Smith, 2024-11-05 How does a Black man in Austin get sent to prison on a 70 year sentence for stealing a tuna sandwich likely costing Texas taxpayers roughly a million dollars In America your liberty or even your life may be forfeit not simply because of what you do but where you do it If the same man had run off with a lobster roll from a lunch counter in Maine it s unlikely that he d be spending the rest of his life behind bars The U S incarcerates more people than any other industrial democracy in the world We have more ex prisoners than the entire population of Ireland and more people with a felony record than the populations of Denmark Norway New Zealand and Liberia combined Why did the United States become the world s biggest jailer And just as importantly what has it done to us What are the costs socially economically and politically of having the world s largest population of ex prisoners And what can we do about it In this landmark book Kevin B Smith explains that the United States became the world s biggest jailer because politicians wanted to do something about a very real problem with violent crime That effort was accelerated by a variety of partisan and socio demographic trends that started to significantly reshape the political environment in the 1980s and 1990s The force of those trends varied from state to state but ultimately led to not just historically unprecedented levels of incarceration but equally unprecedented numbers of ex prisoners Serving time behind bars is now a normalized social experience it affects a majority of Americans directly or indirectly There is a clear price the jailer s reckoning to be paid for this As Smith shows it is a society with declining levels of civic cohesion reduced economic prospects and less political engagement Mass incarceration turns out to be something of a hidden bomb a social explosion that inflicts enormous civic collateral damage on the entire country and we must all do something about it The Province of Burma Alleyne Ireland, 1907 Alleyne Ireland 1871 1951 was a Fellow of the Royal Geographic Society in London who in 1901 was appointed by the University of Chicago to head a commission to study colonial administration in the Far East Ireland's first major project published in 1907 was this exhaustive two volume study of Burma at the time under British rule as a province of the Indian Empire Volume one contains a general description of Burma a history of Britain's acquisition of the colony and chapters on the people government general administration civil service police administration judicial administration prison administration and educational system Volume two is devoted to economic and administrative affairs including financial administration the land revenue system public works trade and shipping and the administration of forests towns villages and harbors Twenty one appendices provide additional detail including economic and demographic statistics the texts of treaties agreements and reports a bibliography and a glossary of Indian and Burmese words At the end of volume one is a large foldout map of Burma by Edinburgh mapmakers John Bartholomew Co The Justice's Manual for the State of Minnesota Walter Sherman Booth, 1890
