapt And some of the reforms needed at law schools are obvious tuition fees need to come down teaching practices need to change there should be greater regulations on law schools that fail to deliver on employment and bar passage Ironically the opposite has happened for law schools they suffered a harrowing near death experience and the survivors look like they re going to exhale gratefully and then go back to doing exactly what led them into the crisis in the first place The urgency of this book is to convince law school stakeholders faculty students applicants graduates and regulators not to just return to business as usual if the Trump Bump proves to be permanent We have come too far through too much to just shrug our shoulders and move on
